It is an honour to have served as the president of the International Association for the Advancement of Teaching and Research of Intellectual Property (ATRIP) and to contribute this edited volume to further ATRIP's goals of progressing intellectual property research from around the globe.

As president it was a great pleasure to host the 36th ATRIP meeting at Victoria University of Wellington, New Zealand. Thanks to the sponsors of that meeting, including the World Intellectual Property Organization, New Zealand's Ministry of Business Innovation and Employment, InternetNZ and the New Zealand Law Foundation.

I thank all of the authors who have contributed to this volume and Kathleen Henning, LLM student, for her research assistance.
