

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Foreword by Dariusz Wójcik	ix
Introduction: theorizing semi-peripheral geographies of finance and banking Christian Sellar, Silvia Grandi and Juvaria Jafri	1
1 Geofinance/banking between political and financial geographies Christian Sellar, Silvia Grandi and Juvaria Jafri	15
PART I SPATIAL STRUCTURES OF FINANCE AND BANKING
2 The geography of International Financial Institutions: what can this tell us? Silvia Grandi	31
3 Shadow banking: a geographical interpretation Gianfranco Battisti	47
4 Spatial development and offshore financial chains Umberto Rosati	65
5 Financial system and urban networks: an empirical analysis of Brazilian territory Fabio Betioli Contel	79
PART II THE STATE–BANK–FIRM NEXUS IN THE FINANCE SEMI-PERIPHERIES
6 Italian banks and business services as knowledge pipelines for SMEs: examples from Central and Eastern Europe Christian Sellar	91
7 Spatial aspects of the Russian banking system: transformation and access to credit for small Russian firms Svetlana Ageeva and Anna Mishura	120

8	Bulgaria's banking system: outside and inside the financial geography of Europe Elena Stavrova	138
9	Banking reform in Vietnam: persistence of the state? Guanie Lim and Thong Tien Nguyen	155
PART III MICRO-LEVEL ACTION AND REACTION OF PEOPLE AND FIRMS
10	Cross-currency swaps and local credit money creation in the Turkish banking system Engin Yilmaz	176
11	Geographical aspects of recent banking crises in Italy Marco Percoco	195
12	Shadow financial citizenship and the contradictions of financial inclusion in Pakistan Juvaria Jafri	213
	Index	243