

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Series preface	ix
Introduction Franco Ferrari and Diego P. Fernández Arroyo	1
PART I CERTAINTY VERSUS FLEXIBILITY
1. Certainty versus flexibility in the conflict of laws Kermit Roosevelt III	6
2. Certainty versus flexibility in the EU choice of law system Francesca Ragno	27
PART II PARTY AUTONOMY
3. Foundation, limits and scope of party autonomy Giuditta Cordero-Moss	71
4. The scope and limits of party autonomy in international contracts: a comparative analysis Symeon C. Symeonides	101
PART III UNIVERSAL VALUES
5. Private international law and the question of universal values Ralf Michaels	148
6. Are there universal values in choice of law rules? Should there be any? Mathias Reimann	178
PART IV PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW AND GLOBAL GOVERNANCE ISSUES
7. Unlocking private international law's potential in global (migration) governance Verónica Ruiz Abou-Nigm	196
8. The present and prospective contribution of global private international law unification to global legal ordering Hans van Loon	214

PART V THE NEW CHALLENGES OF EXTRATERRITORIALITY

9. Extraterritoriality in the public and private enforcement of U.S. regulatory law 236
Hannah L. Buxbaum
10. New challenges of extraterritoriality: superposing laws 258
Matthias Lehmann

PART VI CURRENT DEVELOPMENTS IN FORUM ACCESS:
 JURISDICTION AND FORUM NON CONVENIENS

11. European perspectives on human rights litigation 293
Martina Mantovani and Burkhard Hess
12. Judicial jurisdiction and forum access: the search for predictable rules 332
Linda J. Silberman

PART VII RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT OF JUDGMENTS

13. New challenges in the recognition and enforcement of judgments 360
Ronald A. Brand
14. New challenges in the context of recognition and enforcement of judgments 390
Andrea Bonomi

PART VIII FOREIGN LAW IN DOMESTIC COURTS

15. Foreign law in domestic courts: challenges and future developments 412
Yuko Nishitani
16. The challenge of accommodating foreign law in domestic courts 434
Louise Ellen Teitz

PART IX PRIVATE INTERNATIONAL LAW IN INTERNATIONAL ARBITRATION

17. Private international law in international arbitration 464
George A. Bermann
18. Private international law and arbitration: arbitral determination of the law or rules of law governing the merits 484
Horacio A. Grigera Naón

- Index* 497