Index

accessibility  9
ESO standards, of  41–5, 47, 50–51, 86–7 FRAND terms  74–5, 86–7
medical and healthcare standards  125–6
national standardisation bodies  43–4, 47 safe harbour criteria, and  74–5, 86–7 Standardisation Regulation, obligations under  40–45, 47
technical standards  40–45
telecommunications standards  43
tort law, and  125–6
accountability  237
banking and financial standards  195–201
Codex Alimentarius  261–2
input legitimacy  225–7, 236–8 judicial review, as mechanism for  268 law and economics perspective on  166–9 scrutiny  13
Annual Union Work Programme on standardisation  59–60
Anstar  49–50, 54, 105
Artegodan  284
Balázs  43–4
banking and financial standards  181–2 global financial crisis, and  181–2 global financial standards accountability mechanisms  198–202 bail-in principles  191–2 endorsement procedure  193
EU law, incorporation into  190–93
G20, role of  180–81, 185, 191 implementation and compliance  188–90 incorporation vs. reference  192–3 international organisations, role of  180–81, 183–5
judicial review  201
limitations of  201
market incentives for  189–90, 193 Monitorsing Body  200–201 reporting obligations  189, 199–202 scope of  185–7
standard-setters, membership restrictions  183–4, 194–5 transnational regulatory networks  183–4 harmonisation trends  180–81 legal status of  181, 188 legitimacy of accountability, and  195–201 democratic mandate  181–2, 194–6 efficacy  182
incorporation method, and  193
input legitimacy  9–10, 181–3, 194–6
output legitimacy  12, 181–2 risk of regulatory capture, and  197–9 risk of technocracy, and  195–6
stakeholder participation  181–2, 194–5, 198–9 Basel Committee on Banking Supervision  180, 182–4, 186–7, 194, 197–8 capital requirements rules  182, 190–91 due process and accountability  197 membership of  183–4

292
Index

benefits of standardisation 5–7, 168–9 centralisation 171–2, 174–5
law and economics perspective on 161–6, 171–2, 174–5 Better Regulation framework legitimacy requirements 21–2 private regulation, role in 6–7, 20–21 technical standards, role of 20–21
Bolam v Friern Hospital Management Committee 119

