

---

Index

---

- Abbott, A. 6, 170–71, 183, 334
- ABC framework for professional service firms
conclusions and future research directions 197–9
described 187, 189–92, 193, 245
entrepreneurial strategies 192–7
- Abrahamson, E. 97, 202, 203, 204, 206, 214, 297
- accountability 34–5, 37, 275, 280, 282, 290, 291–2
- accounting, defined 93–4
- accounting firms 6–7, 10, 11, 118–19, 183, 249, 302–3
- action-based error detection 47, 50, 57
- active failures 45
- actors 298–303, 340–41, 342–3
see also professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example
- ad hoc innovation 89, 92, 194, 195
- Adams, M. 203, 206, 207, 215
- adaptation 28, 46, 68, 87, 91, 109, 118, 209–10, 259
- adhocracies 107, 189, 190–91, 192, 193, 194–5, 197, 215–16, 245, 276
- adventurism 321, 323
- advertising 377, 379–80, 384
- advertising industry 107
- agency 70–71, 171, 178, 298, 300, 310
- agency theory 46, 48–9, 53–4, 55, 184
- agential space 70–71, 76, 79, 81, 82–3
- Aharoni, Y. 183, 184, 189, 241, 301
- Alam, I. 86, 88, 89, 90, 230
- Alvesson, M. 7, 10, 12, 25, 57, 58, 59, 69, 87, 95, 107, 127, 183, 184, 215, 301, 309
- “ambidexterity” 121, 128
- ambiguity
emerging fields 300 error management in professional service
firms 57
heterarchical organizational form 115, 117, 121
innovating through clients 88, 98
management consulting firms 303, 304, 310 market sensing in new practice development
study 215
professionals' role in field emergence: gold
rush example 321
relational space in project-based learning 70
- American Marketing Association (AMA) 219, 223, 224
- Anand, N. 8, 9, 24–5, 87, 91, 94, 99, 128, 196, 202, 203, 204, 205, 208, 214, 215, 299, 300, 318
- Anderson, A.R. 222
- anonymity, error reporting 54, 59
- appropriateness, institutional entrepreneurship 298, 299
- Argyris, C. 32, 42, 47, 48, 58, 108
- Armbrüster, T. 3, 10, 11, 35, 56, 57, 59, 95, 98, 99, 110, 221, 229, 267, 303, 304, 305, 308
- Aronson, B.E. 248, 249
- assessment model, market sensing in new practice development study 211–12
- associates
changing career models: London law firms
study 136, 137, 138–9, 141, 142
legal profession in England and Wales:
historical study 377
professional service firms 130–31, 132, 133, 134, 244–5, 248
- atomism 256–60, 266–7, 268, 269
- Australian international law firms 239–40
- autonomy 121
see also control; entrepreneurial autonomy; partner autonomy; power relations;
professional autonomy
- awareness management 210–11, 213–14, 306
- banks 305, 332, 349, 351, 352–5, 365, 366
see also investment banking
- Barney, J.B. 149, 150, 152, 166, 243, 247
- Bauer, J. 42, 43, 47, 52
- Bechky, B.A. 8, 12, 13, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28–9, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36–7, 38, 39, 91
- Benders, J. 8, 9, 24–5, 87, 91, 92, 94, 95, 99, 128, 202, 204, 205, 206, 208, 209, 214, 215, 216, 230, 297, 308
- benefits 48, 51, 53, 275, 280, 282, 291–2
- Berg, R.-J., van den 95, 202, 206, 230
- Bettencourt, L.A. 86, 88, 90, 184, 226, 227
- Billings, Frederick 325–6
- Birkinshaw, J. 34, 108, 112, 121, 244
- Bloomfield, B. 87, 93, 95
- “bounded” conflict 119–20
- “BoutiqueCo” 279, 280, 283, 284–7
- branding 170, 172–5, 177, 231–2, 238, 239, 240

- Brint, S.G. 301, 304, 334, 370, 380, 381, 383 broad representations 30, 33, 38
 Brock, D.M. 148, 238, 240, 241, 245, 246, 247–8, 250, 301, 369, 370, 372, 382 Brown, J.L. 10, 31, 68, 107, 108, 183, 274, 275, 301, 369, 381 brownfield market entry strategies 249, 264, 265, 266–7, 268, 269–70 Bunge, M. 112, 113–14, 116, 119 business, relationship with professionalism 369, 371 business angels 346, 359, 366 buyouts 286, 287, 344, 346, 347, 358, 359, 366
 Bygrave, W.D. 343, 344, 345, 350–51, 353
- Californian gold rush see professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example Cannon, M.D. 43, 47, 48, 54 capital see capital gains; capital investment; capitalism; cultural capital; financial capital; human capital; institutional capital; organizational capital; relational capital/capital deficits; reputation; social capital; venture capital capital gains 345, 347, 348, 353 capital investment 331, 333 capitalism 319, 321, 322, 323, 376 care, heedful knowledge integration 32–3, 34, 38 career models 9, 34, 35–6, 38, 132, 133
   see also career stress; changing career models: London law firms study; promotion career stress 48, 49, 52–3, 54, 55, 57, 61 Carson, D. 222, 223, 230 cause and effect chains 43, 45, 47, 48, 50, 57 centralization 12, 238–9, 241, 247, 274, 283, 287, 288, 320 chairpersons 282, 284–5, 288–9, 290 champions 58, 209, 210–11, 214
 changing career models: London law firms study conclusion and future research agenda 143–5 data and methods 135–6
   organizing model and capacity for innovation 139–43, 144 permanent non-partnered positions 136–9
 chaos, professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 319, 321, 323, 328, 334 chief executive officers (CEOs) 282, 284–5, 287, 288, 289–90
 Child, J. 31, 33, 35, 70, 188
 Clark, T. 56, 57, 65, 72, 87, 173, 203, 214, 297, 303 classic professional service firms 6–7, 10, 11 clerks 373, 375, 377, 380 client commitment 132, 139, 144 client efficiency 226 client experience 89 client-following market entry 238–9, 241, 249, 258, 259, 262, 263, 267 client identity 93 client information 88, 89, 92 client knowledge 89, 90, 91, 92, 97 client motivation 86, 87, 90 client needs
   innovating through clients 88, 89, 91, 92
   market sensing in new practice development study 209, 210, 213, 214, 215
   marketing by professional service firms 221, 222, 224
   new practice development 203, 206, 207
   value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 225–6 client passivity 87, 95, 97 client perceived risk/uncertainty reduction 221, 224, 227 client perceived value in professional services 223–4, 225–6, 227, 228–9 client power 95, 97 client–professional interaction
   innovating through clients 86, 88, 93, 94, 95–6, 99, 140
   innovation in professional service firms 9, 86, 128
   market sensing in new practice development study 209, 210, 211–13, 214, 215
   marketing by professional service firms 221, 224
   new practice development 202, 204, 206
   project-based learning 67, 70, 76–7, 78–9, 80, 81 value creation process in professional service firms 188, 221, 226–7 client–professional interaction deficits 74–5, 76 client–professional relationship
   innovating through clients 92, 95–6, 99–100
 internationalization of professional service firms 258, 259
 legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 378, 379
 management consulting firms 10–11, 305, 306
 marketing by professional service firms 10–11, 221, 222–3, 224
   value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 225, 227–8, 229 client risk 221, 224, 226 client satisfaction 223, 225–6, 229, 275–6

