Index

activism see networks of labour activism; transnational activism affect ‘affective turn’ in social sciences 93 relationship with emotions 93 role between spouses from diverse cultural backgrounds 104–5 theories of 94–5

and transnationalism 93–6

ageing see transnational ageing agency agency presumption of, in migrant workers’ decision to opt-in to contracts 281 and temporary labour migration 280, 282, 283–8, 289

and transnationalism 279

anti-colonialism 33, 37–9 Antwerp Group 38

Asia
‘Asian Co-prosperity Sphere’ 49
gender imbalance 349 higher education students 295–304 migration to Australia 67–8 monetary transfer model 359 older migrants 84
and popular culture 246–58
pre-migration networks 350 regional corporate network clusters 424 research on formation of transnational families 183–93 state engagement in transnational authoritarianism 132 temporary labour migration 280–289, 334 transnational marriage migration in 310–321 transnational triangles 346, 347
see also Global South; Philippines

aspirations amongst East Asian families 191–2 career 413
of children influenced by migrant parents 201–2 entrepreneurial 412
of Jamaican returnees 381

authoritarianism
and activism 172–3
cultural consumption in North Korea 257 see also transnational authoritarianism autocracies

as increasingly focused on silencing citizen voice abroad 128 perceiving cross-border mobility as threat 130–131 seeking to reap material benefits of free movement 130 strategies of co-optation 131, 134–5, 136, 137 combination of 135–6
of cooperation with non-state actors 135, 136 future research directions 136–7 of legitimation 131, 133–4, 136, 137 in non-autocratic contexts 137 of repression 131–3

Bay of Bengal 32–3

capital
circuit for urban development 217 circulation of care as type of 395
class 427
diasporic 212, 216, 218
economic 333, 334
ethnic 407, 408, 414–15 knowledge 332
mobilisation 211, 428, 429
Handbook on transnationalism