CEN-CENELEC
accessibility of standards 42–4, 86–7 Annex III organisations, consultation rights 9
input legitimacy 9–10
liabilities
non-contractual liabilities 142–3
tortious liabilities 153–5
standard setting procedures accessibility obligations 9, 72–4, 86–7
byelaws, role of 76, 78, 83–4
EU requests for standards 113–14
limitations on 114
national delegations 78–80
non-compliance, liabilities arising from 153–5
public enquiries 80–81
safe harbour criteria
compliance, and 75–87
SME participation 80
stakeholder participation 9, 72–81, 137–8, 153
technical committees and working groups 77–9
transparency 9, 72–4, 82–4
voluntariness of standards 84–6 voting procedures 153–4 standards delivery rates 21
Charter of Fundamental Rights and Freedoms of the EU 23
Chemische Fabrik Kreussler 282–3
Codex Alimentarius
accountability 261–2
approval and publication phase 260–61 Commission, role and powers of 244, 254–6 development of 254
drafting and consultation phase 258–61
incorporation into national/EU law 100, 248–9, 261 investigation phase 258–61
legal status 100, 248–9
legitimacy of 11–12, 14, 256–65 national delegates, role of 261–3 risk assessment phase 256–8, 263
stakeholder participation 258–64
standard-setting procedures 256–61, 263
transparency 256–7, 263–4
Commission
legislative powers and discretion 55–7, 63, 114, 138, 226 monitoring responsibilities 51, 53–4, 60–61, 135, 138, 148
non-contractual liabilities 141–2
Commission v Hellenic Republic 209
Commission White Paper on Governance (2001) 6
Community of Practice on Better Co- and Self-regulation (CoP) 28–9, 35 competition law
association of undertakings prohibitions 9, 64–6
definitions 68–9
EMC decision 67–8
infringement, assessments of 87–9
judicial interpretation 67–70
safe harbour criteria, applicability 9, 64, 67–8
whether ESOs fall within scope of 66–71, 87–90 Horizontal Cooperation Agreements guidelines 9 legitimacy of standardisation, and 73–4, 88–9
obstacles to market entry
law and economics perspective 165, 173
procurement standards 206, 209–10 procurement procedures, and market incentives 204 obstacles to market entry 206, 209
technical specifications, compliance of 206–8 product safety standards, and 137–8 safe harbour criteria see safe harbour criteria standardisation agreements, and agreements between undertakings, whether 67–71 infringement, assessments of 87–9 participation and transparency criteria 64–5 public authority powers, and 69–72 safe harbour criteria, applicability of 9, 64, 67–8, 87–90 standardisation organisations associations of undertakings, whether 67–71 transparency obligations 8–9, 72–4 standardisation, role in 5–6, 64, 206 conflicts 137–8
economic theories of 158–9, 165–6, 170–76 studies of standardisation, and 3 compliance
banking and financial standards 188–90
competition law, and 206–8
safe harbour criteria 75–87
liabilities
ESOs, of 153–5
medical negligence 122–3
product safety standards 149–50
medical and healthcare standards 114–15, 122–3, 275–6
medical devices standards 275–6 presumption of conformity HESs 4–5, 48–9, 65, 96, 209 judicial review, and 105–6
medical and healthcare standards 122–3
New Approach 48–9, 65, 96, 270
WTO standards, of 100, 247–50, 263 private monitoring mechanisms 14–15 product safety standards 131, 149–50
public procurement standards 206–8
SPS Agreement obligations 245–8
technical specifications 206–8 constitutionalism abuse of power, and 23
legitimacy of standardisation, and 22–3, 227–8
standardisation challenges of 22–6, 47, 228–9 technical standardisation, scope in 22–6, 36–9, 47 copyright 41–2, 59
derelated acts 55–6
DIN 42
Dundalk 207
e-government, interoperability 215
EC - Hormones 246, 249–50
EMC 67–8, 75
European Catalogue of ICT Standards for Public Procurement (draft) 211–12, 215
European Code for Electronic Communications 230 European Conference of Postal and Telecommunications Administrations (CEPT) 238
European Interoperability Framework 215
European Medicines Agency (EMA) 99, 270, 272, 274, 276–7
European Standard for Aesthetic Surgery Services 110–111, 115–16, 124–8 European Standardisation Organisations see also CEN-CENELEC; European Telecommunications Standards Institute
accessibility 41–5, 47, 50–51
byelaws 76
competition law prohibitions 9, 64–6
association of undertakings 66, 69, 90
EMC decision 67–8
infringement, assessments of 87–9
judicial interpretation 68–70
public authority powers, and 71–2
safe harbour criteria, applicability 9, 64, 67–75, 87–90 undertakings, interpretation of 68
whether caught by 66–71, 87–90
copyright restrictions 41–3, 59
discretion 52
language versions of standards 43–4 legal personality 142–3 legitimacy of approaches regarding 23–4, 38–9, 227–8 internal dynamics 227
liabilities of non-contractual liabilities 141–3 tortious liabilities 143–54
limitations of 16, 226–7
procedural principles 50–51
stakeholder participation 8–9, 72–4, 137–8 standardisation mandates, and development, role in 57–9, 63, 226 monitoring mechanisms 60–61
obligations and benefits of 58–9 pre-mandate consultations 57–8
transparency 8–9, 41–5, 47, 50–51, 72–4
European Telecommunications Standards Institute (ETSI) 21
accessibility 43
international roaming standards 234–5
liabilities of 142–3, 155
transparency and accountability 237
Financial Stability Board 180–81, 184, 187, 189, 191–2, 194–5, 199 Financial Stability Forum 180–81, 184 financial standards see banking and financial standards
food safety standards
EC - Hormones 246, 249–50
global food safety regulation
Codex Alimentarius see Codex Alimentarius development 244
EU law, incorporation into EU law 100, 248, 250–51
legal status 247–50, 253
sanctions, role of 249–50 supply chain challenges 243
WTO, role of 100, 244–50
India - Agricultural Products 245–8
legitimacy of Codex Alimentarius 11–12, 14, 256–65
democratic legitimacy 252
input legitimacy 11, 252–3
output legitimacy 12, 253
throughput legitimacy 253
private standards, economic benefits of 168–9
US/Canada - Continued Suspension 247–8
WTO rules
presumption of conformity 247–50, 263
SPS agreement obligations 245–8, 250–51
Fra Bo 85–6, 129, 286–7, 290–91
FRAND commitments 74–5
free movement of goods 286–7
Germany v EU Council 192
global standards
global financial standards see banking and financial standards global food supply chain see food safety standards globalisation, and, studies of 3–4 incorporated into EU law 233, 238–41 judicial review of 103–4, 106–8

