
Index

- adaptation, in advertising
 - standardization, vs. 378, 484–6, 488
 - theory of 484–5
 - advertising, generally see also
 - advertising research; digital advertising; online advertising; television advertising
 - advertising standards/ regulation 239
 - ambiguity in 379, 381–3, 390–95
 - benefits and disadvantages of 423–4
 - children's understanding of 159
 - corrective advertising 25
 - creative strategies 312–13
 - definition 21–2
 - effectiveness
 - influences on 173–4, 476, 483, 485–7
 - measures, trends in 172–3
 - effects of
 - community building 430–33
 - cultural destruction 425–7
 - cultural enhancement/ protection 427–9
 - importance of 482–3
 - influences on
 - emerging/ developing markets 399–401, 404
 - media landscape changes 173–4, 476–7, 511
 - information cues 311, 313
 - informativeness 310–11
 - international advertising
 - challenges 483
 - and IMC 474, 482–3
 - studies of 474
 - purpose 280, 429
 - social advantages and disadvantages 427–30
 - soft-sell vs. hard-sell advertising 160–64, 170, 175–6
 - tradition, focus on 163–4
 - trust in
 - importance of 439–40
 - variations in 439–40, 443
 - advertising agencies
 - advertiser-client relationships 498–502
 - corporate structure, and 508–9
 - exclusive or multiple agencies, use of 510–11
 - forms of 502–3
 - global influences on, study 502–16
 - headquarters involvement in 509, 511
 - Japanese model 499–502
 - strategy formulation role 511
 - global influences on, study
 - analysis 505–13
 - brand consistency 512–16
 - limitations 516
 - research design and method 501–7
 - global network trends 173, 175, 497–8, 500–501
 - organizational practice, and 24–6, 497–8
 - recession, influences on 167, 173
- advertising content see art and design; non-verbal content
- advertising expenditure
 - digital advertising 398–9
 - online advertising 303
 - SMCR model of communication, and 22
 - social media 398–9
 - US trends 20–21, 403
- advertising research see also research
 - content analysis
 - advertising development research 203
 - advertising effectiveness research 203–4
 - background 201–2
 - challenges 227

- consumer as researcher concept 293–4
- country and national culture, and 281–2
- cultural factors, as focus 6, 61
- digital technology/ media 279–80, 283–96
- equivalence tests 7–8, 15–16, 205, 210–14
- focus of 161–2, 203–4
- grounded theory approach 158–60
- hybrid-level theories, and 280–81
- implementation phase 214–26
 - data analysis 225–6
 - depth interviews 217–18
 - design 204, 219–21
 - focus groups 215–16, 218–19
 - methods 158–60, 203–4, 209–10, 215–17, 223–5
 - non-verbal content 220, 222–3
 - response bias 220–23, 239–40
 - translation 7–8, 15–16, 220–23, 237
- influences on 28–9, 217, 219, 225, 227
- international advertising research
 - differences from domestic research 283
 - digital technology, and 279–80, 283–96
 - implementation issues 214–15
 - inter-media communication 288–9, 292
 - methodologies 281–3
 - micro-level and hybrid theories, and 280–81
 - mobile communication 287–8, 291–2
 - research organizations 206–7, 215
 - social communication 286–7, 290–92
 - transmissive communication 285–6
 - word-of-mouth marketing 287
- methods
 - qualitative 158–60, 203–4, 209–10, 215–17
 - quantitative 216
 - student v.s. non-student studies 8, 16–17
 - micro-level theories, and 280–81
 - online advertising 304, 310–14, 319–21
 - planning phase
 - background motivations 207–8
 - data collection, importance of 205–6, 209–10
 - global campaigns, establishing need for 208–9
 - for new country launches 208–9
 - for new product launches 208–9
 - preliminary research 208
 - purpose 201–4, 227
 - recession, influences of 166–7
 - research supplier, choice of 206–7
 - strategy development research 203
 - trends 158–60, 201–2, 282
 - types of 203–4
- age, of consumers
 - social media usage, influence on 413–15
 - trust in advertising, and 442
- Ahuvia, Aaron 49
- Aiken, K.D. 442–3
- Albers-Miller, N.D. 232
- Alden, D.L. 281
- allocentrism 35–6
- ambiguity, tolerance for
 - probability markers 379, 381–3
 - in Belgium and Croatia study 390–95
 - brand attitude, and 390–95
 - pledges and hedges 390–93
 - product/ service involvement, and 393–5
 - purchase intention, and 390–95
- American DaMei Tobacco 147
- American Marketing Association 207
- An, D. 315
- analytic thought, and cultural psychology 112–13, 118–19, 123–4, 128
- ancient civilizations, influence on cultural variation 112–13
- Anderson, E. 439
- Ansari, Ansim 295
- Applebee's 432
- Areni, C.S. 380, 382

- art and design, cultural differences in analytic vs. holistic thought, and 118–19
 artistic impressions 121–2 complexity in visual representation 122–3 foreground/ background contrast 121–2 fuzziness and flatness 121–2 landscapes, portrayal of 122–3 linear perspective 119–20, 122
 portraiture 121
- Ashkanasy, N. 76
- assertiveness, as cultural value 68, 102 conceptual culture-based model of 105–6
 high/ low-scoring countries 74–5
 trust in advertising, and 449–52
- attention patterns 118–19
- authority changes in, influence on cultural values 99–101
 horizontal vs. vertical values 456–9 traditional vs. secular-rational 99–101
- autonomy, effective / intellectual 96–8
- Baack, Daniel W. 307–8
- back-translation processes 7–8, 15–16, 221–3, 355
- Bakhtin, Mikhail 142
- Barnard, P. 216
- Batra, R. 281
- Baumgartner, H. 7, 214, 220
- Becker, Jan-Michael 241
- Belgium, advertising in
 probability markers
 ambiguity, tolerance for 390–95
 brand attitude, and 390–95
 involvement, measurement of 388–95 purchase intention, and 390–95
 study 383–95
 uncertainty avoidance 379–80
- Belk, R.W. 144, 211, 404
- Benson, Carlton 137
- Berney-Reddish, I.A. 380, 382
- Berry, J.W. 211
- Bhat, Subodh 294–5
- bilingualism see under language
- Bishop, Melissa M. 245–6
- Blythe, J. 159
- BMW Mini 509
- Boddewyn, J. 485
- Bodur, M. 75
- Bonifield, C. 329
- Borden, N.H. 399
- Boush, D.M. 442–3
- brands see also global brands brand alliances 20 brand attitude, and probability markers 390–95 brand placement, research considering 29 customer need, importance of 481 uniformity, need for 498
- Branthwaite, A. 216
- Brent, Simon 431
- Briley, D.A. 459
- British American Tobacco (BAT)
 147–50
- British East India Company 138–40
- British Wales Tobacco 147
- Brown, J. 327
- Bruner, Jerome 110
- Buddhism 112–13, 115, 125
- Burton, S. 343
- Bush, V.D. 409
- buzz marketing 325
- Callahan, Ewa 307
- Callow, M. 31
- Canada, advertising in online advertising 318
 perspective, influences of 120, 126–7
- Carlsberg 367–77
- Cathey, A. 480
- cause-related marketing 429–30
- Cavusgil, S.T. 488, 490
- Caywood, C. 476–7
- census and pseudo-census sampling 234
- Chandrasekara, A. 282–3
- chat rooms 219
- Chen, Ting-Chen 245
- Cheon, H.J. 29, 312
- Cheung, M.S. 328
- children, advertising to 159, 204
- Chin, W.W. 362–4