‘mobility’ 235, 428
political 176–7
symbolic 191–2
virtual circulation of 428
see also social/cultural capital capital accumulation child-centred familial strategy of 192
ethnic 407
and international education 294, 302–3, 304 of island communities 221–3
and temporary labour migration 280, 281, 282
of transnational elites 21, 422, 427–8, 429 care background and context 388–9 circulation of asymmetry of 399
definition 394
factors shaping transnational family engagement in 395 between family across distance 388 framework 393–5
gender, power and 395–7 locating within broader networks of exchange 394 in polymedia environment 20, 393, 397, 399 through three care modes 392 and co-presence 20, 391, 392, 399 conceptualisation of 389–90 importance of communication technologies 23, 389, 393, 397–400 portability of 379, 392–3, 394, 399–400 rise of migrant care workers 390–392 Caribbean migration family network and emotions 95 and media landscapes 380–382 migrants in UK 39–41 cell phones 372, 380–381
childcare
pay of workers 173, 390 provided by grandparents 80–81, 396 children activists 169
dreams of future 69
hope for futures of 97, 98 left-behind 13, 67, 98, 189, 201–3, 283, 327, 334, 377 and love 99–101
migration affecting 198–9 negotiating intimacies 187 and older people 79–81, 82–3, 85, 191 ‘parachute kids’ 192, 296 physical co-presence required for care of 391 provision of education 190, 192, 296–7, 303, 422, 427–8 transnational ties 116, 117, 118, 119, 122 in two-way care exchange of love for money 394 unequal power relations with adults 206 ‘waiting’ 70
in ‘wild geese families’ 296 circulation
across Bay of Bengal 32–3 of bodies, ideas, and capital 211 cultural 148
‘discursive’ 51
of emotions 95
geographies of 270, 271 of identities, ideas, and capital 333 of images 376, 379–80
overview 19–21
of people, objects and feelings 12 of popular culture 14, 247, 249, 250–251, 254, 255 of practices 273
of transnational object 149, 150 virtual, of capital 428 see also care: circulation of citizenship acquisition 231, 395
and Chinese students 231 digital 23, 389, 398–9 emotional dimensions 103, 375
and religion 266
and return migration 328, 329
rights, and gender 17, 184, 310–312
and temporary labour migration 278–9, 281, 282
transnational labour 23, 278, 287–8, 289
class formation dynamics 429
and gated subdivisions 219–20 hierarchy and remittances 190 influencing mobility potential and trajectories 303 and intimacy 188
of migrant wives 312, 313, 317 and overseas education for children 192, 296–7, 303
and popular culture 246, 248–9, 254
significance of 187
and students 233, 296–7, 303 and transnational elites 421–2, 423, 425, 426, 427, 429 and workers 34–5, 41, 48, 95, 184, 303 class privilege 182, 421–2, 423, 425, 427 cooposition 131, 134–5, 136, 137
co-presence ‘ambient’ 188, 202, 379 attention to creation of new forms of 96 and caregiving 20, 391, 392 and communication technologies 19, 81–2, 149–50, 188, 202, 373, 379, 399 desire for forms of media more effectively enabling 382 experienced as sense of ‘being there’ 399 ‘intimate visual’ 379 ‘ordinary’ 81–2 physical 85, 391, 392
virtual 149–50
commercial interests 236–7 communication technologies and exchange of appropriate emotional gestures 94 facilitating communication and perceived proximity 149 implicated in social movements 19, 375–6 importance to caregiving 23, 389, 393, 397–400 role in retaining connections with home 94, 373–4, 377–8, 393 and soft power 248–9
transnational ageing
conceptualisation 79
emotional support through 83
use of 81–2
and transnational networks
background and context 371–2 Caribbean migration and media 380–382 impact summary 382–3
political and social movements 375–6
prior to digital and social media 372–4 transnational relationships 376–80 use by state autocracies 135 use in building connected family relationships as currently more viable 193 impacts 374–5
in parent–child relationships 100, 202 ‘romanticizing’ role 187–8 sustaining intimacies 13, 186–8 see also polynmedia environment constellations of actions 47
elite 429
family 79, 204
migrant 348
cooperation
memorandum of understanding setting out procedures for 284 multilateral between nation-states 410 with non-state actors 135, 136 of transnational organisations 160 corporate elite networks 423–4, 425, 429 countries of origin
development 161, 360–365
left-behind youth/children 201–3 transnational ties to 328, 358, 359, 360 transnational triangles connecting two destinations and 345–8 Covid-19 pandemic implications for transnationalism 21–3 increase in reliance on technologies 389 cross-border connectivity flexible and fluid identities emergent in 3 friction at heart of 320 transnationalism as marker for people-led 1 between USA and Caribbean 212 see also transnational connections; transnational ties cultural capital see social/cultural capital development
community 406–7, 414
in countries of origin hometown associations influencing 161 migrant engagement with 360–365
diasporic 408, 414
economic 303, 409, 410, 411
entrepreneurial 332, 407–8, 411, 413–14 migrants as agents of 335 remittances intersecting with 190, 357, 359–65, 373
transnational 12, 152
transtemporal 12, 152
see also migration–development nexus ‘diaspora consciousness’ 335 diaspora development engagements 363 ‘diaspora tourism’ 330
diasporas
and communication practices 372 defining 267–8
digital 249
and home 144, 146
identity formation in 252, 328 overlap with transnationalism 265, 272 Philippine 218
revitalising concept of 33
state-promulgated ‘diaspora strategies’ 329 and transnational authoritarianism 128–9, 130–131, 132, 133, 134, 135–6 Uyghur 171
diasporic community building 413–15 diasporic religions 15, 267–9, 270, 272 diasporic returns 327, 328, 329–30 dictatorships see transnational
authoritarianism
digital citizenship 23, 389, 398–9 digital fan culture 250–252 digital kinning 397–400 digital media
as borderless 246
in Caribbean 380–382
creating constantly available modes of communication 374
enhancing political activism 375 facilitating low-cost connections to regional media 374
facilitating ‘portability of networks of belonging’ 378
increasing attention to cultural and social implications of 372 and international students 378–9 popular culture spread due to 250, 255 and social relationships 19, 379 uses 371
young Moroccans’ use of 200 dispossession 65–6

see also temporality: exilic Docker’s Union 36
‘dutiful daughters’ 311, 318–19 education see international education; transnational higher education