- client selection 90
- client skills 89, 90
- client support 73, 76–9, 80, 81, 82
- client training 90
- client uncertainty 56, 57, 88
- clients 9–10, 188, 275–6
- co-located space/space deficits 69–70, 74–5, 77–8, 79, 80
- co-optation 305–7, 309
- co-production 7, 12, 69, 86, 88, 90, 97, 231, 276
- coalitions 93, 119, 300, 320
- codes 328–30, 332, 381
- cognitive ability deficits 43, 47, 48, 49
- cognitive distance 66, 67
- cognitive incompleteness/incongruence 187
- cognitive psychology 4, 44
- collaboration 73, 76–7, 78, 209–10, 212, 219, 226–7, 228
  - see also* client–professional interaction; co-production; innovating through clients
- collective action 27–8, 116, 302, 311, 321
- collective discussion 65, 67, 70, 73, 76–7, 78, 79, 80, 81, 82
- collective mind 28–9, 36–7, 38–9
- collective problem solving 28–9, 36, 116, 117, 118
- collegial governance
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 377, 381, 384
  - multi-stage model of governance 280, 281, 283, 284–7, 290, 291–2
  - professional service firms 274, 369
- commercialization 210, 369–70, 372, 373–7, 378, 379, 381–4
- commitment 70, 78, 80, 81, 117, 118, 129, 224, 227
  - see also* client commitment; senior management commitment
- committee governance 280, 281–2, 292
- communication
  - error management 42–3, 47, 48–9, 50–51, 52–5, 57–60, 61
  - heedful knowledge integration 33
  - internationalization of professional service firms 248
  - knowledge integration 27
  - leadership 178–9
  - market sensing in new practice development study 209–14, 215
  - marketing by professional service firms 221, 222–3, 224, 232
  - value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 225, 228–9
  - see also* client–professional interaction; client–professional relationship;
  - communication costs; face-to-face meetings; formal meetings; language; personal relationships
- communication costs 151, 167
- competition
  - institutional entrepreneurship 299
  - leadership in heterarchical organizational form 116, 117, 119–20
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 382
  - management consulting firms 303
  - network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study 264
  - professional service firms 107, 369, 372
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 320, 323
- competitive advantage
  - customer perceived value in professional services 223
  - definition 152–3
  - internationalization 256, 257, 258
  - internationalization of professional service firms 261
  - management consulting firms 304, 307, 310
  - organizational performance, relationship with 184
  - professional diversity 150
  - professional experience 148, 151–2
  - professional service firms 3, 242–3
- complementary services 228, 229, 325–7, 332
- complexity
  - ABC framework for professional service firms 191–2, 193, 195–6, 197
  - client needs 224
  - governance of professional service firms 274, 276, 279, 283, 291–2
  - heedful knowledge integration 30–32, 33, 36–7, 38
  - heterarchical organizational form 108, 112
  - innovating through clients 88, 97, 99
  - internationalization of professional service firms 242, 250, 255
  - professional tasks 110
  - value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 227
- complexity costs 148, 167
- conflict 119–20, 151, 247, 298, 311, 343
- consensus 67, 82, 117, 119, 120, 281, 289
- constructionist perspective 4–5, 86–7, 91, 92–7, 98, 99, 299–300, 308
- contexts
  - innovating through clients 91, 92, 94, 97
  - internationalization of professional service firms 240–41, 244, 247, 270
  - knowledge integration 26

- new practice development 204
- strategic entrepreneurship 198–9
- value creation in professional service firms 4, 223, 225
- Contractor, F. 239, 240, 241, 247
- control
  - innovating through clients 92–3, 94, 97
  - institutional entrepreneurship 298
  - multi-stage model of governance in
    - professional service firms study 280, 281, 288–9, 290
  - of organizational field by professionals 6, 371–2
  - organizational field emergence and structuration 320, 342
  - of professionals in professional service firms 274
  - venture capital 343
- conveyancing 375, 379, 380, 382, 383
- Cooper, D.J. 10, 68, 107, 108, 274, 276–7, 301, 334, 369, 372
- cooperation 86, 91, 92, 96, 113–14, 115–16, 117, 119–20, 231
- cooperative competition 115–16, 117, 119–20
- coordination 108, 109, 111, 112, 113, 114–15, 116–17, 120–21, 247, 274
- coordination costs 148, 151
- corporate governance
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 380, 382
  - managerial professional businesses 277
  - multi-stage model of governance in
    - professional service firms study 280, 281, 282–4, 288–91
  - organizational growth of professional service firms 274, 276
  - professional service firms 245, 274
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 330, 332–3
- corporate social responsibility 309
- corporate venture capital companies 347, 349, 355–7, 356, 362
- cost efficiency 189, 190–91, 192, 193, 195, 221, 222, 226, 241, 247, 253
- costs 43, 48–9, 51, 53, 241
  - see also* communication costs; complexity costs; coordination costs; cost efficiency; emotional costs; financial costs; monitoring costs; production cost reduction; social costs; sunk costs; transaction cost reduction
- counsel/legal directors 136–7, 139, 140, 142–3, 144
- creative collectives 25–6
- creative destruction 5, 6, 171
- creative organizations 28–9, 36–7, 66
- credit institutions 347, 348, 349, 351–2, 353, 354, 355, 359, 360, 362
- CREO 194–5
- crises 277, 280, 281, 282, 283–92
- “cross-selling” 247–8
- cultural capital 4, 376, 378–9, 380
- customers see clients
- customization
  - innovating through clients 88, 89, 95, 96, 98
  - innovation in professional service firms
    - 126–7, 131, 143
  - professional service firms 9, 184, 189, 240–41, 245
  - value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 226, 231
- Czarniawska-Joerges, B. 171, 178–9
- Danieli, A. 87, 93, 95
- Dawson, R. 221, 226, 227
- DAX-30 305–6
- DCE Consulting see market sensing in new practice development study
- Dean, A. 240, 242, 244, 247, 248
- decentralization 107, 110, 111, 121, 122, 187, 246, 310, 378
- decision-making
  - heterarchical organizational form 112–13, 114–15, 116–17, 118, 119–20, 121
  - institutional entrepreneurship 299
  - multi-stage model of governance 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285–7, 288–9
  - venture capital in Germany 344, 346, 348, 350, 353, 354–5, 356, 357, 366
- deferred payment 153
- delegated governance 274, 280, 281, 282, 283–4, 288–91, 292
- democracy 112, 113, 115, 116, 119, 120, 121, 324, 328
- Denmark see professional diversity and experience: professional engineering consulting firms study
- Dennett, L. 375–6, 378, 379
- deregulation 109, 110, 370, 381–2, 383, 384
- developed economies 3
- Devinney, T. 70, 96, 98
- DiMaggio, P.J. 171, 241, 297–8, 300, 301, 302, 303, 320, 321, 323, 324, 340, 342, 348, 351, 353
- directors 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 378, 381
- disconnection crisis 282, 283–4, 288–91
- discourses 91–2, 93, 94, 99
- dispersed governance 280, 283
- dispute resolution 94, 246, 328–9, 330
- distributed agency 310

- diversity of expertise 66, 67, 80 diversity of top management 149 diversity of understandings 26 division of labour 66, 116, 130–31, 142, 143 domain choice 188, 189–90, 191, 192–4, 195, 196, 197
 Dörner, D. 43, 47, 48
 Dougherty, D. 24, 26, 27, 28, 30–31, 32, 113, 202, 203, 206, 207, 208, 215 downsizing 249
 Drazin, R. 91, 94, 99
 Dunning, J.H. 256
 Dyck, C. van 42–3, 44, 45, 47, 52, 53, 55, 59
- early stage investment 344, 345, 346, 347, 349, 358, 359, 363 Eckhardt, J.T. 4, 8, 186, 238, 274, 318–19
 eclectic paradigm of FDI theory 256, 257, 258, 259, 260 economic accountability 34–5, 37 economic power 95
   see also monopolies economies of scale and scope 241, 247 Edmondson, A.C. 32, 33, 42, 43, 45, 47, 48, 49, 52, 53, 54, 113 efficiency 189, 241, 242, 245, 247, 256, 257, 372
   see also cost efficiency; efficiency wages; inefficiency efficiency wages 153 elites 299, 301–3, 304, 307, 308, 309, 320, 325, 378 embedded agency 298, 300, 301, 302, 310, 311, 340 emerging economies 3, 244
 emerging fields 299–301, 310, 318
   see also legal profession in England and Wales: historical study; professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example emotional costs 43 emotional space 33
 empathy 32–3, 34, 38 employee-following market entry 267 employee mobility 3, 149, 249 employee performance/productivity 129, 134–5, 137, 153, 158–9, 160, 162–3, 164, 165–6, 167 employee retention 129, 132, 148, 149, 153, 166 employee selection 34, 36, 46, 116, 118–19, 166 employee turnover 9, 153, 166, 265, 266, 280, 283, 287 employer branding 170, 174, 306
 Empson, L. 4, 25, 31, 57, 58, 59, 65, 68, 86, 91, 107, 117, 148, 184, 198, 202, 203, 204, 274, 275–6, 297, 301, 304, 369, 370, 382
- engineers 323, 325, 326–7, 328, 330–32, 333, 334
   see also professional diversity and experience: professional engineering consulting firms study ENGY 195 entrepreneurial autonomy 116–17, 118–19, 378 entrepreneurial marketing 220, 222–3 entrepreneurial motivation 198 entrepreneurial opportunities 4–5, 7–11, 185–7, 194–5, 196, 197, 198, 199, 319
 entrepreneurship
   definition 3, 185
   equilibrium versus disequilibrium 318–19
   legal profession in England and Wales:
     historical study 373–7, 378, 379, 381–4 management, relationship with 171 marketing, relationship with 222
   professional service firms 3, 7–11
   professionalism, relationship with 5–7, 369, 372 professionals 274, 280, 286, 369
   research 3–4, 185–7
   see also strategic entrepreneurship equality 324, 328, 329 equity investment 343, 344–5, 347, 349, 351, 352–3, 354, 355–6, 358–9, 362 error detection 42, 43, 47–8, 50–51, 54–5, 57, 58 error experience/experience deficits 47, 48, 51 error handling 42, 47, 49, 50–51, 55, 57–60
 error management challenges for professional service firms 56–60 conclusions 60–61 elements 42–3
   error definition 43–4 identification and discussion of the literature's implications 52–6 importance 42, 43 interaction between latent conditions and barriers to effective error management 44–52 errors 42, 43–5, 207–8
   see also error detection; error experience/experience deficits; error handling; error management ethics, professionalism 10, 371, 376, 381 European Venture Capital Association 362, 365 evaluation 57, 58, 67, 226, 227 exclusion crisis 280, 281, 283, 291–2 exit channels 345, 348, 352, 364–5 experiential knowledge 242, 243, 247, 257, 258, 267–70

