

EUROPEAN JOURNAL OF ECONOMICS AND ECONOMIC POLICIES: INTERVENTION

GUIDELINES FOR BOOK REVIEWERS

Book reviews should be submitted in English (consistent British or American English) and should refer to monographs or anthologies no older than 18 months. Please keep book reviews between 800 to 2000 words. The managing editors will decide whether to accept. On request we can send you a review copy of the book you are interested in reviewing. All book reviewers will be required to sign a licence to publish form following acceptance of a book review.

Details of the book should be stated at the beginning of your review as in the following example:

Hein, E. and E. Stockhammer (eds) (2011): A Modern Guide to Keynesian Macroeconomics and Economic Policies, Cheltenham, UK and Northampton, MA, USA (392 pages, hardcover, Edward Elgar, ISBN 978-1-84980-140-9)

Indicate your correspondence address including email address.

If your book review is accepted for publication, the following guidelines will have to be observed for publication. If need be, you will receive a list with required corrections. Therefore we recommend that the following guidelines be observed from the very outset:

- Copyright and permissions: Permission to reproduce from copyright material is required if the extract quoted exceeds 400 words or a collection of extracts exceeds 800 words. This is only a rough estimation and permission should be sought from the publisher of any published material if in doubt. It is the author's responsibility to seek written permission for any work in copyright and also to settle any fees which may arise as a result of this. Copyright of material published in the UK lasts for the author's lifetime plus 70 years. Acknowledgement of source, author and publisher must be made. Permissions should be cleared before the article is submitted.
  - > Illustrations: Permission is required for any tables, diagrams or illustrations copied from published sources, which includes material posted on the internet and screenshots. Acknowledgement of source, author and publisher must be made. Original tables and figures with information drawn from other sources do not need permission but sources must be acknowledged.

- Libel: Please ensure that you do not make any defamatory or injurious statement about living persons, institutions or other organizations which could result in libel claims.
- We prefer Rich Text Format (RTF) files. Please ensure that you save the most recent version of your file. We suggest using the 'Save As ...' option to save the most recent version and naming it with the date the file was created.
- Present your file as simply as possible. Do not do any designing or formatting. Regardless of how smart the text looks on screen, any complex formatting will have to be stripped out. Complex formatting will take up more of your time and will also complicate and delay the production process.
- All text should be ranged left, unjustified and without hyphenation for word division at the ends of lines.
- Use hard carriage returns only to end headings and paragraphs and to signify indents.
- Be careful not to key in unnecessary spaces: only one space is necessary at the end of a sentence after a full point.
- One space should be keyed after a comma or other punctuation and before an opening parenthesis. There is no space following full points after initials (Mr J.B. Smith) or between contractions (UK).
- Accents should be retained.
- Commas should be omitted before the final 'and' or 'or' in lists unless the concepts in the list are complicated and the comma aids clarity. Commas are usually unnecessary after adverbial phrases or conjunctions, especially when they begin a sentence – for example: yesterday, however, at last, during the summer.
- Dates should be written 18 August 2012 and decades should be the 2000s without an apostrophe.
- Footnotes: Use sparingly and only for remarks and comments. Insert superior Arabic figures in the text at the appropriate point.
- Hyphenation: Avoid using hyphens wherever possible, unless doing so makes the text confusing.

- Parentheses (round brackets) should be used for simple interpolations, with square brackets used for editorial notes or interpolations in quotations.
- Omit apostrophes in plurals, for example 1950s, MPs.
- Avoid too much emphasis. Italics should be used sparingly for emphasis.
- Replace parochialisms such as 'in this country' or 'this year' with the country name or specific year.
- Try to use gender sensitive formulations.
- Unnumbered lists should not have more than one level; i.e. do not use sub-lists within unnumbered lists.
- For quotations and references use American citations:

One author: (Akerlof 1982: 543)

Two authors: (Akerlof/Yellen 1990: 270)

Three or more authors: (Akerlof et al. 1996: 299)

- Quotations/extracts must be an exact reproduction of the original in both spelling and punctuation even if this conflicts with journal style. Use single quotes for extracts in the text of less than 50 words in length and double quotes for quotes within quotes. For extracts exceeding 50 words in length material should be indented from the left margin, with space above and below and quotation marks should be omitted. Any notes or editorial comment within the extracts should appear in square brackets and any omissions should be indicated by 3 dots in square brackets. Ensure that opening quotation marks are distinguished from closing quotation marks.
- Combine all bibliographical details and your data sources in a list of references. Note the following examples as an orientation:

Please send your book review via email to ejeeviews@e-elgar.com.

The publisher will copy edit the text and the layout will be determined by the journal style.

The actual copy editing will be undertaken by a freelance and the article will be read through carefully for clarity and consistency. The grammar will be checked and any queries noted. Our copy editors are not experts in your subject so, while they can improve grammar, the meaning needs to be clear.

The copy editor will liaise with you over any queries that may arise. After the copy editing has been completed and your answers to any editor queries have been incorporated the file will be sent to the typesetter.

A proof of your book review will be emailed to you in a PDF file so that you can check that no errors have been made when the file was converted. Alterations at this stage would be extremely expensive and time consuming and might delay publication of the journal. We do not take responsibility for mistakes that have been overlooked and thus not corrected in the proofs.

As soon as the issue with your book review has been printed you will receive one copy of the issue and a PDF file of your book review for limited distribution. These will be sent to the correspondence address you have indicated.