elite school networks 424–5 elites see transnational elites emergent scale
definitions 48, 56
examples 48
as horizontal 48
in south China
local scale 54–6
trade 52–4, 56
and taxonomical scale differences between 45, 48
as intertwined in practice 48–9
US imperialism closely tied to 49 ‘emotional citizenship’ 375 ‘emotional remittances’ 102–3 emotions
and care 34, 371, 382, 390, 391, 392, 394
as fundamental to migration 104
and home 141–3, 146, 147–8, 149, 150, 151
ICTs providing support for older people 83 intimate 184, 390
of older people staying behind 82 in polymedia environments 19, 96, 100, 382 in popular culture 249, 254 relationship with affect 93
and return migration 326–7, 328, 330, 331, 336 role between spouses from diverse cultural backgrounds 104–5 role of ICTs 186–7
in sustaining transnational connections and investments in property 224–6
theories of 93–6
in transnational families 96–104, 189, 283, 319, 360–361 entrepreneurs
ethnic enclave 406–7, 410 middleman-minority 405–7, 408
transnational 20–21, 409–10, 412, 413, 415–16 ethnic economy 405–8, 414 ethnic enclave economy 405–6, 407, 414, 415 ethnic entrepreneurship benefits of 413–14, 415 community building
diasporic 414–15
positive effect on 407, 415 economic and variants 405–8 future research directions 415–16
and healthcare 407–8 limitations to previous research on impact of 404, 406, 409 as longstanding area of inquiry in migration studies 404 transnational linkages 408–13 ethnic return migrations and homeland visits 327–31 ethnographic studies
1.5 generation Korean New Zealanders 328
Caribbean family network and emotions 95 Chosŏnjok women’s mobility 316 communications technologies and transnational networks in Caribbean context 380–382 Filipinas in rural Japan 318 on left-behind children in Philippines 377 love, intimacy, colonialism and geopolitical hierarchies 318 on media and migration 372 new second generation in New York 330 notion of reflexivity 282 older Indians in transnational families 83 on return migration 332 transnational turn in migration studies fuelled by 121 exchange of care 20, 388, 389, 391–4, 398–9 circular system of 332
communications 112, 187, 200, 372–3, 377
economic 188, 365
in globalisation definition 264 of information 100, 134, 174, 176 of love 99, 100–101
multi-directional 224
networks of 221
of new ideas, values, behaviours and roles 333
remittances as processes of 361
social 94–5
student 207, 296
transnational 114, 115–16, 121 exclusive club networks 425–6 family see transnational families ‘floating ties’ 96
fragmentation 65, 67–8, 71, 72 friction see transnational marriage migration gated residential enclaves 21, 426–7 gated suburban communities 14, 218–20, 225 gender
and care 185, 186, 202–3, 389, 393–4, 395–7
and citizenship rights 17, 184, 310–312
and communication technologies 374
and family 183, 184–6, 187, 188, 189, 190–191, 193, 202–3, 334 and mobility of young women 255 in Philippine society 221–2, 225 and pursuit of remittances 189 and remittances 189, 190–191, 334, 362–3 and technology 253–4
transnational patriarchy 17, 311 gendered division of labour 86, 185, 349 gendered emotion 101–4 gendered ideology of family 100, 184 gendered norms of parenting 99–100, 187, 188 gendered politics of movement across borders 312–21
generational composition, changing 119
Glasgow shipwrights 35–6
Global Middle Class (GMC) 21, 422, 427–8, 429
Global South
branded goods produced in 170–171 comparative approach 217–18 knowledge transfer 238 movement with entire families as rare multi-scalar approach 49–52, 214 norms and resources travelling to 176–7 older people from countries in 80, 84 real estate practice in 218–20 relational approach 214–15

Brenda S.A. Yeoh and Francis L. Collins - 9781789904017
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 04/26/2022 06:44:23AM
via free access religion in 262, 273 transnational urbanism in 211–26 and worthiness 175
guilt 101–4, 189

health and wellbeing of Filipina immigrants 408 implications of children’s emigration on older people 82–4 implications of parental migration on children left behind 202–3 hierarchy across gender 183, 186