- see also* client experience; error experience/experience deficits; professional experience
- expertise see professional knowledge
- expertise-based organizational structures 34–5, 38
- experts, as leaders 179
- explicit knowledge 25, 26, 127, 130, 132, 133
- exploitation
  changing career models: London law firms
  study 138, 141, 142, 144
  concept 120–21, 128
  entrepreneurial opportunities 185–6
  heterarchical organizational form 121
  professional service firms 4, 5, 7–8, 10, 11, 128, 131, 132
- exploration
  changing career models: London law firms
  study 138–9, 140, 141, 142–3, 144
  concept 120, 128
  heterarchical organizational form 121
  professional service firms 4, 5, 7–8, 9, 10, 11, 128, 131, 132
  professionals' role in field emergence: gold
  rush example 321, 323
- exports 257, 258, 260
- external actors 99, 231
- external communication 211–13, 214, 215
- external networks 231
- face-to-face meetings 9, 69, 77, 89, 378
- families 344, 347, 359, 376, 378, 379
- FDI theory, eclectic paradigm 256, 257, 258, 259, 260
- federated governance 280, 283
- fee billing arrangements
  changing career models: London law firms
  study 138, 141, 142–3, 144
  legal profession in England and Wales:
  historical study 375, 377, 378, 379–80, 382, 383, 384
  professional service firms 131, 132, 133, 134
- feedback from clients in new practice development 210, 211, 212, 215
  error management 48, 52, 54–5, 58, 60
  institutional entrepreneurship 307, 311
  knowledge integration 27, 32–3
- female employees 138
- Fenton, E.M. 245–6, 247
- Fetherling, D. 319, 321, 322, 323, 325, 328, 334
- Field Code 329–30
- financial capital 243, 330, 333, 334
- financial costs 43, 48, 54, 61
- financial incentives 46
- Fincham, R. 65, 72, 87, 96, 204, 214, 297
- firm age see multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study; organizational growth; young firms
- firm size 158, 159–65, 190, 191, 192, 193, 379, 380
  see also large firms; multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study; multinational enterprises; organizational growth; small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs); small
  firms
- firm-specific professional experience 148, 149, 151–2, 153, 157–8, 160, 161, 162–3, 165, 166
- first-order problem solving 49, 51
- flexibility 66, 107, 108, 111, 115, 117, 150, 260
- Flood, J. 240, 297, 370
- formal institutions 244
- formal meetings 35, 38
- FoBtenlökken, S.M. 7–8, 9, 43, 65, 69, 86, 88, 89, 90, 128, 184, 188, 191, 194, 195, 196,
202, 206, 214, 226, 239, 305
- founder-focused governance stage 108, 280–81, 283, 284–7, 291–2
- founders 108, 188, 280–81, 283, 284–7, 291–2, 354, 359, 377
- Frankfurt see network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- Freidson, E. 6, 8, 16, 87, 92, 109, 369, 370, 371, 372
- Friedman, L.M. 323, 329–30
- Frommann, H. 344, 345, 346, 349, 351, 353, 354–5, 361, 362
- “fun” 32–3, 38
- functionalist perspective, innovating through clients 86, 88–92, 97, 98
- Gallouj, F. 86, 88, 89, 90, 99
- Gardner, H.K. 8, 24, 87, 94, 99, 128, 196, 202, 203, 205, 206, 214, 318
- general professional experience 151–2, 157–8, 160, 161, 162–3, 165, 166
- German Venture Capital Association 352, 360–62, 365
- Germany 258, 259
  see also network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study; venture capital in Germany
- Gilmore, A. 222–3, 230
- Gilson, R.J. 130–31, 133, 134, 249, 305, 383
- Global see project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study

- global economic downturn 2008/9 249, 250, 265, 352
- global firms see internationalization of professional service firms; multinational enterprises
- global professional networks (GPNs) 238–9, 242, 245, 246
- global professional service firms 279, 280, 284, 288–91, 369, 376, 382
- global strategies 238, 239, 240–41, 249, 250
- globalization 238, 309, 334, 370, 381
see also internationalization of professional service firms
- Glückler, J. 3, 10–11, 56, 57, 99, 110, 221, 229, 256, 262, 264, 267, 305, 308
- gold rushes see professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example
- governance 320, 321
- governance of professional service firms 68–9, 78–9, 113–17, 243–4, 250, 274–6, 277
see also heterarchical organizational form; multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study; partnerships
- governments 306–7, 344, 346, 359, 362–3, 365, 374–5, 376
- Great Northern Railway 374–5
- greenfield market entry strategies 249, 264, 265, 266, 267–9
- Greenwood, R. 7, 10, 31, 57, 58, 59, 68, 86, 87, 91, 99, 107–8, 117, 121–2, 127, 128, 129, 148, 171, 183, 184, 188, 195, 198–9, 202, 203, 204, 206, 214, 215, 241, 245, 274, 275, 276–7, 278, 279, 287, 297, 298, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 307, 308, 310, 318, 319, 332, 334, 340, 342, 369, 380, 381, 383
- Greiner, L.E. 11, 16, 137, 278, 279, 283, 287, 291, 292
- group development 33–4
- Gruber, H. 42
- habitual action 28
- Halinen, A. 221, 227, 228
- Halleck, Peachy and Billings (HPB) 326
- Hamilton, G.G. 321, 322, 323
- Hammersley, G.O.M. 35, 36, 37
- Handley, K. 65, 72, 87
- Hanlon, G. 10, 11, 65, 69, 109, 370, 372, 375, 376, 377, 378, 379, 380, 381, 382, 383
- Hansen, M.T. 90, 127–8, 130, 142, 148, 184, 189, 190–91, 195, 198, 204, 301
- Hargadon, A.B. 8, 12, 13, 23, 24, 26, 27, 28–9, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36–7, 38, 39, 150, 151, 300
- Hedlund, G. 108, 112, 115
- heedful interrelating 27–9
- heedful knowledge integration collective mind enactment 28–9, 38–9 conclusions and research implications 37–9 interactive climate 32–4, 38, 39
organizational enablers and barriers 34–7, 38, 39 representation and social identification 30–32, 38, 39
- help giving 29, 34, 37, 38
- help seeking 29, 34, 36–7, 38
- heterarchical organizational form definition and concept 108, 112–13 governing regimes 68–9, 113–17 knowledge-based competition 111
versus partnerships 121–2 strengths and weaknesses 117–21
- Heusinkveld, S. 8, 9, 24–5, 87, 91, 92, 94, 95, 99, 128, 202, 204–5, 206, 208, 214, 215, 216, 230
- hierarchical organizational form concept 112, 113
corporate control in professional service firms 274, 276
- legal profession in England and Wales:
historical study 377, 382
- managerialism 372
- organizational field emergence and structuration 320
- professional service firms 112, 244–6
- professionalism 372
- professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 325, 326
- project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study 66, 70, 74, 81
- high-reliability organizations 43, 55–6, 61
- high technology sector 343, 344, 345, 346–8, 349, 352–3, 354, 356, 359, 360, 362, 363, 364
- Hinings, B./C.R. 7, 10, 31, 68, 99, 107, 108, 148, 183, 184, 188, 195, 198, 202, 241, 245, 274, 275, 277, 278, 279, 287, 298, 299, 301, 302, 310, 340, 369, 380, 381, 383
- Hitt, M.A. 4, 130, 134, 149, 150, 184, 185, 186, 187, 240, 248
- Howden, C. 219, 221, 224, 226
- HR practices
ABC framework for professional service firms 190, 191, 193, 194, 195
error management 46, 55, 57–9
heedful knowledge integration 34, 35–7, 38, 39
professional service firms 9–10, 188
- human action 46, 47, 50
- human capital
employer branding 174

- heterarchical organizational form 118–19
- innovation in professional service firms 129, 131–2, 134–5
- internationalization of professional service firms 239, 240, 242, 243, 247, 265
- legal profession in England and Wales:
  - historical study 382
- professional service firms 3, 9–10, 245
- venture capital in Germany 351, 353, 357
- human characteristics 42, 43, 44, 45, 46–7, 48