- China
- advertising agencies, global strategy study 502–13
 - advertising in
 - 'calendar' advertising (yuefanpai) 144–6, 148
 - cigarette cards and tobacco advertising 146–8
 - Civil War, influence on 150–52
 - development of 144–5
 - displays, signs and billboards 145–6
 - e-WOM, motivations for 345
 - fashion industry 148–9, 151–2
 - foreign, resistance to 149–52
 - individualism and collectivism in 35
 - narrative forms 146
 - political movements, influence of 150–51
 - print media forms 145
 - product boycotts 149–51
 - radio and cinema 145–6
 - television 400
 - Western successes in 146–8
 - women, as targets for 148–9, 151–2
 - Cantonese love song 149–50
 - Chinese philosophy, influence of 112–13
 - consumer culture, Western influences 145–9
 - resistance to 149–51, 153
 - corporate reputation, study 355–60
 - corporate social responsibility 355, 368–72
 - likeability 355, 368–72
 - named competence 355
 - quality 355, 368–72
 - e-WOM campaigns in 343, 345
 - ethnic minorities, research role 239
 - foreign trade
 - development, influences on 137–41
 - global influence, trends 435
 - resistance to 138–40, 149–53
 - trade deficit, growth of 140–41
 - literacy levels in 144
 - market socialism, patterns of 137, 152–3
 - newspapers and magazines, development in 145
 - online advertising in 317
 - 'saving face,' importance 212
 - Shanghai
 - advertising trends in 145–8
 - consumer culture of, development 142–5
 - contrasts in 142
 - decadence in 142–4, 151–2
 - fashion advertising 148–9, 151–2
 - foreign product boycotts 149–51
 - historical development 141–5
 - international settlement of 141–2
 - retailing, role of 143–4
 - Western influences on 141–5
 - women, and advertising 148–9, 151–2
 - Chirkov, V.I. 458–9
 - Chiu, H.C. 335
 - Cho, B. 27
 - Cho, C.H. 29, 312
 - Choi, I. 119, 315–16
 - Christianity 125
 - cigarette cards, Chinese advertising on 146–7
 - cinema advertising 29, 145–6
 - cities, cultural influences of 122–3
 - Clark, I. 220, 461–2
 - Coca Cola 43, 423
 - Cochran, Sherman 149
 - coding 314
 - code-switching, in bilingual advertising 245–6
 - focused and initial coding 168–9
 - in grounded theory approach 168–9
 - Coffey, Steve 295
 - Cohen, D. 126–7, 214
 - Cole, C. 329
 - Coleman, James S. 291
 - Colgate Palmolive 43
 - collectivism
 - advertising message, relevance to 27
 - behavioral differences 464–6
 - collectivist countries, examples 32
 - as cultural dimension 31–2, 65
 - Project GLOBE on 68, 71–3, 102
 - e-WOM campaigns, and 343–5
 - gender differences 455–66
 - globalization, and 35

- high vs. low cultural contextuality, and 33
- horizontal and vertical dimensions 33–4, 456–9
 - advertising implications 466–8
 - horizontal collectivism 456–9
 - studies of 459–66
 - vertical collectivism 456–9
- idiocentrism and allocentrism 35–6
- in-group collectivism 68, 71–3, 102, 445, 449–52
- individualism, and 32–3, 65, 71–3, 93
- institutional collectivism 68, 71–3, 102, 445, 449–52
- measurement scales 461–2
- national-cultural values, influence on 49–50
- in online advertising 312–13, 315, 317
- relevance, in advertising research studies 24
- situational collectivism 34–5
- trust in advertising, and 448–52
- communication see also GIMC; IMC
 - advertising as means of 21
 - digital advertising, and 309
 - inter-media communication 288–9, 292
 - mobile communication 287–8, 291–2
 - social communication 286–7
 - transmissive communication 285–6
- literacy, of consumers 478
- online advertising, style in 308–9
- research content analysis 28–9
- SMCR model of 22–31
- community
 - loss of sense of 430
 - loyalty, influence of 52
 - third places, role in 430–33
- comparability see equivalency
- competition
 - global, business expansion role 20
 - trends 477
- conference posters 123
- conformity see collectivism
- Confucianism 112–13, 115
- conservatism 96–8
- constant comparison, grounded theory approach 159–60
- consumer behavior
 - conceptual equivalence 211–12
 - cultural customization effect 316–18, 320
 - data collection 222
 - digital technology, influence on 279–80
 - ethnocentrism 242
 - gender differences 464–5
 - influences on 90–91
 - national culture, influence on 282
 - online advertising, and 315–19
 - passivity 424–5
 - research content analysis 30–31
 - social media advertising, influence of 406
 - socio-economic influences on 404–5
 - studies of 166–7
 - theories of 6
- consumer culture theory 43
 - globalization, and 44–5
 - homogenization of culture 44–5
- consumers
 - age of, relevance 305, 413–15, 442
 - audience fragmentation, influences of 477–8
 - brand attitude, and probability markers 390–95
 - communication literacy of 478
 - consumer as researcher concept 293–4
 - customer domain specific values 51–3
 - education level 237–8, 442–3, 478
 - income of, relevance 443
 - marketing strategies, changing responses to 476
 - for online advertising 305, 314–19
 - purchase intention 390–95
 - retention of, importance 473
 - targeted marketing 477–8
- content analysis see research content analysis
- context, cultural influences on 113–14, 116–19, 162–3
 - individualism vs. collectivism 33
 - non-verbal content 162–3

- online advertising, in 307, 309, 311, 320–21
- research content analysis 24–5, 27, 30–31, 37
- convenience sampling 224, 234, 242–3
- Cooper, P. 216, 217
- corporate reputation
 - attractiveness 355–6, 361–2
 - benefits 353–4
 - competence 355–6, 368, 371
 - corporate social responsibility 355–6, 361–2, 371
 - globalization, and 354
 - likeability 355–6, 371–2
 - measurement model for 353, 355
 - performance 355–6, 361–2, 368, 371
 - quality 355–6, 361–2, 371–2
 - studies of 353, 358, 360–72
 - limitations 372–3
 - partial least square analysis 357–60
- corporate social responsibility
 - cause-related marketing, and 429
 - corporate reputation, influence on 355–6, 361–2, 371
- corrective advertising 25
- cosmopolitanism 51–2
- Costely, Carooyn 238, 282
- Craig, C.S. 7, 213, 283, 489–90
- credibility see trust
- Crispin, Porter + Bogusky 510
- Croatia, advertising in
 - probability markers, study
 - ambiguity, tolerance for 390–95
 - brand attitude, and 390–95
 - involvement, measurement of 388–95
 - purchase intention, and 390–95
 - study of 383–95
 - uncertainty avoidance, relevance to 379–80
- Cropp, Fritz 312
- Crow, Carl 144, 150
- Cultural Darwinism 426–7
- cultural dimensions see also
 - collectivism; individualism
 - cross-cultural advertising research, in 88–90, 280–81
 - and globalization 281
 - Hall on high vs. low cultural contextuality 32–3, 162–3
 - online advertising, applicability to 307, 309, 311, 320–21
 - research content analysis 24–5, 27, 30–31, 37
- Hofstede on 8
 - applications of 162, 344
 - cultural practices, and 91
 - features 31–2, 47–8, 64–6, 93–5, 306–7
 - limitations 65, 94
 - masculinity vs. femininity 48, 93
 - online advertising, applicability to 307–8, 310, 315, 320–21, 344
 - orientation, long/short-term 68, 75–7, 93–4
 - other theories, compared with 67–77, 98–9, 101
 - power distance 48, 65, 68–70, 93–5, 344
 - probability markers, and 378–9
 - research content analysis 24–5, 27, 30–31, 37
 - uncertainty avoidance 48, 65, 68, 70–71, 93–5, 102, 314
- Inglehart on 47, 53, 91, 99–101
- cultural factors, influences of see also
 - cultural dimensions; cultural values; globalization
 - on advertising media used 29
 - on advertising type used 5, 21
 - multiple simultaneous influences 35–6
 - receivers 29–31
 - time, synchronicity 50
 - Westernized values 35, 42, 48, 141–5, 161–2
- cultural narratives 129
- cultural products 111
 - analytical vs. holistic thought, relevance to 113–14, 118–19
 - perception differences, East vs. West 123–4
 - view of self, and 123–4
- cultural psychology, definition 110
- cultural psychology, differences
 - advertising, and
 - importance of 485
 - research 205, 218–19
 - trust, influence on 442–9

