

Elgar Journals - Author Self Archiving and Reuse Policies

Authors may also use the final published version of their manuscripts in their presentations, lectures, teaching materials and for sharing with their research collaborators. On request we will also be happy to grant permission for reuse or adaptation in the author's own future publications.

Please always reference the Version of Record as follows:

© [name of author, year]. The definitive, peer reviewed and edited version of this article is published in [Name of Journal, volume, issue, pages, year]

The Version of Record must not be posted online on commercial or free public servers, such as SSRN, or in Institutional Repositories, or any other such site with public access.

* For example research funders that are part of Plan-S

Figure credits: Image adapted from Thomas Shafee. Typical publishing workflow for an academic journal article (preprint, postprint, and published) with open access sharing rights per SHERPA/RoMEO. CC-BY 4.0. https://commons.wikimedia.org/wiki/File:Preprint\_postprint\_published.svg