class 252
destination 342–3, 350
educational 295, 302, 303
geopolitical 318, 320, 321
taxonomical 45, 47–8, 53–4, 56 ‘high net worth individuals’ (HNWI) 21, 422, 427 home
ascriptive dimension of 142, 147, 150, 152 calling a place home and appealing to 144–5 communication technologies’ role in retaining connections with 94, 373–4, 377–8, 393 dream homes 223–5
emplacing 147–8
feeling at home 145–7 home–migration nexus 141–3 importance of defining and researching 143–8 making 147
many ways to use notion of 141–3, 151–2 portability and materiality 149–51 practical and performable dimension of 142–3, 150
and scale 144–5, 146, 149
socio-material dimension of 142, 150 temporalities of 64, 66, 147 women ‘as heart of’ 99, 100 homeland visits 18, 81, 205, 325, 327–31, 333, 345–6, 393 see also return migration homemaking
definition 143
migrant practices 150–151
multiple meanings 147
as social process 143
transnational 147, 150
as transnational development 12, 152 as transtemporal development 12, 152 hometown associations (HTAs) 161, 162, 363, 364 hope 97–9, 103–4
ICTs see communication technologies; polymedia environment identity
diasporic 252, 328
formation and politics 334 of Korean-American ethnic return migrants 328 learning about ancestral homeland as means of strengthening 330 of students 232–3, 295–8
transnational 334–5
‘immobility regimes’ 22, 389
Indian mutineers 38
Indian Workers’ Association (IWA) 39–41
Industrial Workers of the World (IWW) 36, 37 integration and claims-making 162
diasporic 404
into home society 331, 332–3, 334–5, 336, 362 into host society 62, 63, 161, 198, 266, 269, 331, 362, 404, 412, 413 regional initiatives 295
and religion 266, 269, 273
and time 64, 68
international education as de facto channel for skilled labour migration 297 early 296–7
education-migration industry impacting 304 educational hierarchy 295, 302, 303 expansion and diversification 17, 294, 303 fluid mobilities in pursuit of 302–3 higher education programmes and providers see TNE and universities 295–6
intra-regional 299–300, 303 need for critical, political perspectives on 239 profit-driven and predatory perspectives 17, 304