- ambiguity, tolerance of 390–95
- analytical vs. holistic thought
 - 112–13, 118–19, 123–4, 128
- ancient civilizations, influence of
 - 112–13
- art and design, in
 - analytic vs. holistic thought and
 - 118–19
 - artistic impressions 121–2
 - complexity in visual
 - representation 122–3
 - foreground/ background contrast
 - 121–2
 - fuzziness and flatness 121–2
 - landscapes, portrayal of 122–3
 - linear perspective 119–20, 122
 - portraiture 121
- attention patterns 118–19
- children, advertising role/ influence
 - of 204
- cognitive differences 113–15
- conference posters 123
- context 33, 112–14, 116–19, 162–3
- corporate websites, in 29, 122–3,
 - 127–8
- within country differences vs.
 - between country differences
 - 281–2
- cross-cultural influences on 425
- cultural practices, and 91–2, 103–5
- emotional influences
 - e-WOM/ word of mouth
 - marketing 328–30, 334–6,
 - 342–5
 - studies of 116–17, 124–5, 344
 - focus 33, 113–14, 118–19, 162–3
 - geographical subcultures in 238
 - globalization, understanding 20
 - independence vs. interdependence
 - 111, 114–15, 123–5
 - individualism vs. culturalism 31–5
 - motivational differences 115–16
 - online advertising, in 305–6,
 - 314–19
 - creative strategies 312–13
 - cultural customization effect
 - 316–18, 320
 - language effect 318–19
 - perceptual differences 113–14,
 - 119–20
 - perspective
 - first-person vs. third-person
 - perspective 126–7
 - linear perspective 119–20, 122
 - in sampling 231–2
 - self, views of 111, 114–15
 - cultural products, and 123–4
 - emotional influences 116–17,
 - 124–5
 - individualism vs. collectivism
 - 125–6, 456–68
 - self-esteem, and 32, 114–16
 - social desirability response bias, and
 - 282–3
 - transmission and dissemination,
 - influences on 128–9
 - verifying 8, 16
 - vertical vs. horizontal influences 32–4
 - well-being, and 116–17
 - cultural transmission and
 - dissemination
 - influences on 128–9
 - methods of 128–9
 - myths and folktales 129
 - cultural values see also collectivism;
 - individualism
 - assertiveness 68, 74–5, 102, 105–6
 - authority, traditional vs. secular-
 - rational 47, 99–101
 - autonomy, effective/ intellectual 96–8
 - classification of 64–7
 - community loyalty 52
 - conservatism 96–8
 - cosmopolitanism 51–2
 - cultural ideas/ products 111, 123–4
 - cultural practices, and 91–2, 103–5
 - customer domain specific values
 - 51–3
 - desired vs. desirable 91
 - egalitarianism 96–8
 - embedded nature of 111–12, 117–18
 - enthusiasm 344
 - environmentalism 52–3
 - ethnocentrism 52
 - gender differences 442–3, 455, 464–8
 - masculinity vs. femininity 48, 65,
 - 68, 73–8, 102, 456–9, 463–4
 - persuasiveness 467–8
 - status appeals 467–8
 - trust 442–3

- gender egalitarianism 68, 73–4, 102, 445
- general values 50–51
- global homogenization 44–6, 48–53, 92, 425
- harmony 96–8
- hierarchy 96–8, 456–68
- horizontal vs. vertical values 456–9
 - advertising implications 465–8
 - studies of 459–66
- independent societies 48–9, 111, 114–15, 123–5
- Inglehart on 47, 53, 91, 99–101
- innovation 48
- interdependent societies 48–9, 111, 114–15, 123–4
- LOV scale of 64
- mastery 96–8
- materialism 47, 51, 404, 423
- meaning of 64–5
- online consumers 305–6, 314–20
- orientation
 - future 68, 75–6, 102, 444–5, 449
 - humane/ relationship 68, 75, 102, 445
 - long/ short term 65, 68, 75–7, 93–4
 - performance 68, 76–7, 102, 105, 445
- postmaterialism 53
- power distance 48, 65, 68–70, 93–5, 344
- Project GLOBE, used in 66–7
- religion, and 112–13, 115, 125
- respect 344
- Schwartz's survey of values 50–51, 66–7, 91, 94, 96–9, 101, 307–8
- subgroup values, importance of 238
- survival 99–101
- susceptibility to normative influence (SNI) 53
- tradition 163–4
- trust in advertising, relevance to 442–3, 442–9
- uncertainty avoidance 48, 65, 68, 70–71, 93–5, 102
- well-being 99–101
- Western influences on 35, 42, 48, 141–5, 161–2
- culture, generally
 - advertising, impact on 425–7
 - characteristics of 88–90
 - interconnectedness of 424–5
 - objective criteria 88–90
 - sharing, peacemaking influence of 427–9
 - subjective criteria 88–90
 - 'culture à the mind' 111–12, 117, 127–8
- Curran, C.M. 21
- customers see consumer behavior; consumers
- Dalal, R. 245
- Darwinism, cultural/ international 426–7
- data analysis 225–6 see also partial least squares path modeling
 - bias, adjustment for 226
 - data comparability and equivalence 205
 - variables, analysis of 226
- data collection see also sampling
 - attitudinal data 222
 - behavioral data 222
 - data analysis 225–6
 - database costs, decreasing 477
 - equivalence tests 7–8, 15–16, 210–13, 221–3
 - instrument design 219–21
 - instrument translation 221–3
 - non-verbal content 222–3
 - response bias 220–23
 - socio-economic data 222
- Dawson, Chester 511, 512
- de Jong, M.G. 47
- de Luque, Mary Sully 71
- Delirium Tremens 377
- Dellarocas, C.N. 341
- Delre, S. 332
- Dentsu 497, 500, 510
- dependence see also independence
 - cultural values 455–68
 - gender differences 455–6
- depth interviews 217–18
- Derbaix, C.M. 329
- developing countries see emerging/ developing markets
- Dholakia, Utpal M. 295
- Diamantopoulos, Adamantios 330
- Dickson, P.R. 488

- Diehl, Sandra 77, 105, 238, 243
- digital advertising see also online advertising
- audience, concept of 292–3
 - consumer as researcher concept 292–3
 - cultural value theories, application to 290–92
 - differences from traditional advertising 280
 - expenditure on, trends 398–9
 - inter-media communication 288–9, 292
 - measuring, methods for 292–6
 - media substitution hypothesis 292
 - mobile communication 287–8, 291–2
 - niche theory 292
 - online product reviews 289
 - research 279–80, 286–96
 - social capital theory 291
 - social communication 286–7
 - social media 286–7, 398–9
 - social network theory 291
 - transmissive communication 285–6
 - uses and gratifications perspective 290–92
 - word-of-mouth marketing 287
- Digital Life (survey) 398
- digital technology/ media see also social media
- advertising research, and 279–80, 286–96
 - age of users, and 305
 - consumer behavior, influence on 279–80
 - democratization of 398
 - emerging/ developing markets, benefits for 398
 - media substitution hypothesis 292
 - virtual global village 284, 286–7, 305
- Dikötter, Frank 148–9
- Dodds, W.B. 388–9
- Doran, K.B. 345
- Douglas, S.P. 7, 213, 283, 489–90
- Dowling, Grahame R. 353
- Drakatos, Nikolaos 291
- Dubai Internet City 402
- Duncan, T. 476–7
- Dutch East India Company 138–9
- e-WOM (electronic word-of-mouth marketing)
- anonymity of 333–4
 - campaign development 339–42, 345
 - campaign evaluation 341–2
 - consumers, influences on 325–7, 337–8
 - credibility 336–8
 - cultural differences in 342–5
 - development of 325–6, 333
 - differences from traditional WOM 333–8
 - emotion, diffusion of 334–6
 - features of 326, 333–4
 - importance of 326–7, 338–9
 - individualism vs. collectivism 343–5
 - misinterpretation, and 344–5
 - motives for use of 335
 - objectives of 339–40
 - opinion leaders, role 340–41
 - promotion of 342–3
- East vs. West see cultural psychology, differences
- Eberl, M. 353, 362
- economic development
- advertising, influence on 5, 399–401
 - research trends 399–400
 - social media usage, influences on 413–16
- education 478
- sampling issues connected with 237–8
 - teachers and cross-cultural comparison 96–7
 - trust in advertising, and 442–3
- egalitarianism see also gender egalitarianism
- Schwartz on 96–8
- Egipt, Harry 186–7
- Eisend, M. 315, 443
- Elaboration Likelihood Model 381, 393
- Elinder, E. 483
- emerging/ developing markets
- advertising, influence on 399–401, 404
 - research trends 399–400
- digital technology, benefits for 398
- Internet penetration rates 303, 309–10