Green Card 104
Green v Building Scene 120
Grimaldi 281–2
GSM Association 233

Harmonised European Standards 4–5
accessibility 86–7
Anstar, and 49–50
competition law conflicts agreements between undertakings 67–71, 90 infringement, assessments of 87–9
public authority powers, and 69–72 restriction of competition, interpretation of 72
safe harbour criteria, applicability 67–75, 87–90
whether caught by 67–71, 87–90
copyright restrictions 41–2, 59
FRAND terms, and 86–7
implementing acts, as 25–6, 37 incorporation into EU law direct action 102–3
judicial review 102–4
partial incorporation 102
reproduction, by 103–4 judicial interpretation of 49–50, 54
judicial review 21, 45–6, 102–3, 288–9
law vs. standards, distinction between 52–3 legitimacy 16, 21, 209, 219 Meroni v. ECSC, implications of 49–50
national standard-setting, influences on 29–30
New Approach, and 30–31, 48–50
presumption of conformity 4–5, 48–9, 65, 96, 209
public law norms, as 25 reference to, publication in OJ 65, 96, 103–5, 134–5 non-contractual liabilities arising from 141–2 requirements for 29–31, 51 standardisation mandates, and 54, 60–62 technical standardisation, compared with 49 tort liabilities of 16
voluntary vs. binding status 48, 84–6 Harmonised Standards Consultants 61–2 health and safety standards 4–5, 100 horizontal cooperation agreements 66–7
Horizontal Guidelines see safe harbour criteria

ICT standards
European Interoperability Framework 215
legitimacy
Commission recognised standards 212–14
input legitimacy 10, 211–12
open standards, of 217–19 limitations and disadvantages 210–212 public procurement, use in benefits of 210–211, 220–21 closed standards 214–15
European Catalogue, draft standards 211–12, 215 innovation partnerships, and 218–19 interoperability, promotion of 215, 219–20 lock-ins 210–212, 214–15
open standards 214–20
standard-compelling alternatives 211–12 tender procedures, and 210–211 Standardisation Regulation provisions 204–5, 214 implementing acts 14–15
delegated acts, compared 55–6
HESs as 25–6, 37, 51
India - Agricultural Products 245–8
input legitimacy 8–11, 15–17, 50–51, 65, 94
accountability 225–7, 236–8 balance challenges of 228–9
banking and financial standards 9–10, 181–3, 194–6, 198–9
democratic legitimacy 181–2, 194–6, 252
dilemma of standardisation 223–4, 228–9, 240
food safety standards 11, 252–3
ICT standards 10, 211–12
institutional legitimacy, and 125–7
international standards 239–41
judicial review 238
medical and healthcare standards 112, 125–7
political influences 225–7, 237
private law, and 112, 125–7
public procurement standards 10, 204, 209, 219
regulatory intermediation, and 225 representation, scope of 125–6
risk of technocracy, and 195–6
safe harbour criteria 73–4
stakeholder participation 181–2, 194–5, 198–9, 225, 236–8 standard-setting powers, delegation of 225–6, 237
technical standardisation, and 21–2, 26–7
telecommunications standards 10–11, 225–6, 236–41
transparency 236
Interinstitutional Agreement on Better Law-Making 2003 6
International Accounting Standards Board 180, 184–6, 197, 200–201 International Association of Insurance Supervisors 180, 183–4, 186, 194
International Auditing and Assurance Standards Board 184–5
International Council for Harmonisation of Technical Requirements for Pharmaceuticals for Human Use (ICH), 99, 274
International Electrotechnical Commission (IEC) 238, 274
International Federation of Accountants 185–6
International Financial Reporting Standards 184–5 International Monetary Fund 185, 189
international standards
banking and financial standards 184–5
food safety standards 244–8, 250–51
health and safety standards 100
incorporation by reproduction 233, 238–41
pharmaceutical standards 272–3
presumption of conformity 100, 247–50, 263
SPS Agreement 99–101, 245–8, 250–51
TBT Agreement 99–101
telecommunications standards 238–41
WTO standards, incorporation of 99–101 International Telecommunications Union 233–4, 237, 274 internet 10
James Elliott Construction v Irish Asphalt 4, 25, 31–3, 37, 41–6, 70, 85, 102, 104–5, 129, 135, 151, 155, 228, 286–8, 290–91
Joint Initiative on Standardisation 2016 6–7
judicial review 37
availability of 268
criteria for 95, 238, 278, 280–83 legitimacy of standards, benefits for 93–5, 278–80 obligations absent from legislation 281–2 Old Approach to standards adoption, and 278–83, 290–91 unintended legal effects, where 281–2 Commission acts, challenging 103 conflicting standards 110–112 court approach inconsistencies 13, 49–50, 105–9 court jurisdiction 102–5, 108–9
The Legitimacy of Standardisation as a Regulatory Technique

