

---

Contents

---

List of contributors	viii
Preface	x
List of abbreviations	xii

PART I HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

1. The history of international human rights law Maya Hertig Randall	3
2. Human rights law and international humanitarian law between 1945 and the aftermath of the Teheran Conference of 1968 Robert Kolb	35
3. Theories on the relationship between international humanitarian law and human rights law Hans-Joachim Heintze	53
4. The position of individuals in public international law through the lens of diplomatic protection: the principle and its transfiguration Giovanni Distefano	65

PART II COMMON ISSUES

5. The relationship between international human rights and humanitarian law: an overview Vera Gowlland-Debbas and Gloria Gaggioli	77
6. Extraterritorial application of the human rights to life and personal liberty, including habeas corpus , during situations of armed conflict Robert K. Goldman	104
7. Proportionality in the European Convention on Human Rights Enzo Cannizzaro and Francesca De Vittor	125
8. Human rights obligations of non-state armed groups: a possible contribution from customary international law? Jean-Marie Henckaerts and Cornelius Wiesener	146
9. Positive obligations in human rights law during armed conflicts Sandra Krähenmann	170
10. Some reflections on the principle of humanity in its wide dimension Antônio Augusto Cançado Trindade	188
11. Specificities of human rights law and international humanitarian law regarding state responsibility Christian Tomuschat	198

vi Research handbook on human rights and humanitarian law

12. The quest for a non-conflictual coexistence of international human rights law and humanitarian law: which role for the lex specialis principle? 223
Jean d'Aspremont and Elodie Tranchez
13. A lex favorabilis? Resolving norm conflicts between human rights law and humanitarian law 251
Anne-Laurence Graf-Brugère

PART III THE NEED FOR A COMBINED APPROACH

14. The law of occupation and human rights law: some selected issues 273
Tristan Ferraro
15. Humanitarian assistance to protect human rights and international humanitarian law 294
Roberto Giuffrida
16. The prohibition of enforced disappearances: a meaningful example of a partial merger between human rights law and international humanitarian law 320
Gloria Gaggioli
17. 'Humanitarian rights': how to ensure respect for human rights and humanitarian law in armed conflicts 343
Dan Kuwali
18. Human rights law and international humanitarian law as limits for Security Council action 371
Michael Bothe
19. UN territorial administrations: between international humanitarian law and human rights law 391
Ivan Ingravallo
20. International humanitarian law and human rights rules in agreements regulating or terminating an internal armed conflict 416
Luisa Vierucci

PART IV MONITORING MECHANISMS

21. Universal human rights bodies and international humanitarian law 441
Walter Kälin
22. The Inter-American Court of Human Rights and international humanitarian law 466
Hélène Tigroudja
23. The European Court of Human Rights and international humanitarian law 480
Lindsay Moir
24. The African Union and international humanitarian law 503
Djacoba Liva Tehindrazanarivelo
25. A new World Court of Human Rights: a role for international humanitarian law? 531
Manfred Nowak

26. The International Committee of the Red Cross and human rights law Godofredo Torreblanca	540
27. The International Humanitarian Fact-Finding Commission and the law of human rights Eric David	570
28. Human rights in the context of international criminal law: respecting them and ensuring respect for them Damien Scalia	575
29. Is there a need for new international humanitarian law implementation mechanisms? Paolo Benvenuti and Giulio Bartolini	590
30. Reparation for individual victims of armed conflict Elke Schwager	628
Index	661