- meaning 398
- Middle East, progress in 401–2, 414
- sampling equivalency issues 237–8, 246–7
- technology uptake, trends 303, 309–10, 398, 402, 414
- emotion
 - cultural psychology differences, influences on 116–17, 124–5, 344
 - in word-of-mouth advertising 328–30, 334–6, 342–5
- Emrich, Cynthia G. 73–4
- Engel, J.F. 478
- environmentalism 52–3
- equivalency 7–8, 241
 - calibration equivalence 212–13
 - category equivalence 212, 222
 - conceptual equivalence 211
 - construct equivalence 7, 210–12, 222
 - establishing, difficulties 205
 - functional equivalence 210–11, 222, 292
 - importance of 210
 - measure equivalence 212–14
 - metric equivalence 7, 213–14
 - research content analysis 15–16
 - scalar equivalence 7, 213–14
 - status symbols 211
 - translation equivalence 213, 221–3
- Ericsson 318
- Estonia
 - advertising, generally
 - changing trends 190–95
 - contradictions in 185, 195
 - development of 184–90
 - Harry Egipt, influence of 186–7
 - political influences on 182, 187–92
 - department store advertising (Tallinn Kaubamaja)
 - anniversary campaign 194
 - awards for 191
 - brand image, development 188–93
 - changing trends 190–95
 - customer loyalty schemes 189, 192
 - development of 184–90
 - digital media 194–5
 - foreign competition 189–90
 - outdoor media 192
 - print media 192–3
 - privatization, and 188
 - renovation/ expansion programs 190–91
 - repositioning 188–9, 192
 - social position of 184
 - store history 183–4
 - television and radio 184–7, 193–4
- European Union Accession 190–92
- retail trade, generally
 - cooperatives, importance of 182
 - ethnic influence on 188
 - foreign-based retailers, competition with 189–90
 - history of 182–6
 - political influences over 182–92
 - special sales campaigns 192
 - 'turg' trading 188
- Soviet occupation, history of 182
- ethnic minorities
 - retail trade, influence on 188
 - sampling issues connected with 238–9
 - trust in advertising, and 442
- ethnocentrism 52
- European Society for Opinion and Marketing Research (ESOMAR) 207, 215
- evangelist marketing 325
- Ewing, M.T. 7
- Facebook 92, 195, 286, 290
- facial expression, influences of 124–5
- Faiola, Anthony 317
- Fairbank, J.K. 140
- Fam, K. 4
- Fay, B. 332
- femininity, and cultural values 48, 65, 68, 102, 456–9
- individualism vs. collectivism 463–8
- Project GLOBE, in 73–4
- studies of 463–4
- Fischer, R. 220
- focus, cultural influences on 113–14, 116–17
- focus groups 215–16, 218–19
- folktales 129
- Fong, J. 343
- foreign trade, East-West, development of 137–41
- Fornell, C. 269, 358

- Frank, G.R. 25
 Fraser, C. 485
 Friedman, Thomas 427
 Fujimoto, Takahito 512–13
- Gabriel, S. 456
 Gardner, W.L. 456
 Geertz, Clifford 110
 Gelfand, M. 49, 459–60
- gender differences
 advertising implications 442–3, 466–8
 behavioral differences 464–5
 collectivism vs. individualism 455–9 dependence and interdependence 455–6
 horizontal vs. vertical values 455–9
 masculinity vs. femininity 48, 65, 68, 73–4, 102, 456–9, 463–4
 persuasiveness 467–8
 self-related subjective gender 458–9 status appeals 467–8
 studies of 455–6
 trust 442–3
- gender egalitarianism 68, 73–4, 102,
 445
- Ger, Güliz 211
- Germany
 corporate reputation study 360–72 motor companies, brand strategies
 514–15
- Gevorgyan, Gennadi 317
- Ghosn, Carlos 513
- Gilbert, F.W. 409
- GIMC (global integrated marketing communications) 6, 489–91
- Glaser, B. 158–60
- Glaser, Evelyn 318
- global brands
 advertising research 208–9 benefits of 42–3
 brand consistency 512–16
 cause-related marketing 429–30 charitable giving 429–30 community building, and 429–30 consumer relationships with 43–5 cultural influence of 42, 281, 308, 423–4, 426–8
 global identity and citizenship 43–4, 428
- homogenization of 424 management strategies, study 505–16 neo-third places, as 430–33 retailers, power of 477
 symbolism of 44
 Western basis of 42
- global consumer culture 6 acculturation, differences in 44–5 complex relationships of 44–5 consumer value homogenization
 45–6, 48–53, 92, 425 criticisms of 428–9 domain specific values 51–3 global consumer segments, analysis criteria 42, 92
- global digital consumer culture 290, 296–7
- global identity, and 43–4
- individualism vs. collectivism, in 48–50
- motivations for 45–53
- national-cultural values, and 46–50
- peace-making nature of 428–9
- Project GLOBE, relevance to 92
- social media, and 286–7
- survival vs. self-expression 47
- television advertising 400
- temporal influences on 50
- transmissive communication, and 285–6
- global integrated marketing communications (GIMC) 6, 489–91
- globalization
 advertising, and benefits and disadvantages 423–4, 427–9, 433
 research on 37–8
 connectedness of 20, 424–5 consumption power, trends in 20 corporate reputation, and 354 cultural homogenization 44–6, 48–53, 92, 425, 433–4 cultural interdependency, and 424–5 ‘glocal’ identities 20, 44–5
 individualism vs. collectivism 35 outsourcing trends, impact of 435 peace-making influence 427–9
 political influences on 20

- unique cultural identities created by 308
- virtual global village 284, 286–7, 305
- GLOBE see Project GLOBE
- globalization 20, 44–5, 474, 486–7
- Goldenberg, Jacob 332
- Gould, S.J. 487
- Greek philosophy, influence on cultural difference 112–13
- Greenbook* (American Marketing Association) 207, 215
- Grein, Andreas F. 511, 516
- Groh, R. 4
- grounded theory approach, in advertising research
 - applications of 158–9
 - constant comparison 159–60
 - development 158–60
 - Japanese study
 - coding, initial/ focused 168–9
 - conclusions 174–6
 - data collection method 167–8
 - limitations 176–7
 - network diagramming 169
 - theoretical sampling 159–60
 - theoretical saturation 159–60
- Gunz, A. 126–7
- Guomindang* (New Life Movement, China) 151
- Gupta, Vipin 443–4
- Gurau, C. 490

- Ha, Louisa 284
- Haghirian, P. 288
- Hakuhodo 497, 500, 510
- Hall, Edward T.
 - on high vs. low cultural contextuality 32–3, 162–3
 - individualism vs. collectivism 33
 - online advertising, applicability to 307, 309, 311, 320–21
 - research content analysis 24–5, 27, 30–31, 37
- Hambleton, R.K. 221
- Han, S.M. 345
- Han, S.P. 35
- Hanges, Paul J. 443–4
- hard-sell advertising 160–64, 170, 175–6
- Harkness, J.A. 220–21
- harmony, as cultural value 96–8
- Harris, R.J. 380
- Hasegawa, Kazumi 164
- Haythornthwaite, Caroline 291
- Heath, C. 330
- hedges 376–7, 380, 383
 - brand attitude and purchase intention 390–95
 - utilitarian or hedonic services, and 382–3
- hedonic services, and advertising probability markers 376–8, 382–3
 - study 388–95
- Hekmat, F. 241
- Hennig-Thurau, T. 335
- Henry, Gary T. 235–6
- Hermeking, M. 308
- hierarchy
 - horizontal vs. vertical cultural values 96–8, 456–9
 - advertising implications 466–8
 - studies on 459–66
 - Swartz on 96–8
- Himmelweit, Hilde 292
- Hirose, Morikazu 289
- Hite, R. 485
- Höck, Claudia 268, 270
- Hofstede, G.
 - dimensions of culture theory 8
 - applications of 162, 344
 - cultural practices, and 91
 - features 31–2, 47–8, 64–6, 93–5, 306–7
 - individualism vs. collectivism 32, 65, 93
 - limitations 65, 94
 - masculinity vs. femininity 48, 93
 - online advertising, applicability to 307–8, 310, 315, 320–21, 344
 - orientation, long/short-term 68, 75–7, 93–4
 - other theories, compared with 67–77, 98–9, 101
 - power distance 48, 65, 68–70, 93–5, 344
 - probability markers, and 378–9
 - research content analysis 24–5, 27, 30–31, 37
 - temporal issues, study 75–6

