
Contents

List of figures	vii
List of tables	viii
List of contributors	ix
Preface	xiv

1 History of comparative law and society David S. Clark	1
---	---

PART I METHODS AND DISCIPLINES

2 Comparative sociology of law Roger Cotterrell	39
3 Comparative criminology Francis Pakes	61
4 Comparative anthropology of law Elizabeth Mertz and Mark Goodale	77
5 Comparative law and economics: accounting for social norms Francesco Parisi and Barbara Luppi	92
6 Comparative law and political economy John C. Reitz	105
7 Comparative legal psychology: eyewitness identification Ruth Horry, Matthew A. Palmer, Neil Brewer and Brian L. Cutler	133

PART II CORE ISSUES

8 Separation of legislative and executive governmental powers Howard J. Wiarda and Jonathan T. Polk	157
9 Federalism and subnational legal systems: the Canadian example of provincial constitutionalism G. Alan Tarr	175
10 Judges, their careers, and independence Carlo Guarnieri	193
11 Civil court litigation and alternative dispute resolution Koen van Aeken	216
12 Criminal courts and procedure Stephen C. Thaman	235
13 Administrative law, agencies and redress mechanisms in the United Kingdom and Sweden Michael Adler and Sara Stendahl	254

vi	Comparative law and society
14	Constitutional law and courts Tom Ginsburg	290
15	Legal cultures David Nelken	310
16	Legal education David S. Clark	328
17	Legal professions and law firms David S. Clark	362
18	Legal protection of the environment Stephen C. McCaffrey and Rachael E. Salcido	403
19	Preventive health at work Julie C. Suk	422
	Index	445