- idea codification 77, 204
- idea commodification 204, 210
- idea dissemination 204, 205, 210, 213, 214
- idea processing 204
- idea selection 204, 205
- identity 93, 173
  - see also* identity conflict; occupational identity; professional identity; self-identity; social identity
- identity conflict 31, 71, 81
- image building 232, 378
- impression management 52–3, 57, 58, 78, 79
- incentive systems 46, 47, 51, 55, 59, 129, 131–3, 139, 144
  - see also* motivation; pay
- income maximization 275–6
- incremental growth 257, 264, 265
- incremental innovation 89, 96, 128, 205
- individual learning 49
- industry sectors 359–60, 361
- inefficiency 44, 96–7, 186, 189, 244
- influencing strategies 308–9
- informal institutions 244
  - see also* codes; informal monitoring; self-regulation
- informal monitoring 274, 276, 281, 288
- information processing 88, 207, 208, 212, 213–14, 215, 222, 320, 342
- innovating through clients
  - conclusion and directions for future research 98–100
  - constructionist perspective 86–7, 91, 92–7, 98, 99
  - functionalist perspective 86, 88–92, 97, 98
  - introduction 86–7
- innovation
  - changing career models: London law firms study 138–9, 140, 141, 142–5
  - client–consultant interaction 9, 86, 128
  - entrepreneurial opportunities 4, 186, 187
  - exploration versus exploitation 128
  - professional service firms 3, 4–5, 6–7, 8–9, 127–9, 130, 131–3, 202, 230, 242
    - by professionals 87
    - projects 66
    - venture capital 343, 344, 356
    - see also* innovating through clients; new practice development
- innovative organizations 30–31
- institutional boundaries 10
- institutional capital 3, 298, 304, 306, 307, 308, 309, 310
- institutional change 242, 298, 299, 300, 302, 304, 310–11, 318, 319
- institutional contexts 241–2, 243–4, 247
- institutional entrepreneurship 171, 298–303, 318–19
  - see also* institutional entrepreneurship study; organizational field emergence and structuration; professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example
- institutional entrepreneurship study
  - conclusion 310–11
  - introduction 297–8
  - maturing field: management consulting in Germany 303–9
  - theoretical origin and core argument 298–303
- institutional integration 242
- institutional theory 241–2, 250, 298–303, 340, 351, 365–6
- “institutional voids” 244
- institutions 171, 177–8, 179, 241–2, 243–4, 247, 250
- insurance companies 344, 347, 351, 359, 360
- intangible resources 240, 261
- intangible services 221, 229, 231, 240
- integration 116–17, 118–19, 242, 246–8, 249, 250, 269
  - see also* heedful knowledge integration; integration failure; knowledge integration
- integration failure 264, 265, 266–7, 269
- intentions, errors versus violations 44, 46
- interactive climate 4, 32–4, 38, 39
- interdepartmental dynamics 208, 209–11, 212, 213–14
- intermediary organizations 345, 348, 349, 365
- internal cohesion 264, 267
- internal communication 209–11, 212, 213, 214
- internal integration 246–8, 249, 250
- internal legitimacy/legitimacy deficits 205–6, 213–14
- internal marketing 205, 210–11
- internal networks 205, 231
- international diversification 239, 241
- international expansion
  - internationalization of management

- consultancies 262, 263, 264, 265, 266–7, 268, 269–70
 internationalization of professional service firms 239, 241, 248–9, 250, 253, 261
 internationalization 10–11, 256–60
 internationalization of professional service firms ABC framework 195–6 atomism in theories of internationalization 256–60 context 240–41
   global professional networks (GPNs) 238–9, 242, 245, 246
   global strategies 238, 239, 240–41, 249, 250 governance, challenges 243–4, 250 growth of 238, 240, 253 internal integration, challenges 246–8 leverage, challenges 246, 250 organizational structure, challenges 244–6, 247, 250
   research 239–40
   scale and scope changes 241, 247, 248–9, 250
   theoretical framework 241–3, 250
   see also network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study interpretive dominance 98–9 intrinsic motivation 37, 38, 46, 118 investment banking 297, 375, 376, 379, 382
 IT-based knowledge management systems 23–4, 25, 26, 35, 141, 142, 212

 Jaakkola, E. 221, 226, 231
 Jaworski, B. 203, 206, 208 job satisfaction 144, 198 job uncertainty 49, 54, 57
 Johanson, J. 256–7, 258–9, 260, 261
 Judah, Theodore 326–7 Jung, M.A. 328, 330, 332, 333 junior associates
   changing career models: London law firms study 138, 139, 140, 141, 142, 144, 145
   professional service firms 130–31, 132, 133, 245, 246 junior partners 245, 376, 377, 378
 junior professionals 280

 Kärreman, D. 57, 58, 59, 184
 Kieser, A. 6, 57, 87, 92, 93, 95, 204, 297, 303, 304, 307, 308, 309
 Kinnie, N. 23, 30, 36, 37, 39
 Kipping, M. 6, 11, 72, 86, 95, 202, 303, 304
 Kirk, H. 373, 374, 379
 knowledge 25–7, 88
   see also client knowledge; experiential knowledge; explicit knowledge; heedful knowledge integration; information processing; IT-based knowledge management systems; local knowledge/knowledge deficits; professional knowledge; shared knowledge; tacit knowledge knowledge-based competition 107–8, 109–12
 knowledge-based errors 44 knowledge codification
   changing career models: London law firms study 130, 133, 140–42, 143, 144 entrepreneurial strategies for professional service firms 189, 191, 193, 195
   knowledge integration 23, 25, 26–7, 31
   project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study 67, 77 knowledge commodification 25, 31, 128, 202, 206 knowledge creation 3, 9, 68, 86, 88, 91, 93–4, 96, 114 knowledge development 87, 88–9, 90, 91, 93, 94, 95–6, 98, 99, 226 knowledge diversity 68–9
 knowledge integration 23, 25–7, 127–8
   see also heedful knowledge integration knowledge intensive firms 172–3, 184, 189, 245 knowledge management 5, 23–4, 25–7, 189, 190–91, 193, 195 knowledge production 110, 111, 204, 245 knowledge protection 8 knowledge recombination 3, 128, 132, 141, 143, 148, 149, 167 knowledge transfer
   changing career models: London law firms study 130–31
   innovating through clients 91
   internationalization of professional service firms 247 knowledge-based competition 111–12
   knowledge integration 27
   professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 332, 334
   project-based learning 66, 67, 72, 80, 82
   value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 226, 227
   see also shared knowledge Kohli, A. 203, 206, 208
 Kok, R. 203, 206, 207, 208
 Kriegesmann, B. 43–4, 54
 Krogh, G. von 32, 33, 35, 36, 114
 Kubr, M. 8, 10–11, 86, 89

 language 178–9, 211–12, 248
 Lapierre, J. 224, 225–6, 227

- large firms
 German management consulting firms 307
 governance of professional service firms 277 growth in professional service firms 238, 240
 legal profession in England and Wales:
 historical study 379
 multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study 279, 280, 282–4, 288–91
 professional diversity and experience 154–5, 159–65, 166
 Larson, M.S. 6, 109, 318, 320, 369, 371 latent conditions, errors 42, 45–7, 49–52, 56–60 later stage/growth investment 344, 346, 347, 351, 352, 353, 354, 358, 359
 Latour, B. 178 law 94
see also changing career models: London law firms study; law firms; laws; lawyers; legal contexts; legal forms; legal integration; legal profession in England and Wales: historical study; litigation law firms
 downsizing 249
 entrepreneurial autonomy versus integration 117 innovation 128
 institutional entrepreneurship 303 internationalization 239–40, 244, 247, 248, 249
 legal profession in England and Wales:
 historical study 373–4, 375–6, 377–81
 venture capital 345, 348, 349, 365
see also changing career models: London law firms study Law Society 373, 376, 377, 379, 380
 Lawrence, T. 98–9
 Lawrence, T.B. 10, 242, 299, 300–301, 302, 304–5, 307, 308, 310, 311, 319, 321, 324, 325, 340
 laws
 legal profession in England and Wales:
 historical study 374, 375, 376, 383
 professionals' role in field emergence: gold
 rush example 327, 328, 329–30, 334
 venture capital 344, 345, 346, 362
 lawyers
 legal profession in England and Wales:
 historical study 373, 374, 375, 379, 381, 383 professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush 323, 324, 325–6, 328–30, 332, 333, 334
 “lead users” 89
 leadership
 branding, relationship with 170, 172–5, 177
 heterarchical organizational form 113, 115–16, 119, 120
 mediation 176–9
 professions, relationship with 170–71 relevance/irrelevance 171–2 as symbols, abstractions, representations 175–6, 177
 transformation, relationship with 176–7 learning
 error management 42, 52, 55, 60, 61
 exploration versus exploitation 128
 heedful interrelating 28
 heedful knowledge integration 36
 heterarchical organizational form 114
 professional service firms 4, 7–8, 107, 108
see also individual learning; learning-by-absorption; learning-by-reflection; learning deficits; organizational learning/learning barriers; project-based learning; training and development learning-by-absorption 65, 67 learning-by-reflection 65, 67, 80 learning deficits 66, 74–6, 79, 80, 82 legal aid 379, 380, 382, 383 legal contexts 240–41, 244 legal forms 275–6
 legal integration 242
 legal profession in England and Wales:
 historical study
 from competitive to collegial professionalism 379–82 concluding remarks 382–4
 introduction 369–71
 professionalism and entrepreneurship in the nineteenth century 373–9 professionalism as a work organization method 371–3 legitimacy
 German management consulting firms 306, 307, 308, 309
 heedful knowledge integration 29, 30, 35, 38 innovating through clients 87, 90, 91–3, 94, 96, 98
 institutions theories of professional service
 firms 241, 242
 leadership 178, 179
 managerialism 372
 market sensing in new practice development
 study 213–14
 new practice development 205–6
 professionals' role in field emergence: gold
 rush example 328, 331