- uncertainty avoidance 48, 65, 68, 70–71, 93–5, 102, 314
- Hogan, J.E. 332
- holistic thought, in cultural psychology 112–13, 118–19, 123–4, 128
- Honda 510
- Hong Kong 125
- horizontal cultural dimensions see collectivism; individualism
- House, Robert J. 445
- Huang, C.T. 333
- Huh, J. 313, 442
- Hutchinson, G.E. 292
- Hynes, Geraldine 318
- IBM attitude survey 69, 93
- idiocentrism 35–6
- IMC (integrated marketing communications) see also standardization
 - audience orientation 480
 - background to 474–5
 - brands, as focal point of 481
 - as business process 481
 - conceptualization of 479–82
 - contingency approach 489–91
 - ‘coordinated’ marketing communications concept 479–80
 - database-centered communications 482
 - development of 474–9
 - differentiated communications 481–2
 - direct marketing 480
 - drivers for 475–6
 - efficiency, influence of 475–6
 - GIMC (global integrated marketing communications) 489–91
 - impact assessment 480
 - importance of 474–9, 489
 - ‘integrated’ marketing communications concept 479
 - market-based knowledge, importance of 491
 - message integration 480–81
 - ‘one voice’ concept 479–80
 - organizational structure, and 487–8, 490
 - planning integration 481
 - principles 479–82
 - purpose 489
 - relationship fostering communications 482
 - response goals 480–81
 - spread of 473
 - studies of 479–82
 - tools for 482–9
 - unified communications 481–2
- independence
 - gender differences, and 455–6
 - globalization, and 424–5
 - interdependence, and 111, 114–15, 123–5
- independent self
 - horizontal vs. vertical values 456–9
 - advertising implications 466–8
 - studies of 459–66
- India 435
- individualism
 - advertising message, relevance to 27
 - collectivism, and 32–3, 65, 71–3, 93
 - as cultural dimension 31–2, 65, 68
 - Project GLOBE on 68–73
 - e-WOM campaigns, and 343–5
 - gender differences 455–6
 - globalization, and 35
 - high vs. low cultural contextuality, and 33
 - horizontal and vertical dimensions 33–4, 456–9
 - advertising implications 466–8
 - horizontal individualism 456–9
 - studies of 459–66
 - vertical individualism 456–9
 - idiocentrism and allocentrism 35–6
 - individualist countries, examples 32
 - measurement scales 461–2
 - national-cultural values, influence on 49–50
 - in online advertising 307, 312–13, 315
 - relevance, in advertising research studies 24
 - self-esteem and self-reliance, focus on 32
 - situational individualism 34–5
- information classification 311
- information cues 311, 313, 315–16
- information technology, influence on IMC 475

- Inglehart, Ronald on cultural practices 91 on national-cultural values 47, 53, 91, 99–101
 other theories, compared with 101 innovation, as cultural value 48 integrated marketing communications see IMC interdependence
 gender differences 455–6
 globalization, and 424–5 independence, and 111, 114–15, 123–5 interdependent self horizontal vs. vertical values 455–9
 advertising implications 466–8
 studies of 459–66 international advertising see advertising, generally; advertising research; IMC
 International Cultural Darwinism
 426–7
International Journal of Advertising Research
 research content analysis 22–31
International Marketing Review research bias 240
 Internet see also digital advertising; online advertising; social media
 anonymity of 325–6 consumer-advertiser relationships 284–5 cultural boundaries, impact on 305 emotion, diffusion through 334–6 instantaneity and flexibility, benefits of 304–5
 internet-enabled TV 291 penetration rates 303, 309–10, 398, 402 public/ private nature of 297 research, use for 28–9, 217, 219, 293–4
 benefits of 246, 249–50
 consumer as researcher concept 293–4
 limitations 225
 online product reviews 289
 technological development level 309–10
 virtual global village 284, 286–7, 305
 IPSOS ASI advertising testing 206
 Italy 425
 Izawa, M. 330, 335–6
 Jackson, M.G. 476
 Janson, Marius 318
 Japan
 advertising agencies advertiser–client model 499–502 corporate management structures 507–9 global strategies 497–8, 502–13 network trends 173, 175
 advertising in
 brand consistency 512–16
 bubble economy, influence of 165–7, 170–72, 174–6
 Chinese product boycotts 150
 coding, initial/ focused 163–4
 cultural values 120, 123–4, 126–7, 162 economic influences on 160–61, 165–6 grounded theory study 174–7
 information cues 311, 313 informational / transformational approaches 164
 lost decade, influence of 165–7, 171–2, 174–6 mobile phone advertising in 288 motor companies, brand strategies 510–13
 non-verbal content 170–71
 Olympic Games (2002) media coverage 123–4 online advertising study 311 perspective, first-person vs. third-person 126–7 perspective in art 120 product merit/ status appeal 164 soft-sell vs. hard-sell approach 160–64, 170, 175–6
 studies of 163–4
 success measurement, shifts in 172–3 talent, use of 174–5
 television advertising 171, 173–5

- traditional approaches to 160,
 170, 172–3, 175
 US advertising, compared with 160, 163–4, 170
 Western influences on 161–2
 Javidan, M. 63, 66, 71
 Jeong, J. 474, 486
 Johal, Parminder 305
 Johnson, E. 480–81
 Johnston, Kevin 305
Journal of Advertising 22–31, 240
Journal of Advertising Research 22–31,
 161–2
*Journal of Current Issues and Research
 in Advertising* 22–31
 Ju-Pak, Kuen-Hee 311–13

 Kabasakal, H. 75
kaipan (Chinese narrative songs) 146
 Kaldenberg, Dennis 241
 Kanso, A. 485
 Katz, Elihu 327, 331
 Kaynak, E. 25
 Keller, E. 332
 Kiely, Michael 476
 Kiley, David 512
 Kim, H.S. 125–6
 Kim, I. 476
 Kim, S.H. 312, 315
 Kitchen, P.J. 25, 475, 483
 Kityama, Shinobu 48, 114–15, 123–4
 Kluckhohn, F.R. 76, 102–3
 Kolsaker, Ailsa 291 Korea, advertising in cultural influences on 119
 e-WOM, motivations for using 345 individualism vs. collectivism 34–5, 125–6
 mobile phone advertising 288 online advertising studies in 307, 311–12, 315–16
 Korgaonkar, Pradeep K. 406
 Koslow, Scott 238, 282
 Kraft 43
 Kubovy, M. 119–20

 La Ferle, C. 29
 Laband, David 243
 Lamoreaux, M. 111–12, 117, 123

 language bilingual advertising code-switching 245–6 online advertising, in 308–9, 318–19
 hedges and probability markers 376–8, 380 language power 381
 translation
 back-translation processes 7–8, 15–16, 221–3, 355
 equivalence tests 213, 221–3
 international research, challenges 220–23, 237 variability of 308–9
 Larcker, D.F. 269, 358
 Laroche, M. 343
 Lastovicka, John 242
 Lazarfeld, P.F. 327, 331
 Lee, D. 481–2
 Lee, Leo Ou-fan 144–5
 Leung, K. 226
 Levitt, T. 483–4, 498
 Lievens, F. 331–2
 Lin, Carolyn A. 289, 292, 297
 Link, G.L. 484, 486
 Litvin, S.W. 327, 333
 Liu, B.S.C. 342
 localization see under standardization Lohmöller, Jan-Bernd 254, 256, 264–6 lost decade see under Japan
 Lu, Hanchao 144
 Luna, David 318–19
 Lutz, Richard J. 315
 Lwin, May O. 244

 McDonalds 423–4, 426–30
 Manucharova, Naira 317
 Mao, L.R. 212
 marketing strategies see also e-WOM;
 IMC; standardization advertising agency practice, relevance 25 challenges for 477–8 cross-border marketing 475–6
 importance of 473
 influences on 476–7
 research on 478 target marketing, growth of 477–8 trends in 476–8