Brenda S.A. Yeoh and Francis L. Collins - 9781789904017
Downloaded from Elgar Online at 04/26/2022 06:44:23AM
via free access regionalisation of 299–300, 302 utilised as social reproduction strategy 303 working to pay for 297–8, 303 international students and digital media 378–9 growing population of 294, 303 identities diversity of 294–5
early study abroad 296–7 globe-trotting university 295–6 student-workers 297–8, 303 ‘international mobile student’ definition 304 mobility patterns
fluid and multiple 302–3, 304 intra-regional migration 299–300 largest flows 298–9 returns 300–301, 303
social class influencing 303 as significant transnational force in contemporary world 304
see also students; young people International Trade Union Committee of Negro Workers (ITUCNW) 37–8 interconnectedness 8, 130, 175, 325, 327, 407 intimacies
geopolitical 212–13, 217–21
negotiating everyday 13, 186–8 Islamic mosques 54–6
island tourist destinations 218, 221–3, 225 Italian mansions in peri-urban fringe 218, 223–5 kinship and cell phones 380
cross-border ties 116
definition 399
digital kinning and care circulation 397–400 and prevalence of transnational ties 119, 122 and suburban living 225 and transnational marriages 316 ventures based on 223
kinship networks 99, 393
knowledge practices 237–8 Korean Wave
cultural products included in 248 as example of crossover of culture and economy 250
global circulation of 249 growing interest in 249 intriguing reason behind popularity of phenomenon of 248–9
and postcolonial 15, 247, 249–50, 254 as resource for soft power 249–50
significance of 247
transnational mobility of 255 viewed as counterpoint to Western cultural influence 251 labour maritime 37–9
networks of activism 16, 283, 286, 287–8, 289
translocal spaces of organising 34–6 transnational and transient overview 277–80
transnational citizenship 23, 278, 287–8, 289
see also temporary labour migration left-behind youth/children 13, 67, 98, 189, 201–3, 283, 327, 334, 377 legitimation 131, 133–4, 136, 137 life course approach to ‘going home’ 377–8 care across 80–81, 86, 392–3, 394, 395, 397, 399
engagements with theory 60 and exile time 70–71
kinship networks for support across 99
in later life 77–87
multiple moves for students over 302 and sense of home 145–6 lifestyle
aesthetised, in Korean dramas 254 ‘aspirations’ 231, 377
‘dual’ 232
social media highlighting 376 of transnational elites 21, 420, 422, 426–7, 428–9
transnational, of older people 78, 84 loneliness 79, 82, 84, 100 love 99–101, 103–5, 394 maritime labour 37–9 marriage migration see transnational marriage migration
materiality of home 149–50 merchants of labour 283, 284–5, 289 methodological nationalism 8, 9, 32, 49, 51–2, 143, 265, 277, 340 methodological statism 9, 31
middleman-minority
economy 405–6, 415–16
entrepreneurs 405–7, 408
migrant care workers 390–392 Migrant Forum in Asia (MFA) 287–8 migrant integration see integration migrant receiving countries entrepreneurship affecting diasporic integration in 404 ethnic entrepreneurship 409, 410–411 published research on 50 second generation youth 200–201, 203, 205–6
migrant transnationalism as individual and diasporic agency 277 links to return migration 362 in migration–development nexus 357–8
and remittances importance of 112, 358–65
as social practices 365 sending money back home 356–7 temporary labour migration 277–80, 288–9
transnational ties
prevalence and substance as research tools 121–2 prevalence of 116–19
substance of 119–21
variation and change in background and context 110–112 framework for analysis 112–16 generational composition 119 types of change over time 115–16 see also transnational migration migrant transnationalism in 357–8 multiple forms of remittances as central tenet of 19, 358 migration governance 280–281, 284, 287, 288, 289 migration–home nexus 141–3 mobilisation
of capital 211, 428, 429 civic engagement for 376 collective 363
diasporic 130, 363
of inner self 255
resource 53, 68, 156, 157, 332, 335
and scale 48–9, 53, 56
‘mobilities turn’ 8, 13–14, 203, 204, 315
mobility
blocked, associated with minority status in host societies 404 cross-border, of older people 81 elite 428
employment 16
fragmented lives due to disruption involved in 10 in marriage migration context 312, 315–17, 321 ‘new mobilities paradigm’ 8 pandemic and government responses impeding 2, 22–4 and polymedia environment 388–9 power relations involved in uneven access to 5 of religion 264–9
studying 270–271, 272–3 return 18, 327, 329, 330
of students 230–234, 240, 298–304
of transnational elites 422 pursuit of 428, 429
of young people 203–5, 207 see also social mobility money
diasporic 217
entering national economy from outside 361 and friction within transnational marriages 318–19 ‘old money’ families 427, 428 seeking control over 396 for self 113
sending back home 19, 356–7, 365, 391 significance in overseas ventures 236 transaction cost reduction 359–60 transferred to and between criminal and terrorist networks 359 two-way care exchange of love for 394
multi-scalar framework
application in south China Islamic mosques 54–6
trade 52–4
defining 46–9
Global South perspective 49–52 purpose 45
multinational migrations concept of 341–2
defining 342–3
driving new transnational ties 343–9, 351 transnational ties driving 349–50, 351 as umbrella term 18, 342 networks of labour activism 16, 283, 286, 287–8, 289 ‘new mobilities paradigm’ 8
Nigeria
schoolgirl identity 232–3 seaworker dispute 38–9
non-profit organisations 159–62 ‘non-relation’ 67
North Korea 255–7
older people see transnational ageing ‘the one per cent’ 21, 422 opportunity structures
for activists 172–4, 178, 179 migrants embedded within multi-layered 410 of national-origin groups, factors affecting 409 organisation theory
non-profit organisations 159–62