- project-based learning in a strategy
  - consultancy study 66, 70, 75, 78, 80, 81
- Leopold, G. 344, 345, 346, 349, 351, 353, 354–5, 361
- leverage
  - changing career models: London law firms study 140–41, 143, 144
  - internationalization of professional service firms, challenges 246, 250
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377
  - professional service firms 11, 130–31, 132, 133, 134, 246
- lifecycle models of organizational growth 277–8
  - see also* multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study
- Limbaugh, R.H. 323, 328, 331
- linguistic artifacts 178–9
- litigation 240, 276, 325–6, 328–9, 375, 376
- lobbyism 4, 306–7, 374–5
- local institutional contexts 240–41, 244, 247
- local knowledge/knowledge deficits 264, 270
- local professional service firms 238, 240
- location, OLI model 256, 257, 258
- lockstep payment 377, 380–81, 382
- London see changing career models: London law firms study; network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- long-term client–professional relationship 92, 96, 99–100
- Lounsbury, M. 297, 298, 299, 300, 302, 304, 310, 340, 342
- Løwendahl, B.R. 7, 8, 9, 11, 23, 25, 43, 56, 65, 86, 128, 184, 188, 189, 198, 199, 202, 226, 239, 241, 245, 305
- Lusch, R.F. 219, 223, 225, 226
- Madrid see network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- Mahnke, V. 148
- Maister, D.H. 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 35–6, 37, 119, 120–21, 129, 130, 131, 148, 150, 151, 183, 187–8, 226, 229, 245, 246, 280, 301, 304, 305
- Malhotra, N. 43, 135, 138, 198, 277
- management
  - entrepreneurship, relationship with 171
  - fashions and fads 92, 93, 95, 96–7, 128, 171, 242, 297, 308, 311
  - institutions, relationship with 178
  - internationalization of professional service firms 247, 250, 269
  - multi-stage model of governance 281, 282, 283, 284–7, 288–9, 290–91, 292
  - ownership, relationship with 291
  - professional service firms 274
  - specialization in professional service firms 245
- Management Boards 284–7
- management consulting firms 4, 6–7, 10–11, 56, 57, 58–60, 303–9, 310–11
  - see also* network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- management support 343, 348, 349–51, 356
- managerial professional businesses (MPBs) 10, 108, 245, 276–7, 370
- managerialism 245, 369, 371, 372
- managers 4, 283, 292
- managing partners 282, 288, 289
- manufacturing industry 3, 258–9, 261
- March, J.G. 120, 128, 151, 152
- market control, profession-based competition 109–10
- market entry strategies 238–9, 241, 248, 249, 250, 259–60, 261, 262–9
- market exit 263
- market failure 111–12
- market groups, market sensing in new practice development study 209, 210
- market information processing 207, 208, 212, 213–14, 215, 222
- market integration 242
- market opportunities 238, 239, 261, 264, 265–6
- market orientation 206–8
  - see also* market sensing in new practice development study
- market risk 258
- market sector groups, market sensing in new practice development 209–10, 211, 212, 213–14
- market-seeking 263, 266
- market selection 242, 257–9, 267
- market sensing in new practice development study
  - case study 208–13
  - discussion and conclusion 213–16
  - introduction 202–3
  - market orientation 206–8
  - new practice development 203–6, 230–31
- marketing 4, 10–11, 204, 219, 220–22, 223, 305, 308–9
  - see also* value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms
  - “Marketing Excellence” see market sensing in new practice development study
- mass media 172, 176, 334, 365

- Mattsson, L.G. 260, 261 maturing fields 299, 301–9, 310–11
 McCulloch, W.S. 108, 112, 113
 McKenna, C.D. 6, 87, 274–5, 297, 304, 305, 306, 307, 308
 McKinsey & Company 177, 184, 304, 305–6, 309 meanings 4, 87, 93, 94, 97, 98, 99, 173–4, 321
 mediation 176–9
 “MegaPartners” 279, 280, 284, 288–91 membership strategies, German management consulting firms 307–8 mergers and acquisitions (M&As) internationalization of management consultancies study 264, 265, 266–7, 268, 269–70
   internationalization of professional service firms 239, 248, 249, 250 multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study 281, 286–7, 288, 290 middle management 292
 Mills, P. 86, 88, 89, 90, 91
 Minchington, B. 174 mindful and mindless actions 28, 29 miners 324–5, 328–9, 330, 331, 333, 334
 Mintzberg, H. 12, 107, 119, 120, 188, 189, 190, 191, 274, 276, 280, 310
 Mnookin, R.H. 130–31, 133, 134, 249, 305
 Mohe, M. 11, 57 monitoring
   error management 47, 50, 51, 55, 56, 58, 59, 61
   German management consulting firms 307
   professional service firms 131, 134–5, 274
 monitoring costs 134–5, 153, 166
 monopolies 110, 114, 310, 328, 330, 379, 381, 383, 384 Morris, T. 4, 8, 24–5, 43, 65, 68, 86, 87, 94, 96, 108, 128, 135, 184, 196, 198, 202, 203, 204, 214, 240, 245, 277, 301, 318 motivation
   agential space in project-based learning 70–71, 76, 79, 81
   changing career models: London law firms study 140, 144, 145 entrepreneurs 198
   heedful knowledge integration 34, 35–6, 37, 38
   innovating through clients 86, 87, 90, 91, 94
   institutional entrepreneurship 299, 300, 301, 302, 342
   latent conditions in error management 46–7, 51, 55, 59
   management consulting firms 304
   professional service firms 7–8, 9, 118, 137, 198
 multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study alternative perspectives on governance 275–7 crises and reversals 283–92 discussion and conclusions 291–2
   introduction 274–5
   methods 278–9
   model 279–83, 291 stages of organizational growth 277–8 multinational enterprises
   eclectic paradigm of FDI theory 256, 257, 258, 259, 260 experiential knowledge in internationalization 267–8, 269–70
   heterarchical organizational form 112
   multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study 279, 280, 284, 288–91
   see also internationalization of professional service firms “multiplex” organizational form 108 mutual awareness 320, 342 mutual respect 32–3, 34, 52, 53, 59
 Muzio, D. 369, 370, 372, 377, 382, 383 negative outcomes, errors 42, 43, 44–5, 54 negativity, barrier to heedful knowledge integration 33 negotiation 87, 93, 94, 97, 107, 112, 113, 114, 115, 118, 121 neo-institutionalism 298–9, 340, 351 neo-liberalism 109–10, 377, 382 neo-professional service firms 6–7, 10, 11 nervous system networks 108, 112, 113 network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study atomism in theories of internationalization 256–60
   conclusion 269–70
   introduction 255
   network approach 260–61 relational theory of international entry: empirical research 262–9 networks
   German management consulting firms 305
   legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 378 market information dissemination 207
   marketing by professional service firms 222–3
   professional service firms 108