- Markus, Hazel 48, 114–15, 123–6
- Martneson, Chris 163
- masculinity, and cultural values 48, 65, 68, 102, 456–9
- individualism vs. collectivism 463–8
- Project GLOBE, in 73–4
- studies of 463–4
- mastery, as cultural value 96–8
- Masuda, T. 112–13, 118–20, 122
- Matei, Sorin A. 317
- materialism 47, 51, 404, 423
- media see also digital technology;
 social media
- communication channels 28–9, 37–8
- consumer trust in 476
- cost increases, impact of 476
- fragmentation, influence of 476–7
- media spillover 284
- research content analysis 28–9, 37–8
- supranational 284
- media substitution hypothesis 292
- Mehta, A. 406
- Melewar, T.C. 488
- memories, in myths and folktales 129
- Menon, A.M. 441
- Mesquita, B. 343
- message, in communication model
- content 27–8
- cultural values, and 27
- research content analysis 26–8
- Microsoft 340–41
- Millan, Elena 243
- Miller, C. 219
- Millward Brown 206–7
- ‘the mind à culture’ 111–12, 117
- analytical vs. holistic messages 113–14, 118–19, 123–4
- independent vs. interdependent messages 113–14, 118–19, 123–4
- Miracle, G.E. 5
- Mitchell, L.A. 25
- Mittal, B. 243, 404–5, 409, 415
- mobile phones
- advertising
- consumer trust in 441
- international advertising 287–8
- online advertising 318, 441
- global usage trends 287, 414
- mobile communication culture 291–2
- privacy concerns 288
- surveys conducted using 241–2
- mobile viral marketing 159
- Möller, J. 315, 443
- Money, Bruce 331
- de Mooij, M.K. 91
- Moon, Y.S. 25
- Morling, B. 111–12, 117, 123
- motivation, as cultural value 114–16
- motor companies
- advertising agency accounts 500
- client relationships 505–16
- advertising expenditure 510
- brand consistency 511–16
- movies, brand/ product placement 29
- Mueller, B. 6, 61, 64–7, 77, 102, 243
- Mulhern, Frank 287
- Mullen, M.R. 212–14
- multinational corporations see also
 global brands
- reducing brand portfolios 42–3
- myths and folktales 129
- Nantel, Jacques 318
- narratives, in advertising 129, 146
- Nathan, Andrew 144
- nations/ nationality
- characteristics of 88–90
- within country vs. between country 282
- meaning 231
- national-cultural values 46–50, 47, 53, 91, 101
- supranational media formats 284
- Neira, L. 214
- Nelson, M.R. 232, 467
- Nelson, R. 485
- New Life Movement (China) 151
- New Zealand, mobile phone advertising in 288
- niche theory 292
- Nintendo 332
- Nisbett, R.E. 112–13
- Nissan 512
- Nokia 318, 341
- non-verbal content
- high and low-context cultures 162–3
- importance of 27–8
- in Japanese advertising 170–71
- research 220, 222–3

- Norenzayan, A. 129
 Nowak, G. 479
 nudity, in advertising 232
 Nutra-Life Cold and Flu Fighter 377
- Okazaki, S. on advertising research 6, 61 on classification of values 64–7 on consumer trust 440–41 on digital advertising 289 on mobile phone advertising 288 on online advertising 312, 440–41
- Olay 377
- Oldenberg, Ray 430–31
- Olive Garden 432–3
- Olympic Games, Japan (2001), media coverage 123–4
- Onkvisit, S. 486–7
- online advertising 249, 284 see also e-WOM advertising expenditure trends 303 banner advertising 315 brand image, and 314
 collectivism 312–13, 315, 317
 communication style 308–9 consumer attitudes to cultural customization effect 316–18, 320 drivers 315–16
 language effect 318–19
 purchase intention, and 406
 trust 440–43, 448–52
 creative strategies 312–13
 cross-cultural issues 303–4 advertising practice, and 310–14 cultural context, high vs. low 307, 309, 311, 320–21
 cultural psychology, differences 305–6, 314–19
 cultural value theories, application to 307–9, 320–21 informational content 310–11 interactivity 312–313 technological development, consideration of 310 entertainment values 315–16
 individualism 307, 312–13, 315, 317 information classification/ cues 311, 313 instantaneity and flexibility, impact of 304–5 internet penetration rates, and 303, 309–10 language, influences on 308–9, 318–19 online product reviews 289
 personalization in 312 pharmaceutical information, and 441–2 research 304, 310–14 inter-firm vs. intra-firm approach 313
 limitations 319–21
 standardization vs. localization of 304–6, 320
 uncertainty avoidance 307, 310–11, 314–15
- opium trade 139–40
 orientation see cultural values
- Overby, J.W. 486
- Oyserman, D. 461–2
- Pae, Jae H. 400
- Paek, H. 232, 307
- Palka, W. 159
- Papavassiliou, N. 488
- Park, C. 481–2
- Park, Taezoon 291
- Parker, P. 338
- partial least squares path modeling (PLS) benefits of 252–3, 264–7, 357 bias 263–4 coded data, use of 266 in corporate reputation, studies of 357–8, 360–72 data characteristics 262, 264–6 errors, reduction of 263–4 evaluation 265, 267–72
 focus of 252–3 goodness of fit criteria 267–8, 363 heterogeneity 270–71 indicators, reflective/ formative 254, 269 key features 261–72
 latent variables, approximation 255–60, 261–4, 268–9 measurement models, reflective/ formative 269–71

- model characteristics 262, 266–7
- model principles 253–60
- multi-group comparisons, pre-requisites for 364, 367
- non-recursive modeling 266–7
- non-response rates, and 264
- popularity of 253, 272
- purpose 268, 272
- sample size, and 264–5
- scales and distribution 265–8
- Smith-Satterthwaite test 267–8, 363
- soft modeling 265–6
- statistical properties 261–4
- structural equations modeling, compared with 252, 261, 263, 266–7, 271–2
- structural models, assessment 271
- two stage approach of 254–60
- uses for 253
- weighting schemes 254–60
- Pawle, J.S. 217
- Peebles, D. 484
- PepsiCo 43, 434
- Perdue Chicken 434
- performance
 - corporate reputation 355–6, 361–2, 368, 371
 - orientation 68, 76–7, 102, 105, 445
 - partial least squares path modeling (PLS) 265
- perspective
 - first-person vs. third-person perspective 126–7
 - linear perspective 119–20, 122
 - uses and gratifications perspective 290–92
- Peters, K. 330
- Peterson, Mark 245–6
- Petty, R.E. 381
- pharmaceuticals, online drug information 441–2
- Phelps, J. 336, 479, 480–81
- Pieters, R. 329
- pledges 376–7, 380, 382
 - brand attitude and purchase intention 390–95
 - utilitarian or hedonic services, and 382–3
- PLS see partial least squares path modeling
- politics, influence on globalization 20
- Pollay, R. 404–5, 409, 415, 423
- portraiture, cultural differences in 121
- postmaterialism 47, 53
- power distance, as cultural value
 - high/ low-scoring countries 70
 - Hofstede on 8, 48, 65, 68–70, 93–5, 344
 - Project GLOBE on 68–70, 102, 445
 - trust in advertising, and 378–9, 448–52
- Preble, John. F. 498
- printing press, invention of 428–9
- probability markers
 - ambiguity, tolerance for 379, 381–3, 390–95
 - background 376–8
 - campaigns using, examples 367–77
 - culture, role of 378–80
 - hedges and pledges 376–7, 380, 382–3, 390–93
 - involvement factors
 - role of 378, 380–81
 - study 383–95
 - language power, and 377–8
 - on products or services
 - differences between 377
 - utilitarian vs. hedonic 376–8, 382–3
 - Project GLOBE model, and 379
 - research on
 - in Belgium and Croatia, comparison 383–95
 - brand attitude, and 390–95
 - generally 377–8
 - limitations 377–8
 - purchase intention, and 390–95
 - stimuli development procedures 383–5
 - study measurement criteria 388–9
 - study methods 383–8
 - standardization vs. adaptation
 - approaches 378
 - uncertainty avoidance, and 378–9
 - probability sampling 235–6
- Proctor & Gamble 43, 88
- products and services
 - brand consistency, and 512–16
 - consumer need, as focal point 481

