

Contents

List of contributors vii

PART 1 CLASS ACTION LITIGATION: THE ORIGINS AND ITS MAIN FEATURES

1. The law and economics of class action litigation: setting the research agenda 3
Jürgen G. Backhaus, Alberto Cassone and Giovanni B. Ramello
2. Class actions in the U.S. experience: the legal perspective 10
Hon. Guido Calabresi
3. Class actions in the U.S. experience: an economist's perception 27
Frederic M. Scherer
4. Will aggregate litigation come to Europe? 37
Samuel Issacharoff and Geoffrey P. Miller
5. Class action as a remedy for market failure 69
Jürgen G. Backhaus
6. The economics of class action litigation 75
Thomas S. Ulen

PART 2 DISENTANGLING THE LAW AND ECONOMICS OF CLASS ACTION

7. Private, club and public goods: the economic boundaries of class action litigation 101
Alberto Cassone and Giovanni B. Ramello
8. Class action finance and legal expense insurance 127
Jürgen G. Backhaus
9. Punitive damages and class actions 131
Francesco Parisi and Marta Silvia Cenini
10. A case for information sharing in class action suits 147
Bruno Deffains and Eric Langlais
11. Good law and economics needs better microeconomic models: the case against 'contingent fees' as application of agency models to the professions 178
Lorenzo Sacconi

12. Collective litigation versus legislation: a rent-seeking approach to class actions Sophie Harnay and Alain Marciano	219
PART 3 COMPARATIVE LEGAL VIEWS: ISSUES, NATIONAL EXPERIENCES AND A PROPOSAL
13. Class actions in private enforcement of EC antitrust law: the Commission Green Paper Francesco Denozza and Luca Toffoletti	239
14. The enforcement of management passivity duty in take-over law: class action or government action? Fernando Gomez and María Isabel Saez	261
15. The constitutional impact of class actions in European legal systems Jörg Luther	306
16. Introducing class actions in Finland: an example of law-making without economic analysis Mikko Välimäki	327
17. Class actions in Portugal Mariana França Gouveia and Nuno Garoupa	342
18. The class action code: a model for civil law countries Antonio Gidi	351
Index	371