- value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 228, 229, 231, 232
- venture capital in Germany 345, 349, 351, 353, 356
- see also* global professional networks (GPNs); internal networks; nervous system networks; network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- Neuer Markt 355, 364–5
- new business development/development failure 263, 264, 265, 266–9
- new practice development 5, 9, 202–6, 209–10, 230–31
- see also* market sensing in new practice development study
- new service development 9, 10–11, 24, 88, 89–90, 144, 152, 195–6, 202
- new value-creating service development 225–7, 230–31
- Nikolova, N. 4, 70, 90, 94, 96, 98, 99, 221, 226
- non-reported errors 43, 48–9, 51, 57–8, 59
- Norton Rose 374, 375
- Norwegian professional service firms 194–5
- occupational control 109, 110
- occupational identity 31, 68
- O'Farrell, P.N. 258, 259, 261, 263–4, 267, 269
- OLI model 256, 257
- Oliver, C. 10, 47, 171, 241, 298, 304–5, 341
- Olivera, F. 43, 44, 47, 48, 49, 52, 57
- open source software 107, 111, 114
- opportunistic behavior 42, 44, 46, 51, 53–4, 247
- order 321, 329, 334, 342
- organizational archetypes 69, 112, 117, 188, 195, 197, 245, 276–7, 372
- see also* adhocracies; managerial professional businesses (MPBs); professional bureaucracies; professional partnerships (P<sup>2</sup>s)
- organizational capabilities 207–8, 215, 242, 243, 245, 246–7, 249, 250, 261
- organizational capital 243
- organizational change 3, 277
- organizational competences 257, 258, 260, 266, 269
- organizational “death” 278, 287
- organizational field boundaries 320, 342
- organizational field emergence and structuration 318, 320–21, 340–41, 342–3
- see also* professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example; venture capital
- organizational form, ABC framework for professional service firms 190, 191, 193
- organizational growth 274, 276, 277–8
- see also* multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study
- organizational interaction 320, 342
- organizational learning/learning barriers 42, 49, 66, 82, 246–7, 257
- organizational norms 29, 116–17
- organizational performance
- changing career models: London law firms study 137
- competitive advantage, relationship with 184
- diversity of top management, effects of 149
- entrepreneurial opportunities 186–7
- error management 42–3
- internationalization of professional service firms 239, 240, 241
- leader's role of mediation 176, 177
- legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377
- payment, effects of 153, 166
- professional diversity and experience 148, 149, 150, 152, 155, 156, 157, 158–66, 167
- professional service firms 130–31, 134–5
- racial diversity 150
- organizational risk 264, 265–6
- organizational structures
- ABC framework for professional service firms 190, 191, 193, 245
- heedful knowledge integration 34–7, 38, 39
- internationalization of professional service firms, challenges 244–6, 247, 250
- legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377–9, 380–81, 382
- professional service firms 9–10, 107–8
- see also* governance; multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study
- organizational support/support deficits 47, 49, 50
- organizations 175–7, 205
- organizing models 129–33, 139–45
- see also* governance; multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study
- Orlikowski, W.J. 27, 31, 33, 36, 39, 207
- outcome-based error detection 48, 50, 57
- outplacement 305–6, 307, 309
- outsourcing 3, 226
- Ove Arup 245–6
- overlapping tasks, heedful knowledge integration 30, 33, 38

- owners 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285–7, 291
see also directors; founders; partners
- ownership 190, 191–2, 193, 256, 280, 281, 283, 284, 286, 291, 328–9
see also directors; founders; owners; partners; partnerships
- Pacific Railroad 326–7
- Parsons Brinckerhoff 196
- participation opportunities 114, 119
- partner autonomy 117, 281, 288, 290, 378
- partners
  - changing career models: London law firms study 136, 138, 139, 141, 144
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377, 378, 379, 380–81
  - multi-stage model of governance 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285–7, 288–91
  - professional service firms 9, 129, 130–31, 132, 133–4, 244, 246, 248
  - as stakeholders in partnerships 275–6
see also directors; founders; owners; partner autonomy; partnerships
- partnerships
  - described 274, 275–6
  - entrepreneurial autonomy versus integration 117
  - versus* heterarchical organizational form 121–2
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377–81, 382
  - professional service firms 183, 274
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 330, 333
see also ownership; partners; professional partnerships (P<sup>2</sup>s)
- path dependency 152, 188, 195, 340, 365
- pay
  - changing career models: London law firms study 137, 139
  - corporate versus private venture capital companies 357
  - employee performance/productivity 153
  - employee retention/selection 149, 153, 166
  - incentives for staff in professional service firms 129, 131–3
  - leaders 176, 177
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 370, 376, 377, 378, 380–81, 382
  - organizational change in professional service firms 245, 246
  - organizational performance, effects on 153, 166
  - professional diversity and experience 148, 149, 150, 153, 157–8, 159, 160, 161, 163, 165–6
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 324–5, 329, 331
  - pay profile 150, 153, 158, 162–3, 165–6
  - pension funds 345, 346, 347, 351, 359, 360
  - performance-based pay 137, 370, 378, 381, 382
  - performance management/measurement 34, 36–7, 38, 239, 246
  - peripheral actors 299–301, 304
  - permanent associates 137, 139, 140
  - permanent non-partnered positions 136–9, 140–43, 144
  - Perry, C. 86, 89, 90, 230
  - personal branding 174
  - personal relationships 10–11, 33–4, 221, 227–8, 258, 263, 305, 306, 378
  - Pettigrew, A.M. 245–6, 247
  - Phillips, T. 376, 377, 379
  - physical health and safety 43, 61
  - physical space 69–71, 74–5, 76, 77–8, 79, 80, 81, 82–3
  - piggybacking market entry 267
  - Pinnington, A.H. 27, 37–8, 39, 68, 135, 239, 240, 245, 277
  - Pisani, D.J. 321, 322, 324, 328, 329, 330, 332, 334
  - pluralistic decision making 112–13, 114–15, 119, 120
  - political support 78–9, 81
  - politics 87, 94, 97, 208, 306–7, 309, 310, 363, 365
  - Popper, K.R. 114, 119
  - Porter, M.E. 111, 239, 240, 241
  - positivity, heedful knowledge integration 33, 34, 37, 38
  - Powell, M.J. 148, 241, 242, 301, 320, 369
  - Powell, W.W. 171, 241, 297, 298, 300, 301, 302, 303, 318, 320, 321, 324, 340, 342, 348, 351, 353
  - power relations
    - governance of professional service firms 275, 280, 281, 282, 283, 284, 285–7, 288, 289, 290, 291–2
    - heedful knowledge integration 33, 34, 38
    - innovating through clients/barriers to innovating 87, 90, 92–3, 94–6, 97, 98–9
    - institutional entrepreneurship 298
    - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 328
    - project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study 70, 71, 81–2
  - presentations, market sensing in new practice development study 210–11
  - Pressey, A. 219, 221, 224, 226

- private venture capital companies 341, 344–6, 347, 349–52, 357, 360–61, 362, 365
- problem solving 49, 51, 90, 115, 120–21, 198, 221, 226
- product branding 173–4
- production cost reduction 260
- profession-based competition 109–12
- professional associations 6, 7, 110, 303, 304, 320, 331
  - see also* European Venture Capital Association; German Venture Capital Association; Law Society
- professional autonomy 8, 95, 108, 109, 110, 118, 121, 191, 280, 292, 369
- professional bureaucracies 107, 191, 192, 193, 195, 197, 245, 276, 374
- professional competence 27, 31–2, 34–6, 37–8
- professional diversity
  - barriers to knowledge integration 26
  - competitive advantage 150
  - costs 148, 151, 167
  - heedful knowledge integration 35, 38
  - innovating through clients, barriers to 94
  - organizational performance 148, 150
  - professional service firms 68–9
  - project-based learning in a strategy
    - consultancy study 71, 80
  - see also* professional diversity and experience: professional engineering consulting firms study
- professional diversity and experience:
  - professional engineering consulting firms study
  - data and methods 154–9
  - discussion and conclusion 166–7
  - entrepreneurial value drivers: diversity and experience 149–53
  - introduction 148–9
  - results 159–66
- professional experience
  - competitive advantage 148, 151–2
  - knowledge production in professional service firms 245
  - leverage, changing career models: London law firms study 140–43
  - marketing by professional service firms 221
  - new practice development 204–5
  - organizational performance 149, 150, 152
  - payment, effects of 148, 149, 150, 153
  - professional service firms 4, 130, 131, 132, 133
  - reliable service 148, 150
  - reputation, effects on 148, 149–50, 151
  - venture capital in Germany 353–4, 357
  - see also* professional diversity and experience: professional engineering consulting firms study
- experience: professional engineering consulting firms study
- professional homogeneity 91
- professional identity
  - innovating through clients 93
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 380, 383
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 325, 332
- project-based learning in a strategy
  - consultancy study 68, 71, 76, 78, 79, 80, 81
- professional knowledge
  - heterarchical organizational form 115–16
  - innovating through clients 86–7, 91, 92–3, 94–5
  - knowledge production in professional service firms 245
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 375, 380
  - leverage in professional service firms 130, 131
  - market sensing in new practice development study 209, 214
  - marketing by professional service firms 219, 220, 221, 222, 224, 225, 226
  - network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study 264
  - new practice development 204–5
  - profession-based competition 3, 109
  - professionalism 6, 8, 371–2
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 331
  - value creation in professional service firms 3, 4, 221
- professional norms
  - German management consulting firms 308
  - innovating through clients, barriers to 86–7, 91–2, 94
  - professional service firms 6, 10, 183, 241, 371
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 320, 324, 332
- professional partnerships (P<sup>2</sup>s) 68, 108, 121–2, 245, 276–7, 370, 381
- professional power 92–3, 94–5
- professional self-interest 91, 92–3, 94–5, 204–5, 371
- professional service firms (PSFs)
  - concept 23
  - configuration approach 187–9
    - (see also ABC framework for professional service firms)
  - growth 3
  - research 183–4