direct action 102–3, 108

global standards, incorporation of 103–4, 106–7

James Elliott 102, 104–5, 286–8, 290–91

preliminary rulings 102, 284–8

standards referenced in OJ 103–5, 281–2

direct review 280–83

HESs, of 288–9

incidental review 284–6

legal framework for 105–9

general principles of EU law, relevance of 106–8 global standards, relevance to 106–8

Kadi I and Kadi II 107–8

limitations 105–9, 238

presumption of conformity 105–6

legal status, relevance of 280–83, 287–9

marketing authorisation decisions 284–5

medical devices standards 286–7, 290–91

pharmaceutical standards see pharmaceutical standards preliminary rulings jurisdiction 102

New Approach to standards, and 286–8

Old Approach to standards, and 284–5 procedures 45–6

purpose 13, 93–5, 101–2, 279

studies of 93–4

telecommunications standards 238

Kadi I 107

Kadi II 107–8

Knooble 42

Kotnik 285

Laval 152

law and economics perspective

legitimacy, on 156, 178

accountability 166–9

counterveiling interests and powers 167–8 efficiency, and 168–9

private standards, of 166–9 public choice theory, and 167–8 rent-seeking 167

transparency and participation, role of 166–9 market failure, types of 158–9 optimal care standard 161, 165

public goods, role of 159

regulation, generally command and control mechanisms 160

market-based/ incentive-based instruments 160–61 private regulation 160–61, 163 public interest arguments for 158–60

suasive mechanisms 161

standards, generally

barriers to trade or market entry, as 165, 173

centralisation, role and benefits of 171–2, 174–5 characteristics of 161–2

competition law interactions 158–9, 165–6, 170–76 costs and benefits of 161–6 economic framework for 157–63, 177–8 economics of federalism theory 171–2 efficiency of 158–60, 165, 168–9

flexibility of 164, 166

harmonisation effects of 171–7 hybrid regulation, potential benefits of 175–7 internal market perspective 173–5 licensing vs. certification 170

performance standards 162

private standards, criteria for 169–70 remedy for market failure, as 158–60 rules, compared with 157–8 specification standards 162

