
Tables

3.1	Mechanisms related to (in)effective error management	50
3.2	Effectiveness of instruments for consultants to learn from errors	60
4.1	'Successes' and 'failures' in a strategy consultancy project	73
4.2	Spaces for 'successes' and 'failures': summary	81
5.1	Two perspectives on the innovation processes of professional service firms	97
8.1	Primary data sources	154
8.2	Descriptive statistics	160
8.3	Correlations among the independent variables	161
8.4	Regression results explaining firm performance in engineering consultancies by means of human resource characteristics and pay profiles	162
10.1	PSFs in three different configurations	193
10.2	Different PSF configurations and entrepreneurial strategies	197
14.1	Key economic indicators for the case study regions	262
14.2	Greenfield versus brownfield entry: opportunities and threats	264
15.1	Multiple stages of governance in professional service firms: illustrative examples from five of the case studies	281
15.2	Evolution of management structure: BoutiqueCo	285
18.1	Strategies used by US venture capital companies around 2000	347
19.1	Numbers of solicitors' practicing certificates	374