- professional service sectors 274–5, 277
- professional standards 10, 109, 110, 264, 267, 307–8, 324, 371, 379
- professional support lawyers (PSLs) 137–8, 139, 140–41, 142–3, 144
- professionalism 5–7, 30, 31–2, 109, 353, 369–70, 371–3
- professionals
  - entrepreneurship 274, 280, 286
  - innovation 87
  - multi-stage model of governance 281, 282, 283, 284–5, 286–7, 292
  - new practice development, as driver of 204–5
  - organizational field emergence and structuration, role in 318, 320–21 (see also professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example)
  - as stakeholders in partnerships 275–6
  - transformation 318
- professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example
  - history of gold rushes 319, 321–2
  - professionals as “behind the scenes” agents of change 324–7
  - professionals as global diffusers of practices and principles 334
  - professionals as shaping the direction of change 323
  - professionals introduce old rule structures and technologies in new contexts 328–32
  - professionals populate the field with new organizational actors 332–3
- professions 170–71, 183
- profits
  - changing career models: London law firms study 137
  - internationalization of professional service firms 240, 241, 247
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377, 378, 382
  - leverage in professional service firms 245
  - multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study 286, 290, 291
  - network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies 264, 265, 266
  - payment, effects of 153
  - professional diversity and experience 155, 156, 157, 158–64, 165–6, 167
  - professional service firms 130–31, 134
  - professionals' role in field emergence: gold rush example 321, 323, 332
  - venture capital 343, 344, 345, 346, 353, 354, 357
- project-based learning 65, 66–7, 68–9, 107
- project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study
  - case background 72–3
  - discussion and conclusion 80–83
  - introduction 65–6
  - methods 71–2
  - phase 1: early days 73–6, 79, 80, 81, 82
  - phase 2: greater client support 73, 76–9, 80, 81, 82
- project-based learning definition and concept 65, 66–7
- project-based learning in professional service firms 65, 68–9
- spatial dimensions and reflective practice 69–71
- project ecology 107
- projects 35, 38, 66–7, 188, 205
- promotion 9, 129, 131–3, 135–6, 377, 378, 380–81
  - see also* changing career models: London law firms study; “up-or-out” promotion model
- property rights 325, 326, 327, 328–9, 330
- psychic distance 258–9, 267
- psychological safety 32–3, 34, 38, 49, 52–3, 59, 61
- punctuated equilibrium 278
- punishment/punishment immunity 47, 48–9, 51, 53–4, 55, 59, 61
- quality of service
  - clients as stakeholders in partnerships 275–6
  - customer perceived value in professional services 223–4, 227, 232
  - German management consulting firms 308
  - innovating through clients 89, 90, 95–6
  - internationalization of professional service firms 249
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 379
  - professionalism 371–2
- quasi-professionalism 304, 307
- racial diversity 150
- radical innovation 89
- radical structural perspective on professionals 94
- railways 374–5, 376, 381, 382
- rationality 91, 92, 97, 119, 120, 257–8, 308, 309
- reactive internationalization 258
- Reason, J. 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 47, 54, 56
- recruitment 34, 36, 38, 129, 132

- referrals 190, 193, 228, 229, 267
- reflective discussion/discussion deficits 66, 74–5, 76, 77, 78–9, 80
- reflective practice/practice deficits 65, 67, 68, 70–71, 74–5, 76–7, 80, 93
- reflective reframing 29, 34, 35, 38
- regional professional service firms 238, 250
- regulation
  legal profession in England and Wales:
    historical study 376, 379–80, 381, 383
- managerialism 372
- monopolies 110, 114, 310, 328, 330, 379, 381, 383, 384
- professionals' role in field emergence: gold
  rush example 324, 328, 329, 334
- venture capital 344, 345
- see also* codes; deregulation; laws; professional standards; regulatory change; rules; self-regulation
- regulatory change 128
- Reihlen, M. 3, 4, 10, 24, 25, 26, 27, 90, 91, 93, 99, 107, 108, 112, 114, 121, 122, 148, 221, 239, 274, 277, 303, 305, 311
- reinforcement, heedful knowledge integration 29, 34, 36, 37, 38
- relational capital/capital deficits 115, 240, 243, 264, 265, 266–7, 268–9, 270
- relational market entry 266, 267–9
- relational space 70–71, 75, 76, 78–9, 81–3
- reliable service 148, 150, 151
- repeat business 229
- repetition, habitual action 28
- representation 30–33, 34, 38, 39, 175–6
- reputation
  error management 42, 48, 53, 56, 59
- innovating through clients 88–9
- internationalization of professional service
  firms 247, 249
- leadership, relationship with 170
- legal profession in England and Wales:
  historical study 378–9, 380, 381
- management consulting firms 304, 305, 306, 307, 308, 309
- marketing by professional service firms 10, 221, 224
- network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies 264, 265, 267
- new practice development 202
- professional experience, effects of 148, 149–50, 151
- professional service firms 3, 7, 10, 11, 128, 130, 131, 133–4, 172–3, 240
- temporary leadership in heterarchical organizational form 115–16
- value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms 228–9, 232
- Rescher, N. 111, 113, 119, 120
- resistance to innovation 87, 93, 94–5, 96, 97, 99, 202, 205–6, 208
- resource-based view (RBV) 67, 148, 152–3, 242–3, 250, 301
- resource creation/recombination 185, 186
- resources
  ABC framework for professional service
  firms 189, 190–91, 192–4, 195, 196, 197
- innovating through clients 89, 91
- institutional entrepreneurship 298, 299, 300, 340–41
- internationalization 242–3, 250, 253, 257, 261, 266
- new practice development 204–5
- professionals' role in field emergence: gold
  rush example 321, 323, 330
- value creation process for professional service firms framework 188, 192–4, 195, 196, 197
- responsibility 28, 30, 176, 177, 371
- Revang, Ø. 7, 43, 65, 86, 128, 188, 202, 239, 305
- reversals 277, 278, 284, 289–90
- rewards 29, 36, 37, 46, 48, 51, 55, 59
- Ringberg, T. 24, 25, 26, 27, 91, 93, 114, 311
- risk see client perceived risk/uncertainty reduction; client risk; market risk; organizational risk; risk aversion; risk taking; uncertainty/uncertainty reduction
- risk aversion 353, 354
- risk taking 32, 44, 54, 207–8, 343, 346
- Roberts, K.H. 24, 27–8, 30, 34
- Robertson, M. 35, 36, 37, 95, 117
- robustness, governance of professional service
firms 244
- Rodrigues, S. 31, 33, 35, 70
- Rohrbough, M.J. 324, 325, 329, 333
- rule-based errors 44, 47
- rules
  institutional entrepreneurship 299
- legal profession in England and Wales:
  historical study 376, 379–80, 381
- management consulting firms 10, 304
- professionals' role in field emergence: gold
  rush example 321, 325, 326, 327, 328–32, 334
- Runsten, P. 30, 31
- safe environments/communication channels 49, 51, 52–3, 54–5, 59
- Sandberg, J. 27, 37–8, 39
- scale and scope changes 241, 247, 248–9, 276
- Scandinavian professional service firms 195

- Schaub, H. 43, 47, 48
- Schøn, D.A. 25, 29, 32, 67, 87, 93, 108, 119, 183
- Schumpeter, J.A. 5, 115, 119, 186, 319
- Scott, W.R. 189, 241, 297, 298, 302, 320, 324, 342
- second-order problem solving 49
- seed and start-up investment 343–5, 346, 347, 354, 358–9, 362, 363, 366
- Segal-Horn, S. 232, 240, 242, 244, 247, 248
- self-actualization 275–6
- self-attribution failure 48, 58
- self-esteem 32, 48
- self-identity 71, 76, 78, 79, 80
- self-interest 91, 92–3, 94–5, 204–5, 298, 299, 300, 371
- self-organization 108, 246, 331
- self-protection 33, 53, 58
- self-regulation 321, 328, 329, 369, 376–7, 379, 381, 383–4
- Sellen, A.J. 47, 48
- senior associates 136–8, 143, 245, 246
- senior management 149, 282, 284, 290
- senior management commitment 138, 139, 207–8, 210, 211, 213, 287
- senior management support/support deficits 50, 74, 75, 76, 77, 78, 79, 80, 81, 205
- senior non-partnered staff 140–43, 144
- senior partners 282, 286, 288, 289, 377, 378, 380
- senior professionals
- changing career models: London law firms study 136, 140, 145
  - multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms study 280, 281, 286, 287, 292
  - professional service firms 130–31, 132, 133, 134
- “sensing incipient preferences” 202, 204, 206, 214
- service delivery process 8–9, 188, 190, 191, 193, 194, 195, 196, 197
- service groups, market sensing in new practice development study 209
- services sector 3
- Shane, S. 4, 8, 149, 185–7, 197, 198, 238, 274, 318–19
- shared knowledge
- barriers 247
  - changing career models: London law firms study 140–42, 143, 144
  - error management 42–3, 53
  - innovating through clients 87, 90, 93
  - in knowledge management 23–4
  - project-based learning 65, 66
  - shared mental models 26–7
  - shared organizational goals 28, 33
  - shared organizational values 29, 33–4, 116, 118
  - shared practices 23–4, 26
  - shared understandings 26–7, 30–31, 33, 38, 93, 114, 299–300
- Sharma, D.D. 242, 258–9, 260, 261
- Sherer, P.D. 130, 135, 242, 244–5, 246, 301, 303
- signaling 59, 134, 173, 249
- skills/skill deficits 42, 44, 46, 47, 49, 51, 172
- Skjølvsvik, T. 9, 11, 86, 88, 89, 90, 184
- Slaughter and May 375–6
- Slinn, J. 374, 375, 377, 378, 379
- small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) 222–3, 256–8, 260, 307, 362, 379
- small business investment companies (SBICs) 344–5, 347
- small firms
- governance of professional service firms 277
  - historical development, professional service firms 238, 240
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 377, 382
  - multi-stage model of governance in professional service firms 279, 280–81, 283, 284–7
  - professional diversity and experience 155, 158, 159–64, 165, 167
  - venture capital 343, 344–5, 356, 362, 363
  - see also* small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs); small business investment companies (SBICs)
- Smets, M. 3, 43, 99, 135, 303
- social capital 243, 256, 376
- social change 323
- social costs 48, 53
- social embeddedness
- innovating through clients 99, 110
  - institutional entrepreneurship 298, 299, 300, 301–3, 310, 319
  - knowledge 26
  - professional service firms 4, 110, 241, 243
- social identity 31–3, 35, 38, 39, 66, 69–70, 116–17
- social incentives 46
- social space 87
- socialization 118–19, 248, 378, 381
- software industry 107, 111, 114, 215–16
- space 68
- see also* agential space; co-located space/ space deficits; emotional space; physical space; relational space; social space
- Spain see network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study