stakeholder participation 166–9, 175–6
target standards 162
trading up 165
transparency in 166–9, 175–6 types of 162
studies of standardisation 3–4
legal status
banking and financial standards 181, 188
binding secondary law, conflicts with 10
Codex Alimentarius 100, 248–9
global food safety standards 247–50, 253
HESs, of 48, 84–6, 134–5
judicial review, relevance for 280–83, 287–9
legitimacy of standardisation, and 10
liabilities arising from 145–6
pharmaceutical standards 280–83
product safety standards 134–5, 145–6
public procurement standards 203–4 safe harbour criteria, relevance for 84–6 voluntary vs. binding nature 23–4, 28–9, 31–3, 48, 84–6 legitimacy, generally
binding secondary law, conflicts with 10
capture by special interest groups, and 16 competition law perspectives on 73–4 definition of legitimacy 8, 252
dilemma of standardisation 223–4, 228–9, 240
evidence-based standards, role for 120–1, 127–9 input legitimacy see input legitimacy institutional legitimacy 125–7 norm creation and implementation 27–8 output legitimacy see output legitimacy procedural legitimacy see input legitimacy professional legitimacy 124–5 public power, links with 8, 23 quality and validation 127–8 substantive legitimacy see output legitimacy liabilities see medical negligence;
non-contractual liabilities; product safety standards

M (case) 122–3
market integration
New Approach to standardisation, and 4–5, 50
principles of 229
MC Leeuwarden 122, 126
medical and healthcare standards
development of 114–15, 267
duty of care, interpretation 110–111
judicial review
limitations on 268
New Approach mechanisms 286–9
Old Approach mechanisms 269–86
legitimacy
accessibility and representation of 125–6
input legitimacy 112, 125–7
institutional legitimacy, and 125–7
output legitimacy 112, 125, 127–8
private law, and 124–5, 128–30
professional legitimacy 124–5
quality and validation 127–8
transparency 268
medical devices standards see medical devices standards
medical negligence see medical negligence
New Approach, applicability to 114–15, 267 pharmaceutical standards see pharmaceutical standards plastic surgery standards, case study background 110–112
evidence-based standard, challenges of 120–1
The Legitimacy of Standardisation as a Regulatory Technique regulatory conflicts 111–12, 116, 118–19 tortious liability vs. standardisation 117–24

safeguards 116
medical devices
definition 266–7
marketing authorisations 270
product safety and duty of care 146–8 regulatory approach, generally 267, 269–70
medical devices standards
European Medicines Agency, role of 276–7 good manufacturing practice 276–7 HESs, compliance with 275–6
judicial review 286–7, 290–91
accountability mechanism, as 268
legal effects of 290–91
marketing, for 270
New Approach
applicability of 267, 270, 275 technical standards, compared with 277–8 pharmaceutical standards, compared 266–8, 289–91
presumption of conformity 270
procurement procedures 209
purpose 275–6
quality management procedures 276 self-certification 270
technical and scientific guidance, and 275–7, 289–90
medical negligence
burden of proof 120–22
certification, and 117–18
contractual liabilities 117–18 Dutch law perspective 121–4 duty of care, interpretation of 110–111 English law test 119–21
evidence-based standards, role for 120–21, 127–9 experts, role of 119, 122–4 medical/ professional standard vs. legal standard 119–25
presumption of conformity 122–3 responsible body of medical opinion, role of 119–21 standard of care, interpretation of 118–19
tortious liabilities 117
Medipac 209
Meneely v SR Smith 142, 148–9
Meroni v ECSC 49–50, 227–8
Meyers v Donatucci 145
Mititsu 102
monitoring
breach of, liabilities for 141–2, 148 Commission role and powers 51, 53–4, 60–61, 135, 138, 141–2, 148 judicial accountability, and 13
private mechanisms 14–15
standardisation mandates 60–62
third-party monitoring 61–2
national standardisation bodies
accessibility of standards 43–4, 47
certification obligations 30–31 judicial review, access to 45–6
SMEs, participation of 40–41
Standardisation Regulation influences on 29–30
Netherlands 122–4, 215–20
New Approach 4–5
delegation of powers, constitutional challenges of 49–51, 56–7 essential requirements 52–3, 56–7, 65, 113–14, 226 law vs. standards, separation of 53, 56
limitations of 37–8, 47, 49, 114–15, 227
medical devices standards 267, 269–70, 275, 277–8 old Approach, differences from 271
presumption of conformity 48–9, 65, 96, 270
principles of 113–14
standards implementation implications 30–32, 56–7
telecommunications standards 226, 241–2
New Approach Consultants 61
non-contractual liabilities 145
EU institutions, of 132–3, 140–3 notified bodies 30–31

