

Figures

3.1	Series of photographs showing a variety of neglected urban spaces	37
3.2	A location map of Dessau-Roßlau and Halle (Saale)	42
3.3	Urban strategy and scope of the landscape corridor	44
3.4	Process of reducing density in different sectors of the corridor	45
3.5	Creation process of green infrastructure	46
3.6	Urban strategy followed in Halle	48
3.7	Evolution of the uses and of the landscape in different sectors of the Neustadt neighbourhood	50
4.1	Postcard, festival on Mont Beuvray, 20 September 1903	68
4.2	Bibracte Museum, 1995	69
5.1	A mixed-method framework to study outstanding French cultural heritage sites	82
5.2	Remarkable sites in their territorial context, scales of analysis	84
5.3	Socio-economic typology of sites in their territorial environment	86
5.4	What do you see as the main threat to cultural heritage value protection on a scale of 1 (no threat) to 5 (major threat)?	96
6.1	The different public assistance programs for mountain resorts	106
6.2	The Valley Areas in the Alps	111
6.3	Subcategories of diversification actions in the Alps Valley Areas	115
6.4	Valley Areas between 2007 and 2014: the example of the Hautes-Alpes Department	117
8.1	Percentage of people declaring having a fair amount of trust in others based on their disposable income per CU	152
8.2	Percentage of people declaring having a fair amount of trust in institutions based on their disposable income per CU	153
9.1	Example of “bateaux” and hazard warning strips at pedestrian crossings	166
9.2	Directional strips at pedestrian crossings	167
10.1	The Behaviour Change Wheel	187

11.1	Extract of a lifeline	210
11.2	Architecture for the collection and analysis of lifelines	217
11.3	Illustration of the steps in the modelling process	219
11.4	Example of interface developed for the collection of residential trajectory data	221
12.1	Wisconsin and Illinois residents owning property in the town of Presque Isle, WI	234
12.2	Location of primary residence (zip code) for parcel owners in the town of Presque Isle, WI	236