MBA Essentials collection

107 titles published between 2006-2021

Edward Elgar Publishing is one of the most innovative and discerning publishers of business and management books. The breadth, international scope and accessibility of our list lends itself very well to students and instructors in MBA programs around the world as well as to more traditional researchers. We are proud to offer this carefully curated selection of our most popular books specifically for the MBA audience.

We have carefully matched our list against the top 10 MBA programs worldwide to include content on strategy, leadership, marketing, entrepreneurship and innovation, operations management, HRM, finance, the economics of the firm, corporate governance, macroeconomics and research methods. We have striven to ensure that our MBA offering is relevant to the latest teaching in MBA programs. This includes:

- content covering the core elements of the top 10 MBA programs worldwide
- the latest practice-based research on business strategy, governance and marketing from North America and from the rest of the world
- the latest cutting edge research relevant to modern business challenges
- research on individual and corporate entrepreneurial behavior
- research on real world global business problems and solutions
- evidence and advice on expanding markets to new territories
- best practice and evidence on human resources and organisational behavior in large and small organizations.

A valuable in-depth companion resource to MBA textbooks, this offering will ensure that graduates are equipped with the latest tools and knowledge to succeed in the modern business environment.