Official Journal of EU, reference to standards in incorporation by 65, 95–9, 103–5 non-contractual liabilities arising from 141–2 static vs. dynamic references 97–9

Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD) 234 output legitimacy 11–12, 15–17, 65–6 balance challenges of 228–9 banking and financial standards 12, 181–2 dilemma of standardisation 223–4, 228–9, 240

efficacy 182
food safety standards 12, 253
medical and healthcare standards 112, 125, 127–8 multi-stakeholder initiatives, of 74 private law, and 112, 125, 127–8 safe harbour criteria 73–4 technical standardisation, and 21–2, 26–7 telecommunications standards 12, 240–41 participation in standard-setting banking and financial standards 181–2, 194–5, 198–9 Codex Alimentarius 258–64

competition law, and 64–5, 72–81
ESOs, obligations of 8–9, 72–4, 76.78, 137–8
input legitimacy 181–2, 194–5, 198–9
law and economics perspective 166–9, 175–6
national delegations 78–80
national standardisation bodies 40–41
product safety standards 137–8
public enquiries 80–81
public procurement standards 204 regulatory bodies, role of 10–11, 234–5, 241
safe harbour criteria 72–81
SMEs, role of 38–41, 80 stakeholders 9, 72–81, 137–8, 153

Standardisation Regulation obligations 8–9, 38–40, 137, 153
technical committees and working groups 77–9
telecommunications standards 10–11, 225, 234–5, 236–8, 241
transparency 72–4, 82–4

pharmaceutical products
definition 266
marketing authorisations 269–70
regulatory approach, generally 267, 269–72, 289 technical and scientific guidance 267–8, 271, 274–8, 289–90

pharmaceutical standards authorship criteria 271–4, 280
definitions 272–3
HESs, criteria for 272–3
international/ global standards 272–4
judicial review 13–14, 268
availability of 268, 278–9
direct review 280–83
incidental review 284–6
legal status, relevance of 280–83
limitations of 280–83
marketing authorisation decisions 284–5
preliminary rulings 284–5 publication, relevance of 281–2 market authorisation, for 270–72, 282, 284–5, 290
medical devices standards,
compared 267–8, 289–91
Old Approach for 269–70, 271–4, 280 private standards
incorporation by reproduction 99
legal effects of 282–3, 290–91
recognised standard-setting bodies 272–4 regulatory bodies 99, 270, 272–4 technical and scientific guidance, as 267–8, 271–2, 274–8, 289–90
throughput legitimacy 13–14
plastic surgery standards 110–111, 115–16, 124–8

Plaumann 283

presumption of conformity HESs 4–5, 48–9, 65, 96, 209
judicial review, and 105–6
medical and healthcare standards 122–3
New Approach 48–9, 65, 96, 270
WTO standards, of 100, 247–50, 263

private standards/ regulation, generally benefits and disadvantages of 5–7 economics perspective see law and economics perspective

EU law, methods of entry into certification mechanisms 117–18 incorporation by reference in OJ 65, 95–9, 103–5
incorporation by reproduction 99–101, 103–4 negligence, non-compliance as 117
partial incorporation 102
presumption of conformity 4–5, 48–9, 65, 96, 100, 105–6 static vs. dynamic reference 97–9 technical standards, by way of 24–5 WTO agreement obligations 99–100

liabilities arising from 154–5 business operator responsibilities 148–9 chilling effect of standardisation 150–52 compliance, challenges of 149–50 duty of care 132, 139–40, 146–8 effect of standardisation 150–52
ESOs and EU institutions, of 132–3, 140–44, 148, 150–54
judicial interpretation 143–4 legal status, interpretation of 145–6 national laws 144–5
negligence 152–4
non-contractual liabilities 132–3, 140–3, 145
outdated/ withdrawn standards 140 private law perspective 132, 143–50 public law perspective 132–43 qualified breach restrictions 152 standard of care 132, 150–54
tortious liabilities 132, 143–50

medical devices 146–8

safeguards 137–8

scrutiny of draft standards 138

stakeholder participation 137–8
Index

Standardisation Regulation obligations 133, 137, 153 unsafe standards 136–40, 152 proportionality 6, 206
public procurement standards challenges and limitations of 204, 209 competition law, and market incentives 204 obstacles to market entry 206, 209–10
technical specifications, compliance of 206–8 ICT standards see ICT standards legal status of 203–4 legitimacy burden of proof 205
HESs, of 209, 219
input legitimacy 10, 204, 209, 219
political participation 204
presumption of conformity 204, 209
purpose of 203
technical specifications, and 206–8 tenders procedures 205–9