- specialization 245, 345–6, 366
- St George, A. 374, 375, 377, 379
- standardization 6, 9, 120, 121, 192, 226, 231, 239, 307–8, 345
- stereotypes, professionalism 369
- Stjernberg, T. 3, 25, 26, 114, 127–8, 130, 140, 141, 142, 202, 203, 204
- stock exchanges 333, 346, 352, 355, 364–5
- Stollfuß, M. 57
- Strannegård, L. 173
- StratCo see project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study
- strategic entrepreneurship 185, 187, 192–9
- strategic management
- innovating through clients 86, 90, 91, 92, 94, 95, 97, 99
  - management consulting firms 304, 305, 306, 307, 310
  - professional service firms 184
  - see also* ABC framework for professional service firms
- strategic partners 267
- Sturdy, A.J. 65, 69, 72, 76, 82, 87, 94, 96, 110, 214
- Suddaby, R. 7, 10, 31, 86, 87, 91, 99, 117, 128, 171, 188, 199, 202, 203, 204, 206, 214, 215, 245, 297, 299, 300, 301, 302, 303, 304, 307, 308, 310, 311, 318, 319, 321, 324, 325, 332, 334, 340, 342
- Sugarman, D. 369, 372, 373, 375, 376, 382
- Sundbo, J. 8, 9, 10, 86, 88, 89, 99
- sunk costs 258–9, 264
- Sutcliffe, K.M. 43, 47, 52, 53, 55
- Swan, J. 23, 24, 30, 31, 36, 95, 99, 117
- Swart, J. 23, 30, 36, 37, 39
- symbolism 173–4, 175–6, 177, 320
- tacit knowledge 26, 111–12, 127, 130, 132, 133, 140–42
- see also* knowledge codification
- Takacs, C.H. 24, 27, 28, 30–31, 32
- tangible solutions 221
- tasks 46, 47, 49, 50, 66–7
- team composition 130–31, 132, 133, 141–2, 144, 145
- “team play” 31, 32, 36
- team training 55–6
- teamwork, error management 55–6, 59, 61
- technical systems, error management 46, 47, 50
- technological development 3, 128, 330, 331, 332, 334
- see also* high technology sector; open source software
- Technology Investment Association (TBG) 352, 363
- Teece, D.J. 7, 9, 107, 167, 246
- temporary hierarchies 114–15
- temporary leadership 115–16, 117
- time factors
- error management barriers 45, 48, 50
  - innovating through clients 89
  - network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies 264, 265, 266
  - problem solving in professional service firms 221
  - project-based learning in a strategy consultancy study 71, 82–3
  - projects 66, 67
- Timmons, J.A. 343, 344, 345, 350–51, 353
- top management see senior management
- tournament promotion system see “up-or-out” promotion model
- “tracks,” organizational 277, 278
- trademarks see market sensing in new practice development study
- training and development
- ABC framework for professional service firms 190, 191, 192, 193
  - error management 46, 55–6
  - heedful knowledge integration 36, 38
  - heterarchical organizational form 118–19
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 373, 378, 380, 381, 383
  - market sensing in new practice development study 211, 212
  - new practice development 205
  - professional service firms 129, 130, 131–3, 134–5, 138–9
  - professionals’ role in field emergence: gold rush example 331, 332
- transaction cost reduction 256, 259, 260, 320
- transdisciplinary approach, knowledge-based competition 110, 111
- transformation 176–7, 318
- translation 87, 171, 176, 178–9, 204
- transparency, error communication 42
- trust
- error management in professional service firms 56
  - heedful knowledge integration 32–3, 34, 38
  - innovating through clients 90, 92, 96, 97, 99–100
  - leadership 178, 179
  - legal profession in England and Wales: historical study 378, 379
  - marketing by professional service firms 10, 221, 222, 224

- multi-stage model of governance in
  - professional service firms study 284, 290
- value-based framework for marketing in
  - professional service firms 227, 228, 232
- Tucker, A.L. 45, 47, 49, 52, 53
- Tynan, R. 43, 49, 52, 53
- Type A professional service firms 190–91, 192, 193, 194–5, 197, 245
- Type B professional service firms 191, 192, 193, 195, 197, 245
- Type C professional service firms 191–2, 193, 195–6, 197, 245
- UK 258, 259
  - see also* changing career models: London law firms study; network approach to the internationalization of management consultancies study
- uncertainty/uncertainty reduction 70, 98, 110, 179, 189, 208, 257, 258, 262, 321
- universities 344, 346, 347, 378, 380, 383
- “up-or-out” promotion model 35–6, 133–4, 136, 138, 245, 305, 307, 377, 378, 380
- Uppsala stage theory of internationalization 256–8, 260
- US 248, 343, 344–8, 349
- Vahlne, J.E. 256–7, 258, 260
- Valentin, F. 154, 155
- value
  - concept 223
  - innovating through clients 88
  - institutional entrepreneurship 298, 299
  - knowledge integration in professional service firms 23
  - legal profession in England and Wales:
    - historical study 376, 382, 383
  - marketing 219, 223
  - professional service firms 4, 184, 219, 220, 221, 240, 370
  - see also* value-based framework for marketing in professional service firms; value creation process (VCP) for professional service firms framework
- value-based framework for marketing in
  - professional service firms
    - conclusion 232–3
    - emerging areas for future research 229–32
    - introduction 219–20
    - literature base 220–24
    - value-based framework described 224–9
  - value creation process (VCP) for professional service firms framework 188, 192–7
  - values 10, 241, 308–9
  - Vargo, S.L. 219, 223, 225, 226
  - Vejrup-Hansen, P. 154, 155
  - Venkataraman, S. 3, 4, 185–7, 197, 198, 238, 274
  - venture capital 343–8, 349, 351, 365–6
    - see also* venture capital in Germany
  - venture capital in Germany
    - actors 348–57
    - co-investment of the Technology Investment Association (TBG) 352, 363
    - government aid measures 362–3
    - industry associations 352, 360–62, 365
    - Neuer Markt as exit channel for high-tech or high-growth companies 355, 364–5
    - recent financial dynamics 358–60
  - violations 43–4, 46–7, 54
  - voluntary employment exit 136
  - “way of being” 27, 31–2, 37–8, 39
  - Weick, K.E. 24, 27–8, 30, 34, 43, 47, 52, 53, 55, 179, 215
  - Werr, A. 3, 4, 10, 11, 24, 25, 26, 30, 31, 92, 94, 95, 110, 114, 127–8, 130, 140, 141, 142, 202, 203, 204, 214, 221, 227, 274, 297, 309
  - Wood, P. 258, 259, 261, 264, 269
  - word-of mouth communication 223, 228, 229, 232
  - work-life balance 138
  - work structures, heedful knowledge integration 34–6, 38, 39
  - Wupperfeld, U. 343, 344, 345, 349, 351, 352, 353, 354
  - Young, M.N. 244
  - young firms
    - multi-stage model of governance in
      - professional service firms 279, 280–81, 283, 284–7
      - venture capital 343–5, 346, 347, 356, 358–9, 362, 363, 366
  - Zander, I. 108, 112, 187, 198
  - Zhao, B. 43, 44, 47, 48, 49, 52, 57
  - Zontanos, G. 222