organisations 155–6 profit organisations 157–9 see also transnational organisations Other 63–71
peri-urban towns displacement of farming and indigenous communities 220 rise of Italian style mansions in 218, 219–20, 223–5 Philippines
children of migrants and remittances 201 communication technologies 373, 376, 377 ‘culture of migration’ 216 elements used to support idea of transnational migration 341 experiences of feminised labour migration 186
migrant care workers 390–391 migrants living in New Zealand 97–8 motherhood in 99–101
transnational marriage migration 310, 314, 318 transnational triangles 346–7
transnational webs 349
urban transformations in 211–12, 215, 217–26 place
in conceptualisation of pre-national transnationalism and translocalism 31–4 encounters of, and translocal resistance 39–41 maritime labour and translocal connections 37–9 translocal, and labour organising 34–6 policy to address structural inequalities 420 attention to remittances 19, 356
cultural 248
declarations around TNE 239 gap around caring 397 migration as national development 284 open-door in China 411
as transnational ties factor 121
political engagement
and communication technologies 375 Filipino au pairs in Denmark 376 migrants’ transnational 364 shaped by transnational activities 200 Turkish organisations in Germany 161 political movements, communication technologies implicated in 375–6 political networks 285–6, 287, 289 ‘political remittances’ 364 politics familial 185–6, 189, 193 gendered, of movement across borders 312–21 of transnational activism 169–78
polycentrism
and successful internationalisation 157 in transnational activism 171, 177 polymedia environment and circulation of care 20, 393, 397, 399
concept of 82
in Italy 224
love expressed through 99, 100, 104, 391 as major tenet of migrant transnationalism 357
migrant housing investments as form of
social 147
in migrant transnationalism framework for analysing variation and change 113–15
for older people 79, 81 in Philippines 201, 218, 219 ‘political’ 364
as private transfers 360–361
and religion 364–5
and return migration 331, 333–4, 362 ‘reverse’ 396–7
and separation and substance of
transnational ties 122
social 333–4, 361–2
as social practices 365
and state authoritarianism 129
and temporary labour migration 282, 284, 341
and time 121
transnational family 117, 188–92, 319, 373 Vietnamese marriage migrants 318 ‘remittances-in-kind’ 411 repertoires of action 169, 175 repression see transnational repression return conceptualisation 326 return migration conceptual linkages with return and transnational mobilities 326–7
diasporic 327, 328, 329–30
dimensions of 326–7, 335–6 and emotions 326–7, 328, 330, 331, 336 ethnic, and homeland visits 327–31 as fluid and nuanced articulations of staged movement 336
of international students 300–301, 303 Jamaican migrant example 381 links to migrant transnationalism 362 often seen as vehicle for development 362 process incorporating contradictory navigations of self and society 335 reintegration and transnational identity 331–5
and sense of home 144–5
and time 381
transnational approach to 325, 327–8 return mobilities
conceptualisation 327
involving need to learn more about ancestral homeland 330
in later life among Greek-American males 329
recoding return as 329
transnational 18, 327, 330
scale
definitions 46, 56
and home 144–5, 146, 149
and social activism 170–172, 179 and transnational urbanism 215–17 understanding requiring new perspective 409
see also emergent scale; taxonomical scale; transnational scale
second generation youth 192, 198, 200–201, 203, 204, 206 self exilic time of self-withdrawal 70–71 and forgetting 70
mobilisation of inner 255
money for 113
passage beyond 64–7, 68, 71
and return migration 335
social clubs and residential enclaves 426–7 social/cultural capital of alumni ties 424
as benefit of international education 301, 302–3
circulation of care as type of 395 and diasporic community building 414–15
elites’ accumulation of 422, 427–8 elites’ possession of 425, 427 embodied forms of transnational 231 entrepreneurs taking advantage of 413 intergenerational transfer of 80, 330, 427 interpersonal relationships serving to establish 407
mixed embeddedness model 408
as objective of international education 294, 297
and religion 271
and return migration 327–8, 330, 332 students’ employment of 233–4 students valuing 237–8
studying at home leading to deficient time as resource to be used as part of transnational networks and entrepreneurial opportunities social mobility accumulation of ethnic capital for converting cultural capital to achieve entrepreneurship as pathway to upward migrants’ desire for unimpeded transnationalising family as main route towards international social movements actors communication technologies implicated in forms of joint mobilisation characterising reduced role of gatekeepers and transnational organisations social networks social practices and popular culture remittances as social reproduction association with care commodification of migrant labour for international education utilized as strategy of and temporary migrant labour of transnational families of transnational students soft power solidarity among migrant women ethnic community governed by bounded intergenerational requiring translocal connections of seafarers between shipwrights of significance in contesting Powell’s speech transnational activism transnational shaping multi-ethnic south China Islamic mosques in trade in stepwise migration students and class employability and social reproduction identity and consumption mobility networks student-workers and TNE see also international students; young subaltern groups subaltern social movements taxonomical scale components and emergent scale differences between as