R v HM Treasury, ex parte British Telecommunications 142
Reports on the Observance of Standards and Codes 189 Roche Lietuva 206

safe harbour criteria accessibility 74–5, 86–7
byelaws, role of 76, 78
EMC 75
EOEs and HESs applicability to 9, 64, 67–75 compliance with 72–86
FRAND terms 74–5, 86–7
input legitimacy 73–4
national delegations 78–80
output legitimacy 73–4
principles of 71
public enquiries 80–81
public powers exclusion 69–72 restriction, interpretation of 72
Selex 71–2
SMEs, participation of 80

stakeholder participation 76–81 standards/standardisation agreement, interpretation under 71–2 technical committees and working groups 77–9 transparency of standards 72–4, 82–4 voluntariness of standards 84–6
Sardines 99–100
Schmitt 129, 144
scrutiny breach of, liabilities for 141–2, 148 Commission monitoring powers 138, 141–2, 148 judicial accountability, and 13
Selex 71–2
SPS Agreement 99–100, 245–6
stakeholders, participation in standard-setting CEN-CENELEC procedures 9, 72–81, 153 legitimacy, influences on 38–41, 46–7
liabilities of 153
national delegations 78–80
public enquiries 80–81
SMEs 38–41, 80
Standardisation Regulation obligations 38–40, 153
technical committees and working groups 77–9 standardisation mandates/requests AUWP, role of 59–60
comitology mechanisms 55–6 Commission role monitoring 51, 53–4, 60–61 rule-making powers 55–6, 63, 114, 226 consultants 61–2
consultation procedures 57–8 contractual implications of 57–62 ESOs, and development, role in 57–9, 63
monitoring mechanisms 60–62
obligations and benefits of 58–9
prior consultation procedures 57–8