- hedonic services 376–8, 382–3, 388–95
- ‘me-too’ products 477
- message contextual differences, relevance to 27
- probability markers 376–8, 382–3, 388–95
- product boycotts 149
- product diffusion patterns 27
- product placement 29
- universality, and standardization of advertising 487
- utilitarian services 376–8, 382–3
- Project GLOBE
 - applications of 105–6
 - assertiveness 68, 74–5, 102, 105–6, 444
 - background 101, 103
 - collectivism vs. individualism 104
 - in-group collectivism 68, 71–3, 102, 445
 - institutional collectivism 68, 71–3, 102, 445
 - trust in advertising, and 449–52
 - contributors 62–3, 103
 - cross-level mediated effects model 78
 - cultural values vs. cultural practices 91–2, 103–5
 - culturally-endorsed theory, and 80–82
 - definitions used in 63–4
 - gender egalitarianism 68, 73–4, 102, 445
 - Hofstede’s culture theory, compared 48, 65, 67–77, 93–5, 102
 - implicit motivation theory, and 80–82
 - leadership theory, and 80–82
 - limitations 104
 - methodology 103–4
 - models for
 - cross-level complex fit model 80–82
 - cross-level fit model 78–80
 - cross-level mediated effects model 78–9
 - orientation
 - future 68, 75–6, 102, 444–5
 - humane 75, 102, 445
 - performance 68, 76–7, 102, 445
 - phases of 62
 - power distance 68–70, 102, 445
 - probability markers, and 379
 - purpose 62
 - societal culture, measurement of 63–4
 - study basis 101–2
 - trust in advertising 442–9
 - uncertainty avoidance 68, 70–71, 102, 445
- projective research techniques 217
- Przeworski, A. 222
- psychology, cultural influence on see cultural psychology
- Puffs 434
- purchase intention, influence on advertising probability markers
 - ambiguity, tolerance for 390–95
 - brand attitude, and 390–95
 - social media advertising 404–6
- qualitative research methods 158–60, 203–4, 209–10, 215–17
- quality, and corporate reputation 355–6, 361–2, 371–2
- Quan-Haase, Anabel 290
- quota sampling 235
- racial minorities, and trust in advertising 442
- radio advertising 145–7, 184–5, 442
- Ramaprasad, Jyotica 164
- Ramirez, A. 159
- Rau, Pradeep 498
- receivers
 - attention and comprehension of 30
 - cultural influences on 30–31
 - definition 29–30
 - research content analysis 29–31
- recession, influences of 402–3
 - advertising, in Japan 161–2, 165–7, 171–2, 174
 - advertising agencies 167
 - consumer behavior 166–7
- Reichart, T. 159
- religion 112–13, 115, 125
- research content analysis 22–4, 36–8
 - analytical techniques 7, 12–15
 - back-translation processes 7–8, 15–16, 220–23

- communication channels 28–9, 37–8
- consumer behavior 30–31
- cross-functional research teams 5, 11–12
- cross-national research teams 5, 11–12
- cultural differences, verifying 8, 16
- data collection techniques 5–6, 12–14
- equivalence tests 7–8, 15–16
- geographical scope/ selection
 - rationale 4–5, 10–11, 34, 231–2
 - country focus/ bias 4, 239–40, 246
- guidelines for researchers 4–8
- journal coverage 9–10
- message, content of 26–8
- methodology 8–9
- need for 3
- receivers 29–31
- results and conclusions 9–18
- sampling difficulties 243–4
- SMCR model of communication 22–31
- source factors 24–6
- Resnik, Alan 311
- resource advantage theory 6
- responsibility see corporate social responsibility
- retail advertising, department store see Estonia
- retailers, power of 477
- Richards, J.I. 21
- Riès, Philippe 512
- Riffe, Daniel 244
- Roberts, P.W. 353
- Rodgers, Shelly 295
- Rokeach, M. 64
- Romania 315
- Rowley, J. 342
- Russell, P. 213
- Russia
 - advertising, changing attitudes to 179–81, 185
 - competitions, importance of 184
 - consumer ethnocentrism 242
 - gender differences 458
 - retail demand forecasting 181
 - United States, influence on 180
- Sagiv, L. 96–9
- sampling
 - advantages of 233
 - advertising standards/ regulation, and 239
 - approaches
 - attention samples 243
 - census and pseudo-census sampling 234
 - convenience sampling 224, 234, 242–3
 - depth interviews and focus groups 217–19
 - probability sampling 235–6
 - quota sampling 235
 - self-selected/ volunteer samples 234
 - theoretical sampling 159–60
 - theoretical saturation 159–60
 - typical case sampling 235
 - co-authorship/ collaboration, advantages of 246–8
 - common variables, as basis for 248–9
 - data accessibility 240
 - data collection costs 237, 243
 - digital advertising, and 293
 - equivalency 224–5, 241
 - education 237–8
 - emerging/ developing markets 237–8, 246–7
 - ethnic minorities 238–9
 - experiments and preliminary testing 244–6
 - inter-firm vs. intra-firm sampling 313
 - Internet, use for 225, 246, 249–50, 313–14
 - language barriers 237
 - limitations/ challenges 215, 224–5, 236–40, 242–4
 - solutions 246–50
 - meaning 233
 - online advertising 313–14
 - population definitions 233–4, 236
 - reliability of 215, 224–5, 236, 239–40, 246
 - sample administration 224–5
 - sample size 235–6, 245
 - selection criteria 215, 223–4, 231–2
 - standardization strategies in 249

- study time period 240, 244
 telephone surveys 241–2
 Schein, E.H. 91
 Schiffman, L. 31
 Schoefer, K. 330
 Schultz, D.E. 25, 475, 481, 490
 Schumann, D.W. 480
 Schwaiger, M. 353, 355
 Schwartz, Shalom
 general values, theory of 50–51, 66–7, 94
 conservatism 96–8
 cultural practices 91
 egalitarianism 96–8
 harmony 96–8 hierarchy and autonomy 96–8 mastery 96–8
 online advertising, applicability to 307–8
 other theories, compared 98–9, 101
 Sears, R.R. 211 secular-rational societies, cultural values 47
 Segal, Madhav 241
 self, views of conceptual equivalence 211–12
 cultural psychology differences 111, 114–15
 cultural products, and 123–4 emotional influences 116–17, 124–5
 individualism vs. collectivism 125–6, 456–68
 self-esteem, and 32, 114–16
 horizontal vs. vertical values 456–9
 advertising implications 466–8
 gender differences 459–66
 measurement scales 461–2
 studies of 459–66
 self-esteem 32, 114–16 self-expression, consumer value of 47 self-reliance 32
 Shanghai see under China
 Sharma, Subhash 282
 Shavitt, Sharon 21, 34–5
 Shaw, J.J. 486–7
 Shen, Yung-Chen 245
 Shin, K.A. 313
 Shoham, A. 488
 Shweder, Richard 110
 Sia, Choon Ling 317
 Sibley, Stanley D. 289
 Singh, Nitish 307–8, 316–17
 SMADV see social media advertising
 SMCR model of communication 22–3 communication channels 28–9 message, content of 26–8
 receivers 29–31
 source factors/ agency practice, and 24–6
 Smith, R.E. 331
 Smith, Tom W. 220
 social capital theory 291
 Social Darwinism 426 social media see also e-WOM expenditure trends 398–9 growth trends 403 influence of 297
 in emerging/ developing markets 398 in retail advertising 194–5 social communication, for 286–7 study, US usage compared with UAE 400–401
 results and conclusions 409–16
 study method 406–9
 virtual global village, and 286–7 social media advertising (SMADV) absorption analysis 409–13 activity/ usage analysis 408–11, 415–16
 consumer beliefs and attitudes
 age of users, and 413–15
 cultural differences in 409–13 responses, trends in 405–6 studies 404–5, 409–13 influences, socio-economic 403–5, 409, 415–16 economic development condition 415 economy benefit 404 falsity/ lack of sense 404–5 hedonism/ pleasure 405
 materialism 404 personality/ utility factors 405 product information 405 social role and image 405 value corruption 404–5