intertwined in practice in Global South as hierarchical ideal-type imperialist operations governed by indicating mobilisational and coordinating capacity of modern states exercising power through in south China trade temporality a-logical an-archic atemporal differential exilic of the infinitive as internal and subjective of re-composition of elements relational self-naturalising time expressed as flat ‘undocumented’ unity and cohesiveness of temporality–precarity nexus of temporary labour migration and citizenship context future research directions institutional actors merchants of labour reinforcing 283, 284–5, 289 social and political networks contesting 285–6, 287, 289 towards transnational labour citizenship 23, 278, 287–8, 289 migrant transnationalism 277–80, 288–9 temporality–precarity nexus 280–283, 289 transnational and transient labour overview 277–80 time asynchronous 61, 69, 72 avenues of further research 72 ‘balanced’ 66
disastrous 69, 71
fragmented 65, 67–8, 70, 71, 72 movement beyond self 64–7 neutral 66, 68, 69, 71
as ‘processes of flow’ 60 relational temporality 62–4, 70 role in transnationalism scholarship 60–61 ‘trans-’ as movement of temporal re-composition 67–70 as transnational ties factor 121 and waiting 69–70
timelessness 62
TNE
aka programme mobility 230
commercial interests 236–7
definition 235
models 235–6
postcolonial contexts and neocolonial knowledge practices and relationships 237–8 quality assurance and ethics 238–40 recent discourses around 240–241
trade ‘diaspora strategies’ 329 imbalanced, in Asia 281
in south China
foreign, and development of Islam 54–5
transnational 52–4, 56–7 unevenness in scalar coordination 9 between USA and Mexico 411 trade unions 30, 34–9, 174, 175, 286–8 ‘trans-’ beyond self 64–7, 68, 71 interpretations of 61
as movement of temporal re-composition 67–70 transaction costs 358–65 transient labour overview 277–80 translocal connections benefits of engaging with 41
definition 8
maritime labour and anti-colonialism 37–9 means of articulation 31–2 requiring solidarity 31 of significance in contesting Powell’s speech 41 translocalism conceptualisation through histories and geographies 31–4 context 30
labour organising spaces 34–6 resistance and spaces of encounter 39–41 transnational activism activist campaigns
dimensions of 170–171
involvement of different actors 172 logic underpinning rise of 173–4 scalar differences between various targets of 171 actors 170, 172, 174–5, 176–7, 178 boomerang pattern 171 challenges 176–7
definitions 170–172
diffuseness characterising 169, 177, 178 features as inherently political 169–70, 177–8 opportunity structures 172–4, 178, 179
polycentrism 171, 177
processes, tools and tactics 175–6 repertoires of action 169, 175 transnational advocacy networks (TANs) 130, 162, 174–5
transnational ageing
background and context 77–8
childcare 80–81
communication technologies
emotional support through 83 requiring help from children to use 399
use of 81–2
as field of research 78–9 future research opportunities 87 implications for health and wellbeing 82–4 and life course perspective 77–8, 86–7 older people
bridging and negotiating 86 children of 79–81, 82–3, 85, 191
conceptualisation of 79
from countries in Global South 80, 84
cross-border mobility 81 ICTs providing support for 83 implication of children’s emigration on health and wellbeing 82–4
invisibility within transnational contexts 84–6
lifestyle of 78, 84
remittances for 79, 81
research findings on transnational involvement 77, 79–82 seen as burden rather than resource 84–5
and transnational ties 77, 78, 81, 83–4, 85–6
types 79
transnational authoritarianism concept of 128
context 128
future research directions 136–7 international politics of 128–37 and migration 129–30
rise of 130–136
‘transnational capitalist class’ (TCC) 21, 421–2
transnational care see care transnational connections construction of homes as marker of portability of place through 223 and Covid-19 23
and family and community relations 46–7
in Global South 215
important role of emotions in sustaining 223 migrants and temporality 64
multi-scalar framework 52, 56 process of return as ‘new freedom’ to harness 332
and reciprocal agency 11 role in transforming urban areas 14, 215, 223
and scalar coordination 9, 45, 46–7, 49 and social remittances 362 as ubiquitous in twenty-first century 45 see also transnational ties transnational dyads
connecting two destinations 343, 344–5 as type of transnational tie 18, 342 transnational elites
conceptualisation 421–2, 429–30
differentiation and inequalities developing within groups 429 production through spaces and lifestyles power over space 427–8 pursuit of transnational mobile lifestyles 428
social clubs and residential enclaves 426–7 production through transnational networks
corporate interlocks 423–4, 429
elite school networks 424–5
exclusive club networks 425–6 scholarly interest in 21 transnational entrepreneurs 20–21, 404, 409–10, 412, 413, 415–16 transnational families aspirational futures 191–2 being ‘family’
in context of transnational migration 182–3
as currently more viable due to communication technologies 193 shared and contested imaginaries of 183–6
changing generational composition 119 communication technologies role in sustaining intimacies 186–8 emotions in 96–106, 189, 283, 319, 360–361
evolution of remittance flows in 117 familial politics 185–6, 189, 193 involvement in care 388–400 migrant wives in marriage migration
context 310–321
and polymedia environment 100, 188, 372, 376–80, 393
remittances 117, 188–92, 319, 373 social reproduction 16, 188–92, 232, 233, 303
transnational higher education programmes and providers 235–41 students 230–234
transnational labour see labour; temporary labour migration transnational lives conceptualisation 4