Mariolina Eliantonio and Caroline Cauffman - 9781789902952 Downloaded from Elgar Online at 12/05/2021 08:40:28PM via free access essential requirements of 52–3, 56–7, 65 implementing measures, status as 54–5, 56–7 law vs. standards, bridging gap 53–4, 56 legislative basis for 52
non-compliance, sanctions and remedies 62 offer-acceptance structure 59–60
purpose of 51–4
tables of conversion 53–4 Standardisation Regulation (No 1025/2012)
accessibility obligations 40–45, 47
Annex II requirements 9–10
Annex III organisations 9–10, 38, 83 copyright, challenges of 41–2
definitions 231
dispute resolution 45–6
HESs see Harmonised European Standards
ICT technical specifications, special rules for 204–5, 214 implementation obligations 29–30
judicial review 45–6
legitimacy of 50–51
limitations of 9, 37–9, 50–51
national standardisation bodies, impacts on 29–30 participation obligations 8–9, 137
principles of 39–40
purpose 50–51, 114, 227–8
reform of 47
stakeholder participation 38–40, 153
standardisation mandates see standardisation mandates/requests standardisation organisations see European Standardisation Organisations throughput legitimacy of 39–47, 50–51
transparency obligations 40–45, 47, 82
voluntary obligations, implementation of 28–9
standards, generally
definition 203, 206
purpose of 203
Standards Market Relevance Roundtable (SMARRT) 39
studies of standardisation 1–4, 17–18
TBT Agreement 99–101
technical specifications competition law compliance 206–8
definition 231, 274–5
performance or functional requirements 207 references to 207–8
standards, compared with 206
technical standardisation, generally accessibility and transparency 40–45
accountability 92–3
compliance mechanisms, challenges for 35–6 constitutional challenges of 22–6, 47 constitutionalisation, scope of 36–9 development trends 20–21
EU powers, judicial interpretation of see judicial review freedom, restrictions on 23–5 implementation of failure, consequences of 31–4 guidance on 28–9, 35
HES, requirements for 29–31
James Elliott 31–3
legal uncertainty, and 32–4 legislative harmonisation, compared 49 legitimacy of input legitimacy of 21–2, 26–7 output legitimacy of 21–2, 26–7
throughput legitimacy of 26–8, 35–6, 39–47
methods of entry into EU see private standards/ regulation national standard-setting, influences on 29–30
New Approach, implications of 30–32, 50 role of 91–2
Standardisation Regulation, role of 37, 39–45, 231 studies of accountability of 92–3 technical specification, definition 231, 274–5 voluntary vs. binding standards 23–4, 28–9, 31–3 Walloon Tourism Act (case) 33–4 telecommunications sector competition in 229–30, 233 interoperability, role of 224, 229–31
 market integration 230–31, 241 regulatory framework 230–31, 238–40
 telecommunications standards
 cross-border harmonisation 233 ETSI
 accessibility of standards 43
 international roaming standards 234–5
 non-contractual liabilities 142–3
 standards delivery rates 21
 tortious liabilities 155
 transparency and accountability 237
 EU law incorporation, mechanisms for 238–9 global system for mobile operators (GSM) 233
 input legitimacy 10–11, 225–6, 240
 accountability 225–7, 236–8
 international standards 239–41
 judicial review 238
 political influences 225–7, 237
 regulatory intermediation, and 225
 stakeholder participation 225, 236–8
 standard-setting powers, delegation of 225–6, 237
 transparency 236
 International Telecommunications Union, role of 233–4, 237 interoperability, for 12 connectivity 230–31
 importance of 229, 230–31
 international roaming 224, 232–5
 market integration 230–31
 technical standards 229
 market competition, for 229–31
 New Approach, and 226, 241–2
 output legitimacy 12, 240–41
 regulatory objectives 230–31, 238–9 contribution to 224, 229–30, 241–2 roaming agreements 232, 234–5 roaming services and charges 224, 232–5, 239–40 standard-setting
 international standards, adoption of 238–41
 judicial review 238
 patterns of 237–8, 240
 public influences on 237–8 regulatory bodies, participation 10–11, 234–5, 241 scrutiny mechanisms 238
 stakeholder participation 225, 236–8 voting and consensus 237–8
 standardisation mandates 231–2 technical specifications, definition 231
 transparency 233–4
 voluntary standards 238–40
 throughput legitimacy 13–15, 94
 food safety standards 253
 pharmaceutical standards 13–14
 Standardisation Regulation, of 39–47, 50–51 technical standardisation, and 26–8, 35–6, 39–47
 tort law
 legitimacy of standardisation, and 16
 accessibility and representation of standard 125–6
 input legitimacy 112, 125–7
 institutional legitimacy, and 125–7
 output legitimacy 112, 125, 127–8
 private law, and 124–5, 128–30
 professional legitimacy 124–5
 quality and validation 127–8
 medical negligence see medical negligence product safety see product safety
transparency
CEN-CENELEC compliance with 9, 72–4, 82–4
Codex Alimentarius 256–7, 263–4
competition law, and 8–9, 64–5, 72–4, 82–4 ESOs, obligations of 8–9, 41–5, 47, 50–51, 72–4, 237
law and economics perspective 166–9, 175–6 legitimacy, and 166–9, 236, 268
medical and healthcare standards 268
obligations, generally 8–9, 72–4 Standardisation Regulation, obligations under 40–45, 47, 82
technical standardisation, generally 40–45
telecommunications standards 233–4, 236–7

voluntariness
binding secondary law, conflicts with 10
safe harbour criteria 84–6 tortious liabilities, and 145–6
voluntary vs. binding standards 23–4, 28–9, 31–3, 48, 84–6

Walloon Tourism Act 33–4
Ward v Ritz Hotel 120
World Bank 185, 189
World Organisation for Animal Health (OIE) 247 World Trade Organisation
incorporation of standards agreement obligations 99–101
food safety standards 244–8, 250–51
presumption of conformity 100, 247–50, 263
SPS Agreement 99–101, 245–8, 250–51
TBT Agreement 99–101