- social networking websites 92 see also social media
 cultural value theories, application to 290–92
 Estonian retail advertising, and 195
 Facebook 92, 195, 286, 290
 research measurement and analysis 295 Twitter 195, 286
 usage, comparison of 286
 Society for Personality and Social Psychology 123 soft-sell advertising 160–64, 170, 175–6
 Soh, H. 439, 441, 443
 source factors, of advertising cultural background 24–5 organizational culture 24–5
 research content analysis 24–6
 Sparkman, Richard 238, 243
 Spencer, Herbert 426
 Srintvasan, V. 245
 standardization, in advertising/marketing adaptation, vs. 378, 484–6, 488
 benefits of 484, 498
 competitive environment, and 487–8 consumer homogeneity, and 488 contingency approach to 489–91 cultural differences between markets,
 and 487
 environmental influences on 487–8 glocalization, and 474, 486–7
 limitations/ challenges 483–5 localization, vs. 473–4, 484, 497–8 global brands, and 431–3
 in online advertising 304–6, 320
 probability markers, and 378
 research trends 444, 473–4, 498 third places, of 431–3 websites, of 304–6, 320 organizational experience, and 487 places of leisure, of 430–33 policy restrictions, and 487–8 product universality, and 487 reconciliation, and 486–7 sampling strategies, in 249 theory of 483–4
 Starbucks 431–2
 Stathakopolous, V. 488
 status symbols/ appeal advertising use of 164, 467–8
 equivalence tests 211 horizontal vs. vertical values, and 456–9
 advertising implications 466–8
 gender differences 467–8
 studies of 459–66
 Steenkamp, J.E.M. 7, 47, 214, 220, 281
 Stern, Bruce 311
 Stevenson, H.W. 406
 Strauss, A. 158–60
 Strodtbeck, F.L. 76, 102–3 structural equations modeling (SEM) 252–3 see also partial least squares path modeling (PLS)
 Sudweeks, Fay 308
 Sullivan Mort, Gillian 291
 Sun, Shaojing 315
 Sundaram, D.S. 328 survival, as cultural value 99–101 susceptibility to normative influence (SNI) 53
 Sweden 467
 Sweeney, J.C. 329–30
 Tai, S.H.C. 400
 Taiwan advertising agencies, global strategy
 study 503–13
 cultural psychology, influences on 35, 124–5, 245
 online advertising in 318
 Tallinn Kaubamaja (department store) see Estonia
tanci (Chinese story-telling) 146
 Taoism 112–13, 115
 Taylor, C.R. 5–6, 8, 13, 27, 158, 279, 444 teachers, suitability for cross-cultural comparison 96–7
 telephone surveys 241–2
 television advertising
 attention samples 243
 in China 400
 collectivism 34–5
 in Estonia 184–7, 193–4 Internet-enabled TV, and 291 in Japan 171, 173–4 mass media influence on 476–7

- research content analysis issues
 - 243–4
- trust in 442
- Tellis, Gerard D. 282–3
- Terlutter, Ralf 74–5, 77, 105, 238, 243
- Teune, H. 222
- Thailand 318
- Tharp, M. 474, 486
- theoretical bases for 6–7, 14, 23–4
- theoretical sampling 159–60
- theoretical saturation 159–60
- third places
 - changing trends 430–31
 - characteristics 430–32
 - meaning 430–31
 - neo-third places, businesses as 431–3
 - standardization of 431–3
- time
 - future orientation values 75–6
 - sampling time period 240
- Tomlinson, John 45
- Toyota 499–500, 511
- tradition
 - advertising focus on 163–4
 - as cultural value 47, 99–101
- translation
 - back-translation processes 7–8, 15–16, 221–3, 382
 - equivalence tests 213, 221–3
 - errors in, impact on foreign
 - advertising campaigns 434
 - international research, difficulties with 220–23, 237
- transmissive communication 285–6
- transnational trust see trust
- Triandis, H.C. 36, 49, 459–60
- Trompenaars, F. 50
- Trusov, Michael 287, 338
- trust
 - in advertising
 - collectivism, and 448–52
 - cultural value differences, and 442–9
 - effects of 441
 - importance of 439–40
 - measurement of 440–41
 - as multidimensional construct 441
 - online advertising 440–43, 448–52
 - power distance 378–9, 448–52
 - source credibility 440
 - studies of 441–9
 - variations 439–40, 443
 - in word-of-mouth/ e-WOM marketing 330–31, 334, 336–8
 - generally
 - consumer decrease in 476
 - meaning 439
- Tsai, J.L. 124–5
- Tsang, M. 288
- Tsao, James C. 289
- ‘turg’ trading 188
- Twitter 195, 286
- typical case sampling 235
- uncertainty avoidance
 - as cultural value 48, 65, 102
 - e-WOM campaigns, and 342–4
 - Hofstede on 48, 65, 68, 70–71, 93–5, 314
 - online advertising, and 307, 310–11, 314–15
 - probability markers, and 378–9
 - Project GLOBE, in 68, 70–71, 102, 445
- Unilever 43, 88–9
- United Arab Emirates
 - advertising trends 401–2
 - economic development 400–402
 - internet penetration trends 402
 - social media usage 401–2
 - study, comparing with US 400–401
 - results and conclusions 409–16
 - study method 406–9
- United Kingdom
 - corporate reputation study 360–72
 - online product reviews 289
 - trade with China 138–9
- United States
 - advertising agency advertiser-client model 499–502
 - global strategy study 502–13
 - advertising in
 - compared with Japanese advertising 160, 163–4, 170
 - cultural dimensions, applied to 162
 - definitions 232–3
 - disastrous campaigns 434

- e-WOM, motivations for using 345
- expenditure on 20–21, 403
- informational/ transformational approach to 164
- online advertising, reactions to 315–17
- product merit/ status appeals 164
- television advertising, regional content in 243
- tradition, focus on 164
- Chinese product boycotts 149–51
- context and focus, influences on 119, 162–3
- corporate reputation study 360–72
- cultural psychology 123–4
 - emotional influences on 124–5
 - first-person vs. third-person perspective 126–7
- cultural sensitivity, lack of 434
- economic growth, influences on 402–3
- gender differences 458
- motor companies, brand strategies 509–12
- social media usage
 - development trends 403–4
 - study, compared with UAE 400–401
 - results and conclusions 409–16
 - study method 406–9
- uses and gratifications perspective 290–92
- utilitarian services, and advertising probability markers 376–8, 382–3
- values see cultural values
- Van de Vijver, F.J.R. 226
- Van Hove, G. 331–2
- Vanhamme, J. 329
- vertical cultural dimensions see collectivism; individualism
- virial marketing 159, 325, 338–9
- virtual global village 284, 305
 - global digital consumer culture 290, 296–7
 - social media, and 286–7
- visual content, importance of 27–8
- Viswanathan, N.K. 488
- Vogth, C.A. 331
- Volkswagen 509
- volunteer sampling 234
- Vooerveld, Hilde 312–13
- Wang, Ying 128, 315
- Weathers, Danny 282
- websites see also online advertising; social networking websites
 - cultural differences 29, 122–3, 127–8, 305
 - cultural customization effect 316–18, 320
 - language effect 318–19
 - cultural values in, study 307
 - standardization vs. localization of 304–6, 320
- Wei, Betty Peh-T'I 144
- Weitz, B. 439
- well-being, as cultural value 99–101, 116–17
- Westbrook, R.A. 329
- Westernized values 35, 42, 48, 141–5, 161–2
- Wetzer, I.M. 330
- Wiles, C.R. 467
- Wold, Herman 254, 265
- Wolin, Lori D. 406, 409
- women see also gender differences
 - as advertising targets 148–9, 151
 - cultural influences on 148–9
- Wong, Nancy 49
- word-of-mouth marketing 287 see also e-WOM
 - characteristics of 325, 327–8
 - consumer motives 325, 327, 329
 - credibility of 330–31, 334, 336–8
 - effects of 336–8
 - emotional basis for 328–30, 334–6, 342–5
 - and negative information 331
 - negative word-of-mouth 329–30, 341–2
 - other advertising sources
 - in combination with 331–2
 - compared with 330–31
 - research on 327–9
 - sender motives 328–30
 - tie strength 328
 - valence 328–9

- Wu Chien-Jen 144
Wyer, R.S. 459
- Xu, Heng 291
- Yaprak, Attila 282–3
Yip, George S. 498
Yoon, Doyle 312
Yoon, S-J. 442
- Young, Alyson 290
Youtube 92 yuefanpai (Chinese ‘calendar’ advertising) 144–6, 148
- Zakaria, Fareed 20
Zanasi, A. 219
Zeelenberg, M. 329
Zhao, X. 144, 312