of elites 420–430
mobility and young people 205, 207 returnees who have sustained 325, 329 role of care in sustaining 20, 388–400
and time 60, 64, 65, 66, 67–8, 70–72

transnational marriage migration ‘clashing cultural scripts’ and enforced dependency 311–12 and friction
as interrupted mobilities 312, 315–17, 321 and intimate geopolitics 312–13, 317–21 recent literature in Asian context 313–15 ‘rubbing’ metaphor 313, 315 use as framework 312 stories depicting diverging fates of migrant wives 310–311 transnational migration application of term 340–341 becoming increasingly feminised 391 emotions motivating 96–104

and family
in context of 182–3 intimacy and role of communication technologies 186–8 remittances, social reproduction and aspirational futures 188–92, 193 shared and contested imaginaries of 183–6 features in English literature 50 full potential as yet unreached 351
and home
background to home–migration nexus 141–3 importance of defining and researching 143–8
portability and materiality 149–51 recommendations 151–2 between Hong Kong and Australia 98
and international students different mobility patterns 298–303 diverse identities 294–8 pitfalls and expanding mobilities 303–4 between Mexico and parts of USA 160–161
overview 16–18
and religion 262, 265–7, 268–71, 273
rise of migrant care workers 390–392 between southern Ecuador and northern Italy 328 transformation as result of new communication technologies 393 and transnational authoritarian state practices 129–30 for working mothers 99–100
of young people 198–205
see also migrant transnationalism transnational mobility see mobility transnational networks and circulations overview 19–21

and communication technologies
background and context 371–2 Caribbean migration and media 380–382
impact summary 382–3
political and social movements 375–6 polymedia environments and transnational relationships 376–80
prior to digital and social media 372–4 developed by international and immigrant students 234
elite 420, 423–6, 429–30
and entrepreneurial opportunities 410–411 of finance 285
problematising temporality of 61 social and political 285–6 translocal anti-colonial 37–8 in typology of transnationalism 6 see also transnational activism transnational organisations contexts and concepts of 155–7

definition 156
non-profit 156, 159–62, 163 outlook and future research 163–4 as profit organisations 156, 157–9, 163 transnational patriarchy 17, 311 transnational popular culture see popular culture transnational practices authoritarian state 129–30 of autocracies 134
Handbook on transnationalism

definition 111
of global financial regulation 426
and prevalence of transnational ties 112–13
and return migration 332–3
and substance of transnational ties 113, 115, 119–20 ‘ways of being’ 81
see also remittances
transnational relationships
and communication technologies 96, 372, 376–80 with former host country in bi-directional flow 332 role of emotions in 11, 96–7, 102, 103, 105 and views of home 147–8 transnational religion exilic temporalities of 65, 71 in globalising world 265–7 see also religion transnational repression 131–3, 136, 137 transnational scale 5, 45, 47, 49, 53, 56–7
transnational ties
to country of origin 328, 358, 359, 360
definition 115–16
driving multinational migrations 349–50, 351 dynamic web of 116–19 intensification of 115
at liturgical level 266 multinational migrations driving new 343–9, 351
and older people 77, 78, 81, 83–4, 85–6 policy and time as factors 121 prevalence and substance as research tools 121–2
prevalence of 112–13, 114–15, 116–19, 122
substance of 113, 115, 119–21 three types of 18, 342, 344–9, 351
transnational triangles connecting two destinations and origin 345–8
as type of transnational tie 18, 342 transnational urbanism case studies dream homes, portability of place, and peri-urban transformations 223–5 island tourist destinations 221–3 lessons learned from 225–6 suburban gated communities 218–20
context 211–12
postcolonial urbanism 217–18, 225
and scale 215–17
theoretical terrains 212–15
transnational webs
connecting multiple countries 344, 348–9 as type of transnational tie 18, 342
transnationalism affect and emotion 93–105
conceptualisation of expending reach of 6–7 focus on refining 5–6 histories and geographies 31–4
overview 8–11, 24
in relation to organisations 163–4
definition 111
delimiting 111–12
development as specific research programme 156 early accounts of 4–5 and ethnic entrepreneurship 408–13 flows and connections 39–40, 41 introduction to 1–2
and maritime labour 37–9
in migration studies emergence as concept 3 impetus for new research directions 7–8 popularisation as term 3–4
multi-scalar framework 45–57
in (post-) pandemic world 21–3
and return migration 325–36
‘reverse’ 18, 262, 326
synergy with other emerging concepts 7–8 and temporary labour migration 277–89 terminology of 2–3
and time 60–72
typologies of 5–6
varieties of 11–15
see also migrant transnationalism transnationalism approach 2–8, 18, 325, 327–8 white labourism 34–5
worthiness 175
young people choices of study abroad destinations 300 future research avenues 206–7 left-behind youth 201–3 mobility of 203–5, 207

popular culture of 250–257
second generation youth 200–201
transnational dyads 345 transnational engagements of 198–200 see also students